

WASHINGTON HIGH TO GRADUATE ITS SECOND LARGEST CLASS

THE graduation exercises of the June '14 class of the Washington High School will be held in the school auditorium next Tuesday evening, with the programme starting promptly at 8:15 o'clock. The class is the second largest since the school was built several years ago.

Although several prominent athletes will be lost this time, the number is not as heavy as in former classes. Kent Wilson, winner of the 100 and 220-yard dashes in the Portland Intercollegiate League track and field meet, is in the present class as is George Davis, manager of the 1913 football team, and Alvin W. Miller, manager of the famous championship team of 1912. Clifton Johnson is another athlete who will be missed by the school.

The members of the class are as follows, the numbers referring to the accompanying illustrations: 1—Mildred Graham, 2—Hugh Breckon, 3—George

LA GRANDE BUILDING KEEN

Indications Point to Year of Wonderful Growth for City.

LA GRANDE, Or., June 20.—(Special.)—The Y. M. C. A. building, to cost $25,000, is under construction. The new addition to the Grand Ronde Hospital, to cost $40,000, has been begun, a contract for the Catholic Church, to cost $45,000, has been let, a more of houses are being built and contracts for a dozen more have been let.

No previous year in the history of the city has seen so much activity in the building line, and indications point to activity for the entire year. All this, with the proposed improvements to cost $25,000 for which the C. W. B. & N. has made provision, will make a year of wondrous growth in the real estate of the city.

Grand, dusky of Baden now has 2,142,822 inhabitants.
