At Portland—Portland 3, Oakland 2, At San Francisco—Los Angeles 2, Francisco 1 (10 innings). At Venice—Sacramento 3, Venice 2.

With Elmer Reiger pitching in cible ball for the Beavers, Portla captured the week's series with Oz land yesterday for the fourth win five games played by a score of Pitcher Pruiett, for the Oaks, star on a balloon trip from the start, allo ing the Beavers six tallies in less than four innings pitched. Christian, his successor, kept the locals scoreless for the remainder of the game. Reiger held the visitors to seven scattered hits and not once through the game was he in danger.

Onks Start Fireworks.

Cakland started the pyrotechnics in the first inning, when a single by Kaylor and a long drive to the right field fence by Hetling netted the Oaks one run. The other Oakland tally was secured in the seventh inning.

A two-base hit by Bancroft, followed by Derrick's sacrifice and a low throw by Shortstop Cook, brought in the first Beaver tally in the first inning. Doane increased this score to two runs by a long double to the left field fence, scoring Rodgers. -

Cook's two errors, one in the first and another in the second, are held responsible for two of the locals' runs. Lober games of the series. Score: got to first base in the second innin when Cook muffed the ball and score when Reiger followed with a singl through second. Incidentally, Reige secured two hits in three times at th bat yesterday.

Prulett Ascends' in Fourth.

Prulett's balloon started soaring a rapid rate in the fourth inning. Lo ber started the onslaught with a two base hit to the right field fence and scored when Fisher added a single to Sagana. Oakiana was retired in the second inning by a double play of Rodgers to Bancroft to Derrick and an additional double play by Portland was prevented in the seventh frame when Catcher Gus Fisher dropped the ball after Gardner, for Oakland, was forced at the plate by Mitze on a bunt. Oak-

Enthusiasm Already High. in the form of a "tryout," after will be in the form of a Tryout, after which the best men from the various teams will be chosen to represent the city in the blg league next year. Already considerable talent has been displayed and there is no doubt about Portland being able to put up a brand that will meet the approval of of ball that will meet the approval of the most rabid fan. Uniforms are being arranged for among the local men and considerable enthusiasm is aroused. Meier & Frank Co. have put up a beautiful loving cup a trophy for the winning team, in addition to which the league will give a suitable button or watch fob to each member of the winning team.

Several games have already been played, the job linotypers taking the stereotypers into camp in glorious fashion through the inability of the chine men. Fisher is a new man in the city, halling from Denver, where he have hurled in the Union Printers' League. tory over Baker came in the eighth He has everything on the ball, including Mathewson's famous "fade-away." The linotypers have several other men who have played semi-pro ball and bid fair to give a good account of them-selves. Aspirants "Pi" Chance.

The Oregonion team had figured on a "pick-up" of the trophy, but they "pied" the form in some manner and let the Photo Engravers slip one over on them, However, more will be heard from them later when Shinn, their speedy little hurler, hits his stride.

The Job Printers are considered the dark horse in the field. They have not played as yet but they smile and R. H. E. R. H. E.

The Job Printers are considered the dark horse in the field. They have hot played as yet but they smile and look wise when baseball is mentioned, which is the all-absorbing topic around the print-shops these days However, they go to press with the Oregonians today and then the fur will fly.

The Journal men have been doing a lot of shouting but no playing; but they hook up with the Job Linotypers tomorrow evening at the Vaughn-street grounds at 5:30. The newspaper men have some huskies who are touted as having class but there will undoubtedly be considerably more "pi" than "pick, ups," and the proofreader will find numerous "errors" in the "job." There will be more "outs" than "doubles," while they will be "dropping" fast.

VICTORIA, B. C., June 13. - (Special.)-Bobby Steele was unable to hold the Colts today, and Portland won the final game of the series, 7 to 6.

Victoria batted Young Brown out of the box in the sixth with a fusilade of hits that netted them three runs, but they could not get the one run needed to tie the score. Pat Eastley was rushed into the box when the count stood 7 to 6 in the sixth, and he turned the locals back hitless in three and a third innings. A remarkable feature was the elimthird innings.

A remarkable feature was the elimination of Victoria's two regular catchers by reason of minor accidents and the advent of Nye in the role of backstop, which he filled to the king's taste. He handled Steele well, and his snappy throws to second alpped a couple of would-be base stealers. Hoffman was forced to retire in the third when a foul tip put his thumb out of joint, and Cunningham had a nail on one of his fingers ripped off.

Nye's home run in the opening session and Lamb's triple and a passed ball in the second inning gave the Bees a lead of two runs. The Colts got these back and a couple more for luck in the third after two men were out. Murray and Melchoir walked, Milligan singled and Williams cracked out a long fly over the left-field fence.

Moran's homer brought Victoria a third-tally in their haif of the inning.

Two errors by Nye, another walk for Murray and singles had contains and singles had singles and singles had contains and third-tally in their haif of the inning.

Two errors by Nye, another walk for Murray and singles by Coltrin and Melchoir added two to Portland's total in the fourth, and Williams' second Melchoir added two to Formand's total in the fourth, and Williams' second four-bagger completed their scoring in the fifth. After Wilhoit and Lamb had grounded out in the sixth, Kelly and Delmas batted out singles and Scanlon, who had replaced Nye at second base, lifted the wall over the center-field screen. Eastley went in at this stage and saved the day for his team. Score:
