

TONY FAUST WINS MATINEE FEATURE

Hunt Club's Racing Programme Is Brilliant and Elite Crowd Turns Out.

THRILLING HEATS STAGED

Mrs. F. G. Buffum, on Jim Johnson, Winner of Ladies' Trotting Event by Superb Horsemanship. Scores of Jumpers Perfect.

By ROSCOE FAWCETT. Despite threatening weather a goodly crowd of the elite fringed the Portland Hunt Club field at Garden Home yesterday for the annual field day events of this popular Portland organization, headed by James Nicol.

While the feature event was the special match race between Oregon Frank and the Salem entry, Tony Faust—won by the latter—six other excellent events contributed to a highly illuminating afternoon.

Eugene Oppenheimer was astride the well-known favorite, Oregon Frank, in the big race, with Galbraith, a Salem jockey, aboard. Faust, Frank got away slightly in arrears but pulled up even at the first turn only to hit a stretch of muddy underfooting.

From that to the finish Frank was a loser despite Gene Oppenheimer's most strenuous efforts to make up ground.

The time for the race, 55 1/2, was good, considering the heavy track. Faust won the W. E. Prudhomme trophy.

Trot for Ladies Feature, Too

Of equal importance was the half-mile trot for ladies, Mrs. F. G. Buffum winning on Jim Johnson after an exhibition of superb horsemanship. Miss Sallie Leadbetter on Dancing Girl easily won the first heat, but had trouble keeping her mount in the trot during the last two heats.

Jim Johnson acted very peevish in both the first heats. He was last at the quarter in the initial getaway, but Mrs. Buffum held him to the task and he swept across second to Dancing Girl. Mrs. Buffum and Miss Leadbetter also made thrilling finishes in the second heat, Jim Johnson winning first honors.

In the third and deciding round there was nothing to it but the buy. Jim Johnson simply breezed around the oval, never once breaking step. The time in the final heat was 1:36. Dancing Girl won second money and Brigada, ridden by Mrs. James Murphy, finished third.

Merry Legs, ridden by Douglas Nicol, won the quarter-mile pony race and Edgewood Girl, Alex Wilson up, captured the last two dashes.

In the half-mile dash for the Joseph Healy trophy, Eugene Oppenheimer shot across the wire a winner on Call Bond. Howard Charlton surprised everybody by pressing Call Bond for a good second on Chester Hilo. Mike Wisdom finished third.

In the Liverpool and jumps three classy jumpers finished with perfect scores and the honors were adjudged in favor of Johnnie, with A. Smith up, Oregon Frank was awarded second prize and Duke third. J. H. Farrell's champion mount Premier failed to clear the water beyond the final barrier and did not place.

In the mile-and-one-half relay the red team, consisting of Eugene Oppenheimer, Howard Charlton and William C. Karstentun, kept the pace at a thrilling session. Chester, Murphy's Irish Lad evidently hadn't been fed enough at breakfast time, for it displayed a disposition to hit the barn trail on the back turn at a crucial time.

Results. Ladies' half-mile trot—Jim Johnson, ridden by Mrs. F. G. Buffum (2, 1, 1); first; Dancing Girl, ridden by Miss Sallie Leadbetter (1, 2, 7); second; Brigada, ridden by Mrs. James Murphy, third; time, 1:40 1/2, 1:43 1/2, 1:36. LEAGUE'S AIM WIDE Campaign for Oregon Industries Is Planned.

L. SAMUEL IS PRESIDENT

Education of People at Large to Support of All State Institutions and Organizations Has Been Undertaken.

Chester J. Hogue Director

"I regard it as more of an honor to have been chosen president of the Oregon Industry League, than if I had been elected to the office of United States Senator from Oregon," said L. Samuel, yesterday. "I believe that in the work of the league there is a greater opportunity for me to serve the State of Oregon and the people in it than I could in any other way. The Oregon Industry League completed its organization only a short time ago and already is launched into a campaign which will be statewide, to educate people of Oregon to support Oregon industries and Oregon institutions. "Keep Oregon money in Oregon" is one of the slogans that the league is advancing. The aim of the league is to cover a scope of work much wider than the mere use of Oregon-made goods in preference to other goods. It holds that Oregon merchants and Oregon contractors should be given preference over those in other states, by people of Oregon; it holds that Oregon educational institutions should be patronized by Oregon people in preference to the institutions of other states. In short it aims at a concentration of the support of all the people of the state upon all industries and institutions which contribute to the prosperity and upbuilding of the state. More than a score of civic and commercial bodies are identified with the activities of the league, having seen be an opportunity to spread the gospel of education. W. C. Gunther, one of the members of the board of directors, will attend the annual convention of the Oregon Retail Merchants' Association, in La Grande, as a representative of the Oregon Industry League, and it is intended to have delegates attend every convention of importance that may be held in any part of the state, to insure still stronger support for the movement. Associated with Mr. Samuel as officers of the league are the following: Vice-president, C. A. Whitmore; secretary-treasurer, Fredrick T. Hyskell; directors, W. C. Gunther, Chester Hogue, A. C. McMillen and W. H. McMonies.

RETAIL MERCHANTS OBJECT

Association Opposes Giving of Commissions to Persons Not Employed.

Commissions to persons not regularly employed by retail houses is opposed by the Portland Retail Merchants' Association, and a resolution was adopted at the meeting Friday placing the organization on record in this attitude and recommending that each member do all in his power to assist in stamping out the practice as far as possible in Portland. The association has decided to hold no further luncheons or dinner meetings until next September, owing to the fact that vacation season takes many out of town.

PRODUCTS OF AND TO BE EXPLOITED

Definite Arrangements Made for Northwest Show to Include Manufacturers.

ARMORY IS SITE CHOSEN

David M. Dunne Appointed President and Louis W. Buckley General Manager of Executive Committee in Charge.

It has been definitely settled that the Northwest is to have an Industrial and Land Products Exposition. Directors of the Manufacturers' Association of Oregon and the Pacific Northwest Land Products Show Association have mapped out plans, a number of contracts have been arranged for, the location where the show will be held has been secured, and the dates have been fixed.

At a meeting held a few days ago the following committee of management was selected: For the Manufacturers' Association of Oregon: David M. Dunne, E. L. Thompson, Henry Connor, A. J. Kingsley, A. M. Harradon, A. E. Gantenbein, P. Feldman, A. C. Black, O. E. Heintz, R. B. Bain, W. E. McKibben, W. H. McMonies, S. Mann. Representing the Land Products Association were the following directors: John S. Beall, Wilfrid P. Jones, F. W. Hill, W. J. Hoffmann, Julius Meier, Francis Sealey, William McMurray, W. E. Coman, A. P. Bateham, Fred Larson, E. D. Timms, W. D. Skinner, H. J. Ottenheimer and R. W. Raymond, secretary.

Executive Committee Selected.

These in turn selected the following executive committee with full power to transact all business: David M. Dunne, chairman; A. J. Kingsley, E. L. Thompson, A. P. Bateham and John S. Beall. Louis W. Buckley was appointed general manager. Mr. Buckley started in on his duties at once and will open an office for the committee in the Commercial Club building immediately.

David M. Dunne, as chairman of the executive committee, and president of the show, will be the same position in the last important industrial exposition held in Portland at the old Mechanics Pavilion, 17 years ago. Colonel Dunne has been identified in an executive position with most of the big industrial affairs of this nature held in the past quarter of a century. In Portland, other members of the executive committee have been identified actively with public-spirited projects of interest, are represented by the members of the 34 governing directors.

The plan proposed is to hold an exposition that will be financially self-supporting, but the financial affairs are to be governed and carried out through underwriting the entire financial end of the show. L. Samuel, of the financial committee, said at the meeting of the committee that the $15,000 guarantee fund would be raised in three days.

Opening Date October 26.

The Manufacturers' and Land Products Show will be held from October 26 to November 14 at the Armory. Extra floor space will be obtained by the erection of several special temporary buildings, one 100x120 and one 60x300 feet, and by the buildings on streets adjoining the Armory, which can be had without interfering with streetcar service in front of the Armory or the wholesale traffic on another street. By permission of the city authorities to close these streets, about 80,000 square feet can be had for exhibition purposes.

Mr. Buckley was general manager of land shows of Omaha, Kansas City, Milwaukee, and other Eastern cities. He was also manager of a large number of home products and manufacturers' expositions. He was director of ceremonies, special days and special events at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific, and also at the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo, and came to Portland four or five weeks ago on other business, but was retained by the committee for this exposition.

Through the co-operation of the transportation companies in making excursion rates and thoroughly advertising this show, it is expected that thousands of visitors, not only throughout the state and the Northwest, but tourists as well, will be among the visitors.

BEACH TRIP IS PLANNED

BAYOCEAN TO BE MECCA OF PROGRESSIVE BUSINESS MEN JULY 4.

Three Days of Sports by Seashore in Club's Programme and Big Committee Makes Arrangements.

Three days at the beach for the members of the Progressive Business Men's Association and their families is the plan for the second annual beach excursion of the club, which will be held July 3-5 at Bayocean.

Robinson W. Nisbet is general chairman of the excursion committee and Mrs. Alva L. Stephens will be chairman of the women's "get-acquainted" committee.

The excursion will leave from the Union Depot Friday, July 3, at 3:40 P. M. and will reach Bayocean at 7 o'clock the same day. After dinner and assignment of the members of the party to hotels, the opening of the Bayocean natatorium will be celebrated with prize contests in swimming and diving. Summers' band will serenade the visitors.

Surf bathing and athletic contests will be held on the morning of July 4 and in the afternoon a hike to the caves, a baseball game on the beach and a tennis tournament are to be held. A band parade and a big beach bonfire and fireworks, followed by a dance, will be the celebration at night. Surf bathing Sunday morning will be in order and after dinner the party will start back for Portland at 2 o'clock, reaching Portland at 10:20 P. M. The details of the excursion are in the hands of: Trainmaster, J. H. Dundore; publicity, J. J. Sayer; refreshment route, E. B. Cooke; dancing, H. W. Strong; stunts, H. C. Jones and Sol Baum; surf bathing, N. F. Titus; Cape Meares, G. N. Woodley; guide and bonfire, R. A. Coan; baggage, P. H. Kneeland; music, S. C. Rasmussen and R. Pulton; ice-cream, bandmaster, Owen Summers; boats, J. B. Frazier; goodfellowship, Dr. W. O. Spencer; bungalow and hotel assignments, Frank Barringer and Dr. L. H. Howland; first aid, Dr. R. G. Hall; train equipment, J. A. Ormandy.

OAKS SHOWS FILM

Pictures of Rose Festival Parades Featured.

EVENTS AT PARK TAKEN

Crowds on Cars, Masses at Gates, Parties on Thrillers Are to Be in Reel Produced by Movies at Amusement Grounds Today.

An entire reversal of previous policy will be inaugurated at the Oaks Amusement Park today, when, in addition to McElroy and his band and the Hawaiian Troubadours, Manager Corday has arranged for the first showing of "How Beasie Saw the Portland Rose Festival." This is a four-reel motion picture film in which every feature of the festival is covered in detail, including all the parades and other features of interest. Another unique picture feature is that a motion picture camera man will be stationed all day in the Oaks to make over a reel of pictures showing life at the amusement park. The camera man will start at first and Alder, showing the crowds boarding one of the big trailer cars. Then cars will be shown unloading at the Oaks. A view of the various gates will be taken. Then there will be a series of action pictures on the trail, in which every amusement device will be shown in action, with the crowds thereon. The pictures will be taken at such close range that it will be possible for all to be recognized when the film is screened later. The amphitheater will be filled when crowded with people. In rapid succession the camera man will visit the animal cages, the swimming pool, the chutes and so forth. The completed pictures will be exhibited at the Oaks one week later. Today's feature is shown. The festival film is expected to draw many thousands of parents of children who participated in the children's parade. Perhaps the most successful part of the film is that section devoted to "Beasie's" views of the children's parade.

DASHING YOUNG DRUM MAJOR OF KERN'S SCHOOL AT CHILDREN'S PARADE, ROSE FESTIVAL.

Cecil Roy Milner, 6 Years.

Cecil Roy Milner, aged 6 years, won fame this year as the dashing drum major who led Kern's School division in the recent school children's parade at the Rose Festival. Wearing a tall coonskin hat and quite a picturesque uniform, and twirling a drum major's baton, Cecil was one of the bright boys of the parade, and to see the smart manner in which he marched along Grand avenue was an object lesson to all young athletes. Cecil was born in Canada, and therefore he cannot become President of the United States. But he has a much higher ambition, and that is to be, when he grows up, a famous football player. And why not? De Witt, of Princeton; Brickley, of Harvard; Heflinger, of Yale, and Frank Tompkins, of Oregon, big football stars, once were six years old. Cecil came from Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, about one year and a half ago.

MAN HELD FOR ROBBERY

M. SIMUNICH CHARGED WITH TAKING $3000 FROM WOMAN.

Lavish Expenditure of Money Clew for Detectives Who Make Capture in Seattle—Suspect Brought Here.

Detective John Goltz arrived in Portland yesterday from Tacoma with Martin Simunich, wanted here for the robbery, May 21, of Louise Troutville, proprietor of the Hotel Richland, 2 1/2 Sixth street North. The reported loot was more than $3000 in money and jewelry, $500 being in gold coin.

Simunich, who is said to have deposited $500 in gold in a Tacoma bank, was arrested in Seattle by Detective Goltz, with the assistance of the Seattle police. With Detectives Healy and Tackabay, Detective Goltz followed Simunich's trail from the day after the robbery.

Lavish spending marked the four days that Simunich stayed in Portland after the robbery. Nearly pleasure resorts were visited by Simunich and a number of friends, where gold pieces were displayed. The open manner of Simunich's spending was the chief clew possessed by the detectives.

When Simunich arrived in Seattle the detective says he bought a $50 suit of clothes for himself, a $75 suit for a woman companion and spent much money in the hotels. When arrested Simunich had about $100 and one diamond ring. He refused to draw the deposit from the bank to bring it to Portland, and would not sign his name, which the detectives wanted as evidence of his depositing the money. He also refused to talk.

A teaspoonful of gossip will taint a kettleful of pure truth.
