

Miss Anna Borron, Who is House Guest of Her Aunt Mrs. Charles T. Whitney

Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Lee Hoffman left Thursday afternoon for the Canadian Rockies to join her daughter. Miss Margaret Hoffman, who has been visiting in Boston, New York, Washington and other cities East. They will make a tour of the lakes and resorts in the Rockies.

Mrs. Arthur W. Chance entertained on Wednesday at a large bridge tea, More than a dozen tables were arranged in the drawing-room and on the latge balcony, where flowers of lovely coloring made an attractive background for the handsomely gowned matrons. In the evening Drand Mrs. Chance entertained at a buffet supper and auction bridge. The dining-room was decorated with varicolered sweet peas and garden flowers. About 50 guests were present.

Miss Margaret Anson, of La Grande, is a house guest of Mrs. Edgar B. Piper at 770 Marshall street. She came to Portland to attend the Cartwright Malarkey wedding.

Mrs. Gordon Voorhies and her four thildren returned home last week from the East. Mrs. Voorhies went East to accompany her children home from school and was away about four weeks. Miss Margaret Voorhies and her four school and was away about four weeks. Miss Margaret Voorhies wan in Europe at Miss Marjs travel school of Florence and Parls: Miss Marion was in Miss Spence's school in New York, and her two sons were in Middlesex School, Concord, Mass.

Nearly 500 prettily-gowned matrons and maids of the smart set thronged

-- an Atigeh Bros.

Oriental Rug Sale

of unusual character

TE are planning to exhibit at the San Francisco Exposition-planning to go there with the largest collection of rare pieces ever assembled for a World's Fair. We were awarded the Grand Prize at both the Lewis & Clark and Alaska-Yukon Expositions. We naturally desire to maintain the prestige accruing from unquestioned Pacific Coast leadership resulting therefrom, by securing similar results at San Francisco. To aid in such an achievement we must make a sacrifice now.

It takes a lot of time and money to prepare for a World's Exposition. For example, a member of our firm must leave soon for Constantinople and Persia to assemble the exhibit; and he must have money, as rug transactions in the Orient are on a cash basis only. To make sure of getting this necessary cash-and getting it now-we have taken two radical measures.

First, we have closed one of our branches---that at Spokane---and have shipped to Portland a stock as large as that regularly maintained here.

Second, these rugs, together with our regular stock, will for a short time go on

Red sale tags have been added to each piece, so that you can come and stay and look about as long as you like without having to inquire what the reductions are on every piece that

Extraordinary Special Sale Tomorrow (Monday) Morning

We have a stock of three thousand Rugs and Carpets. No stock approaching this in size and variety has ever before been offered to Portland buyers. We want to move it; and time is pressing. Many of the reductions made for this sale are the most noteworthy in the history of our business. Dealers and collectors will recognize them immediately and

For example, we quote a few of the reductions as follows:

attracts you.

will profit accordingly.

Size frame above to the factors of t

COUPLE KEEPS WEDDING SECRET FROM FRIENDS.

Nearly 300 prettily-gowned matrons and maids of the smart set thronged the Coursen residence Wednesday when Mrs. Edgar E. Coursen and her attractive daughter. Miss Geraldine Coursen, entertained. An artistic effect was obtained with yellow and blue flowers, and made a pretty back-ground in the music room, where the instesses received. Tall spiked Pasaden forms were combined with the flowers.

Pink was the keynote of the color scheme in the dining-room, sweet peas and gladfoli being arranged about the room and on the table.

Mrs. And Mrs. Orvel & Oryen

Mrs. Mary Ellen Galiagher and Orval Virts Bryan surprised their many friends by quietly slipping away and getting married on Wednesday, June 10, Miss Florida Scott, of. Astoria, the White Temple, Rev. Dr. Hinson officiating. Both Miss Galiagher and on the table.

Mrs. Carl L. Wernleke and Miss Olive Failing served ices, and the tea table was presided over by Mrs. W. C.

Mrs. John Francis Shea entertained with a charming bridge-tea on Thursday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Mrs. John Castleman, of New York, who is passing the Summer in Portland, and her sister, Mrs. Paul Lee Butz, of Lee Angeles, Cal. Six tables were arranged for bridge in the drawing-room and about 40 additional guests called at tea time. The hostess was asisted by Mrs. George Willard Brown, Mrs. Louis Gerlinger, Jr., and Mrs. John Francis Daly, who presided in the dining-room. The Misses Cornella Stanley, Alberta Bair and Ivelou Shea helped in serving. Shea helped in serving.

Shea helped in serving.

A pretty bridge-tea was the diversion planned by Mrs. Catherine A. Daly, to honor Mrs. Charles A. Boss, on Wednesday at her apartments in the Irving. Five tables were arranged for the players in the living-room, which was decked artistically with crimson ramblers and Canterbury bells. Dainty Cecile Brunner roses decked the dining-room, and card honors fell to Mrs. Frank R. Johnson, Mrs. John Annand and Miss Julia Chemin.

Mrs. Daly was admired in a handsome lingerie gown. Mrs. Boss was attired in a pastel blue charmense, trimmed with filmy lace.

The tables were arranged to represent different cities abroad. Tivoli, Messina, Pompeli, Rome and Malta.

Those present were Mrs. John Annand, Mrs. H. B. Adams, Mrs. D. G. Burntrager, Mrs. Charles L. Boss, Mrs. C. A. Coolidge, Mrs. J. C. Costello, Mrs. H. M. Curtis, Miss Julia Chemin, Mrs. John Dodson, Mrs. William Gadsby, Mrs. W. F. Graham, Mrs. Frank Johnson, Mrs. W. D. Jollison, Mrs. John Manning, Mrs. Walter Ridehaigh, Mrs. R. M. Tuttle, Mrs. Harvey Wells, Mrs. Robert Strahorn, Mrs. Benjamin F. Weaver, Mrs. C. A. Devers, Mrs. W. M. Cake, Mrs. Clarence Veasie and Mrs. Lyddon Veysey.

An interesting engagement of a charming Portland girl, Miss Heien

An interesting engagement of a charming Portland girl, Miss Heien Highee, and Frederick Mason De Neff was announced at a pretty luncheon presided over by Miss Ethel Clarke on Tuesday. At the luncheon only intimate friends of Miss Highee were present and the news was made known by tiny heart-shaped cards bearing the

A charming affair was the musical and tea for which Mrs. Harry S. Mc-Craken was hostess on Saturday afternoon at the parlors of the Portland Hotel. About 190 guests enjoyed Mrs. McCraken's hospitality and encored repeatedly the charming selections given by Mrs. Beatrice Barlow-Dierke, who was the plane soloist for the afternoon. The rooms were adorned with huge clusters of tall American Beauty and La France roses from the McCraken gardens, artistically arranged in baskets and vases.

The hostess was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, of Salom: Mrs. George Cotner Mason and Mrs. Henry E. McCraken. The hostess little niecs, Miss Margaret North, attired in a dainty lingeric frock, received the guests at the door. A bevy of girls of the smart set assisted about the rooms in serving, and included the Misses Dorothy Huber, Winnifred and Esther Birrell, Mabel Riggs, Marjoric Peterson, Cornelia Stanley, Shanna Cumming and Alice Carey, one of the popular brides-elect.

Mrs. C. S. Jackson has returned from

Mrs. C. S. Jackson has returned from a delightful trip to Japan, the Philippines and Southern China. She was in Kyoto at the Cherry Blossom Time Festival in April, and has been gone about three months.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Grelle have leased the J. Andre Foulihoux cottage at Gear-hart for two months, and will leave the middle of next month with their child-ren and Mrs. Grelle's mother, Mrs. James Henry.

Call, Investigate Convince Yourself

That I can save you money or Diamonds. My stock, which is the largest in the city, consists of the better grade of Diamonds. Quality for quality, no other store can equal my prices. I

Credit Accommodations Without Extra Charge

FELIX BLOCH FORMERLY OF

MARX & BLOCH 283 MORRISON ST., Between Fourth and Fifth Sts.

ALASKA EXCURSION

Only a few more days to make your reservation.

708 SELLING BUILDING. Main 4993, A 7133.