Nine Nations to Join Parade.

So far nine of the maritime countries have signified their intention to take part in the great naval parade through the canal, and it is certain other par-ticipants will be announced before the end of the year. The countries that al-ready have accepted are the Argentine Republic, Cuba, France, Germany, Great Britain, Italy, Japan, Portugal and Russia.

The entire Atlantic fleet of the American Navy will form the nucleus at Hampton Roads around which the international naval forces will gather. The officers and men of the fleet will be the Nation's guests.

If an the ceromonies at Hampton

Roads are over, the President will take up his quarters on the superdread-nought New York, which will be at that time the most formidable vessel in the world. Then the start will be made for Colon, with the New York leading. The ships will form a column many miles in length, for it is estimated that there will be between 80 and 100 ships in the procession.

The Oregon is to follow, with the Fresidential party, including Admiral Clark, the Cabinet, members of the Senate and House of Representatives and distinguished guests. The Admiral of the Navy, George Dewey, will be invited to make the passage, but it is doubtful if his health will permit. Allowing one hour's time for the passage through the locks of each ship and a day for its transit through the and a day for its transit through the canal, the whole fleet should be trans-ferred from the Atlantic to the Pacific in the course of about four days. If all goes well the first vessels of the international fleet should pass through the Golden Gate by April 15.

"Probably it cannot be constructed by that time," she said, "but the actual construction of it will begin before many months pass. The corner building will be 12 stories high with a glassed-in dining-room on the roof garden. Its bulk will fill in the gap between the present two buildings between the present two buildings which we operate, giving us a front on three sides of the block." The former Washington Hotel is owned by Henry W. Fries and the Kramer estate. The former lease was owned by the Annex Hotel Company. The two buildings of the new Nortonia will give Mrs. Hogue 300 rooms. The original Nortonia was first built for Mrs. Hogue several years ago. It subsequently was operated by the Bowers Hotel Company, under the management of Wright and Dickinson. One year ago it was leased again by Mrs. year ago it was leased again by Mrs. Hogue. She says additional accommo-dations are required.

Mr. Harkins said he had in preparation a list of former large depositors who had withdrawn their accounts since June 1. He said that about that date the deposits exceeded $5,000,000 and they had shrunk to about $2,700,000 the day the bank was closed. To meet these deposits there was less than $50,000 in the vaults. Those who made heavy withdrawals recently will be asked to explain them, the bank examiner said.

President Is Hero of Greatest Alumni Day University Has. Seen in Years.

MARCH IS LONG OVATION

in Darkness Calls From Window: "Why the Noise?"

PRINCETON, N. J., June 13 .- With President Wilson,-"Tommy Wilson, "79"—as the hero of the occasion Princeton's greatest "alumni day" in years was celebrated here today. From all parts of the country Prince-ton graduates flocked to welcome their most distinguished alumnus and for-mer president of the university. Be-ginning with his arrival at noon and lasting until his departure shortly before midnight, the President was cheered, serenaded, shaken by the hand and lionized generally. He entered into the spirit of the occasion and behaved like any other alumnus back at his alma mater.

Washington visitors started when elderly men shouted "Tommy" at the President, but Mr. Wilson only smiled and retorted by calling his old classmates by their first names and nicknames. Once or twice he was called "Doctor" by someone who knew him as president of Princeton, and many hailed him as "Governor."

The climax of the celebration was the parade of the alumni, several thousand strong, from the campus to the baseball field to see Princeton play Yale. The President walked nearly a mile along dusty roads behind a biaring band and beneath a hot sun, but all the way his face was wreathed in smiles. The march was a continuous ovation for him. As his class swung out on the field, preceded and followed by other classes, dressed in every conceivable costume, from sailor suits to patriotic outfits, the thousands of spectators rose and cheered. He circled the field once with the parade and then field once with the parade and the went to his section.

Yale Victory Is Disappointment. The President rooted hard for Princeton and was disappointed when Yale won the game. He asked many questions about the team and joined in the college songs and yells.

Prior to the game the President took lunch at '79 quarters. Dr. C. T. Grayson, the President's naval aide and physician, was made an honorary member of '79. Others who took part in the celebration were Justice Pitney. of the United States Supreme Court; Senator Pomerene, of Ohlo; J. R. Silli-man, Vice Consul at Saltillo, Mexico, and William F. F.
