LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 27 .-- (Special.)—"Phenom" Ehmke is no longer a phenom. He lost his third game today and takes his place among the just common-every-day heavers of the Coast

Hi West, Portland's pitcher, won his own game with a three-bagger in the second, which drove in two runs.

With this triple, a single, a walk and a hit batsman, Portland scored the three runs in the second frame. They didn't come within a mile of scoring again, but it was enough to beat the Angels, 3 to 2, and put the series also 3 to 2, in favor of the Beavers. It was a really good game. Hi West, though hit harder than Kid Ehmke, used his noodle, and asset Ehmke as yet has not mastered, and in the pinches he was nigh invincible. Twice the Angels had a chance and a good one, either to the up the game or forge ahead, but West took a new hitch on his pantaloons, steamed up on the ball and it was all off.

Brashear Plays First. Hi West, Portland's pitcher, won his Weak Spots Strengthened in Lineup at Seattle.

Fans and Luck Comes to Men in All Positions Where Fate Before Denied Chance to Show.

BY PORTUS BAXTER, SEATTLE, June 27 .- (Special.) -The Portland Colts are a much better team than when they appeared in Seattle during the latter part of May. In that series Manager Nick Williams re-marked that his team did not seem to the season. Salveson, one of the flingers dug up this season by Walter McCredle, did not make much of an impression in the game he worked here some time ago, but, if anyone will take the trouble to inspect the score, he will find that even then the lad from Los Angeles was effective after the first inning. Seattle managed to beat Salveson last Tuesday 2 to 1, but up to the eighth inning he had Seattle eating out of his hand. He has the size to back him up and has shown the goods. If the same luck follows Nick Williams eisewhere that has been his lot here he will not have any batting aver-GOOD GAMES ARE PLAYED at Fact the ball often and hard, but sensational fielding has deprived him of the bingles.

Coeur d'Alene Made Out Anew.

Portiand personnel to take part in the Coeur d'Alene Regatie July & 3 and 4 has been changed somewhat.

The what?"

"The Velodrome de Hi-ver (Hi-ver pronounced like river.)

"Oh, you mean the Velodrome de Heever" (preneunced like cleaver).

Here a third man broke in:

"You're both wrong. That's pronounced Velodrome du Hiver" (like diver).

And so on all day. In all of Portiand's 280,600 there were not two men who prenounced it exactly allike.

The last part is pronounced de Hewer's line and the imple race.

The last part is pronounced the last "er" pronounced as "ear" in wear.
