

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING SPORTING AND MARKET REPORTS

NO. 25.

IT PAYS TO BUY AT GADSBYS'

If there is any doubt in your mind as to where the best assortments, best styles and best values are to be had, it's up to you to post yourself on this important subject. Make up a list of the things you need - see what we offer - compare our prices, styles and qualities with those to be had anywhere else. The result will be a most convincing demonstration of the POSITIVE advantage in making your selections here. We especially want you to note this week's special offerings-they're great-worthy of your prompt attention.

Buffets

This Solid Oak

Rocker

4.55

0

$22.50

Four racks like picture, each carrying 125 patterns. Rugs from 12x15 to 6x9 feet on display. Anglo-Persians, Indians, Arabians, Royal Worcesters, Bagdads and Tepracs-all here at bottom prices.

Some Special Bargains

Imperial Wiltons, $29 9x12 feet, each	9.50 Sussex 9x12 fe	Velvets, $	17.50
Royal Axmin- sters, 9x12 feet. $23		politan $	18.00
Extra Axmin- sters, 9x12 feet $25	CALL AND	Brussels, $	12.50
Saxony Axmin- $18 sters, 9x12 feet		Brussels, $	9.50

Carpets Were Never Sold So Cheap Before - Rugs Reduced for This Sale Genuine Circassian Walnut Colonial Dresser and Chiffonier Special $35 for the Two Pieces

Genuine Circassian Walnut Colonial Dresser, made with heavy top, large 42-inch base, fitted with two large deep drawers and two top drawers; has heavy colonial scroll posts and large French beveled plate mirror. Splendidly finished and con-struction guaranteed, Sp'ec'l price, the pair $35, or $17.50 ea. (Exactly as Illustrated.)

EASY WEEKLY OR MONTHLY PAYMENTS. Notice-We Have Other Dreasers as Cheap as $7.50.

Save 10 to 25 Per Cent by Buying Your Gas Stove or Water Heater More Hot From Gadsbys' Water This Week at a Low Cost for Fuel Quicker Hot Water

CORBETT'S DEFEAT LAID TO CHANGE IN STYLE

Incidents Leading Up to Great Battle With Fitzsimmons at Carson City Are Related by William A. Brady, Corbett's Attitude Changes. We entered into another agreement, but this time I did not get the moving-

We entered into another agreement, but this time I did not get the moving-pleture rights. Stewart, by the new contract, was to build an arena at Car-son with a seating capacity of 29,000, and to arrange for the pletures. He was to get 50 per cent of the profits on All privileges and contests, and the re-mainder was to go to Corbett and Fits, simmons, share and share alike. Corbett his trainer, Delaney and the rest of his retinue started for Careon about a month before the event, and began to train at a little hotel three miles out of town. Suddenly I began to notice a change in Corbett. He who had always been so intelligently re-ceptive of the suggestion and wisdom of those in whose skill he had confi-dence became untractable. He became impatient of suggestion or opposition. He wanted to run things his own way. Me refused to follow the advice of Delaney, who knew him so well, but instead acted on the advice of Judge Lawler, an old California friend, who had come to the training quarters, and who knew as much about boxing as a child. During his training he shifted from the methods which he had found so serviceable. I honestly believe Cor-bet lost his chances by the way he repared himself for battle. If I were a superstitious mag I might rident as a hag ornen. Just before Cor-bett had met Sullivan and while he was in training he bought a colle for 110, a wonderful pugnacious dog, which bett had met Sullivan and while he was in training he bought a collie for fie, a wonderful pugnacious dog, which would tackle shything. There was one thing on earth the dog Ned loved, and only one, and that was Corbett, And Jim loved the dog for all his bravery. Ned always slept at the end of his master's bed, and if anybedy approached the room he would give a terrible growt. In a word, he was Corbett's protector.

Dog Protects Fighter.

Ned was Corbett's constant com-panion during training for the Sulli-van fight, and went with him to New Orleans. Then he traveled everywhere with his victorious master, and made appearance on the stage with him the training scene in "Gentleman Jim." It was Ned's growls that aroused the camp one night when Carbett was training for the Mitchell fight to the fact that some persons had elimbed up next to Carbett's room. It looked as if they ware there to maim or hurt Corbett. In fact, when they were dis-covered and shot at they shot back. Of course, Ned was the hero of the after the bell had runs. I jumped into of course, went to Europe Jim loaned When he went to Europe Jim loaned Ned to John W. Norton, and he re-mained with that gentleman until Norton died. When Corbett went to Carson he for-got all about Ned, partly from the fast. I suppose, that his brother Harry had brought from San Francisco a beau-tiful, full-blooded collis for whom Jim brought from San Francisco a cash ifful, tull-blooded callis for whom Jim had now conceived a deep affection Not knowing this, I thought it would be a good idea to take Ned with mes when I should join Corbett at Carson. I paid Ned's expenses across the Con-tinent is the basyage car, took good care of him and anticipated great pleas ure in introducing him to Corbett again. I found Jim sitting with the beautiful colle dog in his inp. Ned furitously fealous, sprang at the threat of the dog who had supplanted him bit is old master's affection, and they had a terrible row until Corbett savagely pulled them apart and kicked Ned out of the door into the deep snow. Ned's Fate Pithen That night Corbett, who siept in a by the door into the deep snow.

Neds Faie Pittel.
That night Corbett, who slept in a context of the little hold where the solution of the next morning, out to bed, and the next morning, out to be solution of the next morning, out to be solution of the next morning, out to be solution to fight where and to get some young failow where could "rough" Corbett about. The next morning for the solution of the trainer set of the solution of the trainer set of the next arrow the of astional elackness, goil, with the new arrival could take all that "Pompadgur Jim" could take all that "Pompadgur Jim" could take all that "Pompadgur Jim" could take all the new arrival could take all the town the new arrival could take all the town the new arrival could take all the town the new arrival could take all the new arrival could take all the new arrival could take the new arrival could take the new arrival could take all the new arrival could take all the town the new arrival could take all the town take places at the Waveriy Count the new arranged as the July 4 programme to take places at the Waveriy could take to take places at the Waveriy could the set of the take places at the W Copyright, 1914, by William A. Bredr.).

The public, which had been clamping for a fight between Corpetation of Fitzainmona, was only stirred and fitzainmona and persuaded him to show the statute for the statute for the contest, the strainmona recurred to their certain and persuaded him to asfie the bound and was blinkelt as also at the contest. The strainmona recurred to the strain and persuaded him to asfie the contest. The strainmona strainer, until the strain with the strain and persuaded him to asfie the contest. The strainmona strainer, until the strain and persuaded him to asfie the contest. The strainmona strainer, until the strain and persuaded him to asfie the strainer and stronger, until the strain the strainer, while the strainer, until the strainer fragment.

BEAUTIFUL TROPHY SIGNIFY-ING YACHT CHAMPIONSHIP OF OREGON.

tone Festival Trophy Wen by T. J. Mendenhall's "Virginia" ha Rose Festival Regutts.

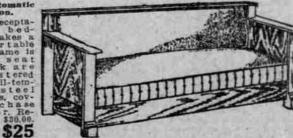

Is now Pestival Regarm. Is rooks as if the days of the observe as the ever-withing champion were listory. Arthur Nholin now has lost thrites to Mendenhall's Virginia. The first time was on June 18, when the Virginia won the Gregon tille by a fraction of a minute over a five-mile course. The heat re-peated on Wednesday and did it a third time Friday uight over a seven-mile course. The next title ment will be at the Astoria Re-spatt, when the mettle of all the craft will be tried in the Reavy winds and rough water of the coast port.

and that was the end of Corbetl as champion. Corbett got up and tried to fight Meb after the beil had rung. I jumped into the ring and mage a speech and chalmed it was all a mistake, and that he was not out, that he had a right to go on. But the verdict was against us; Cor-bett was taken to his room, broken occurred. There was something avoid this purching bag, Jeffries, that made me and Delaney observe him carefully. We saw that he was a "commer," and I at once made a proposition to take him East with me, but he did not want

This Davenport for $25.00

The preparation for the taking off moving pictures of this fight was nearer as the wave for both set and gross scores.
The preparation for the taking off moving pictures of this fight was near the wave of the set of the set blow." At the time of the event the place was full of notables. Senator John J. Ingalis, of Kansas, was there as a spe-

Ingalia, of Kansaa, was there as a spe-cial writer, and it was very amusing to see this very distinguished man as he hat in a box with Mrs. Fitzsimmons her husband in terms of the ring. At the sound of the bell Corbett be-ran punching and jabbing with his left rounds made a fool of his opponent. Is the sixth Corbett landed on Fitz-simmons took the count. After the fight was over we claimed

Three golfing events and a pole match between the Waverly Country Club and the Bpokans Polo Club teams have been arranged as the July 4 pro-gramme to take place at the Waverly Country Club. The first wolf event is the men's

Nearly 100 Youngsters Expected in Play on Waverly Links.

The annual caddy tournament at the Waverly Country Club links starts June 20. This usually brings out some claver taint, as it is from this source the ranks of the professionals are devel-