CHURCHES PLAN NOVEL SERVICES FOR THE SUMMER MONTHS

Music, Moving Pictures and Lantern Slides to Take Place of Regular Programmes for Warm Weather.

with just a short talk on current top-light in diversity." He urges his les. Motion pictures and lantern-side illustrations have been introduced into both church and Sunday school gatherings. Everything is being done to velopment, make the church interesting and to meet the needs of humanity. As a result, the attendances are well up to the mark.

During the Summer months, beginning with this Sunday morning, the funday school of the First Presbyferian Church, Tweifth and Alder extrects, will have lantern slides in place of the regular lessons. The officers and teachers of the school have made a careful outline of the course they wish to present, and an interesting and instructive series is the promised result. They will follow the life of Christ, and the work of the Church on foreign mission fields. Bible stories will be told and descriptions given of the pictures.

At the Central Christian Church the pastor. At 8 o'clock instead of the usual sermon, there will be rendered a so-cial musical programme. It will be robably be the last special musical programme until after the warm weather.

Professor LeRoy St. John, of Chicago, will sing at both morning and evening services. Mrs. Maud Springer watkins will direct the music. The public is cordially invited to all the services of the day.

J. F. Ewing, superintendent of the school, will present the first set of pictures today, and give a talk on "New Americans for a New America," a study in immigration. This is a subject of interest to young and old, and will be held in the main Sunday school auditorium in the Church House.

Records will be kept of the individual attendance during the entire Summer, and prizes will be awarded on Rally day to those who have been present every Sunday.

Rev. John H. Boyd, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will be present at both services today, and will preach at 19:30 A. M. and 7:45 P. M. The musical programme is set.

coming to Oregon. There will be special music by Mra. Frank M. Taylor.

The dates for the holding of Methodist Northwest conferences have been changed. This change is compulsory, as Bishop Cooke found one whole month of time would be lost between conferences, that it would be impossible for the representatives of the various boards to adjust themselves to these demands and that in zig-zagging here and there between the given dates the expense of travel would be practically probibilitive. Bishop Cooke has therefore, after much telegraphing, fixed the dates as follows:

North Montana, Chauteau, P. R. Mo-Mahon, August 18; Montana, Forsythe, C. E. Fenton, August 26; Idaho, Payette, A. L. Howarth September 24; North Dakota, Carrington, F. H. Farrand, September 30; South Dakota, Wessington, I. M. Hargett, October 7.
