

SUMMER BRINGS NO WANING OF INTEREST IN CHURCHES

Choirs Take Vacation, but Special Music Is Substituted and Sermon Themes Continue Attractive—Methodists' Conference Date Is Set.

While the church services for this season of the year are not so elaborate as they are in the Spring and Fall, many interesting sermon topics are announced and attendance is keeping up well. In many of the Catholic Churches there are just the low masses. Many of the choirs are taking a vacation, but special songs, with a few solos by leading singers, are planned for a number of the churches. Sermon topics continue to be of attractive themes.

In the Sunnyside Methodist Episcopal Church the members are planning to welcome the Rev. Elmer Smith, who will succeed the Rev. William H. Fry as pastor. Dr. Smith has been very successful in the Hawaiian Islands where he was in charge of mission work.

The New Thought convention will close today. Some speakers of National reputation have been among those who have participated in the meetings that have been held in Christensen's Hall.

The date for the Western Oregon annual conference of the Methodist Church has been set for September 28. It will be held at the Central Christian Church in the early Fall. The General Conference (National) will not be held until 1916, when it will meet at Long Beach, Wash. Even now plans are being made by local Methodists to attend this conference, which brings together many of the world's notables.

Clark). The choir will sing "Rejoice in the Lord" (Ezra).

The firmen who are at liberty will attend the service, and the general public is invited. The theme of the morning service will be "Christ Our Pattern."

Rev. J. J. Staub, D. D., pastor of the Sunnyside Methodist Church, will leave for his vacation on July 1 for Long Beach, Wash. Dr. George E. Paddock, Home Missionary superintendent for Oregon, will preach for Dr. Staub for the first part of the month.

"Second Coming of Christ" to Be Topic of Sermon.

Dr. Hinson Also Will Discuss Question "Can a Man Come Back?" White Temple Quartet to Sing at Both Services.

TODAY at the White Temple, Dr. Hinson will preach in the morning on "The Second Coming of Christ." A preacher recently said the doctrine of the second coming always split churches, but when every New Testament writer alludes to it and mentions of it is made in every 38th verse of the New Testament, it would appear as though it were of more importance than some people imagine. At this service the Temple Quartet will render the anthem, "Brightest and Best of the Sons," by Dudley Buck, and Mrs. Pauline Miller Chapman will sing as an offertory, "O Divine Redeemer," by Gounod.

At night, when the service commences at 7:45, Dr. Hinson will discuss the question, "Can a Man Come Back?" He will base his remarks upon a life of which many know too little, where a man tried hard, but found he could not "Come Back." The Temple Quartet will sing at night the anthem "There is an Hour of Hallowed Peace," by Barnby, and the solo, "God's Promising," by A. B. Williams. The superintendent of the service will be Mrs. Chapman, while Mr. Hutchinson will be heard in "The Light of Heaven's Own Day," by Briggs. At this service the ordinance of believers' baptism will be administered.

In the morning the Sunday school of the First Baptist Church meets at 10 o'clock. Under the superintendency of Professor Wilder and classes are provided for all. In the evening the young people of the church meet in the low temple.

Tomorrow Dr. Hinson will start for Los Angeles, where he will make two addresses at the Baptist Union People's Union Convention, which is in session in that city. Next Sunday he will occupy the pulpit of the First Baptist Church of Los Angeles. His place in the White Temple will be filled by Rev. Dr. Davies, of the First Baptist Church, of Spokane.

The congregation of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Knappa, Or., welcomed its pastor, Rev. W. F. Powell and his bride at an elaborate reception on Tuesday night. The wedding of the popular couple took place in Bureka, Utah, the home town of Mrs. Powell, formerly Miss Grace Youngstrom. Last Sunday Rev. J. W. McDougall preached in the Knappa church and while the Powells were in Portland they were entertained by Rev. Mr. McDougall.

Beginning Sunday evening the Kenilworth Presbyterian, the Union Kelly Methodist Episcopal and the Tabernacle Baptist churches will hold union Sunday evening services as follows: June 28, at the Clinton Kelly Methodist Episcopal, East Thirty-ninth street and Powell Valley road, Rev. J. C. Tibbets preaching; July 5 at the Kenilworth Presbyterian, East Thirty-fourth and Gladstone avenue, Rev. John Parson, preaching; July 12 at the Tabernacle Baptist, East Forty-first street and Holgate avenue, Rev. L. K. Richardson preaching; July 19 at the Kenilworth Presbyterian, Rev. J. C. Tibbets preaching; July 26 at the Clinton Kelly Methodist Episcopal, under the auspices of Anti-Slavery League; September 6 at the Tabernacle Baptist, Rev. John Parson preaching; September 13 at the Clinton Kelly Methodist Episcopal, Rev. L. K. Richardson preaching.

Christian Yoga Meet to Discuss Church Doctrine.

Four States to Be Represented in First Conference of This District Opening in Central Building at 10 o'clock Today.

THE first annual convention of Christian Yoga for this district, which includes Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana, will convene tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, at the rooming of the local society in the Central building.

The first public session will be held Monday evening at 7:45 in the Women's Woodcraft Hall, corner of Tenth and Taylor streets. All public sessions are free and special musical programmes have been provided for each session.

There will be vocal solos by Robert Burton, Miss Anna Friske, Mrs. Frank M. Purse and Miss Ethelred McMillin, with piano selections by Mrs. D. T. Hunt and Miss Elina Anderson.

At the Monday evening session Frank O. Garrison, minister of the local center, will give the address of welcome to the delegates and people. Ralph M. de Bit, editor of the Christian Yoga Magazine, will speak on the "Christian Yoga Movement and Its Healing Message." There will also be an address by A. K. Mozumdar, founder of the work in America.

Tuesday afternoon at 2:30, the Rev. Ralph Martin de Bit will speak again on "Why Christian Yoga is the Unifying of All Presentations of Truth." Tuesday evening at 7:45 the principal feature will be by A. K. Mozumdar, whose

LEADERS IN CHURCH WORK.

Rev. J. E. Snyder, pastor of Piedmont Presbyterian Church, is one of the leading religious workers in the city.

Rev. J. H. Black, of St. Francis' Catholic Church, is an eloquent speaker.

Father George L. Thompson is the popular priest in charge of the parish of the Church of the Madeleine. He has increased greatly the strength of his parish.

Mrs. C. A. Ward is president of the Central Christian Church Sisterhood.

Rev. R. N. McLean is pastor of Anabel Presbyterian Church.

People will be "The Master Spirit." These lectures aim to give as complete an outline as possible of the message of Christian Yoga, which, they say, is a clear and understandable statement of the relation of man to God and the way to find him.

The Congregational Ministers' Association of Portland and vicinity held a session Monday, the final meeting before vacation. G. N. Edwards retires from the presidency and J. R. Knodell, of the Laurelwood Church, was elected to fill the position. Rev. Frank W. Gorman, of the Atkinson Memorial Church, again was elected as secretary and publicity man for Congregationalism.

The Sunday school of St. James' Church observed children's day last Sunday. The music and the exercises were pleasing and the attendance was good. F. J. Guth, superintendent of the school, presided.

Mrs. Pageler Heads Missionary Society.

Miss Emille Weiskotten, who is home from work in India, guest of Rev. J. Allen Leas.

REV. J. ALLEN LEAS has returned from the synodical meeting at Bellingham, Wash., and will occupy his pulpit morning and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Pageler, who attended the meeting of the Pacific Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church at Bellingham, Wash., returned last week. Mrs. Pageler was elected president of the Missionary Society. This society is constituted of societies from Oregon, Washington, California and British Columbia. The interest of the society was much enhanced by the presence of Mrs. J. H. Harpster, who, with her late husband, spent more than 20 years as a missionary in India.

India, Mrs. Harpster and Miss Weiskotten were both entertained while in this city, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Leas at 287 West Park street. Miss Weiskotten is on her way to Philadelphia, where she will rest for a while before returning to her work in the foreign field.

Rev. Mrs. C. J. Larsen, from Seattle, Wash., and her three gifted daughters will be participants in the evening service at the Vancouver Avenue Church, on corner of Skidmore street.

YOUNG MEN'S SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS INCREASES MEMBERSHIP FROM 20 TO 72 IN YEAR BY UNIQUE PLAN TEACHER ADOPTS

Mrs. A. P. Lange, of Piedmont Presbyterian Church, Divides Members Into Groups of Ten Each and Holds Contests in Which Merit Marks Are Awarded, Based on Attendance, Collection, Discipline and Proficiency in Work—"On to 150 Membership" Campaign Begins—Speakers Address Class.

Piedmont Presbyterian Church Sunday School Class

Second Row—Baker, Hanks, Bolton, Chamberlain, Marshall, Dougherty, Hoff, Hoff, Hoff, Fallett, Clark, Mrs. Lange, Chase, Reed, Weston, Miller, Beard, Frizible, Brown, Trowbridge, Diganan and Parkhurst.

Third Row—Burgard, Berkley, Tatro, Lamar, Fairfax, Lawrence, Stason, Frizible, Snyder, Woodruff and Yoc.

THE departure of Mrs. A. P. Lange, of 1106 Rodney avenue, Walnut Park, who expects to accompany her husband and family to New York City on July 1, is a cause of sincere regret in the Piedmont Presbyterian Sunday school, where she has been a teacher for some time. Possessed of unusual ability and attractiveness, Mrs. Lange has shown a power of organization and persistency of purpose such as have never been equaled in the conduct of Piedmont Sunday school.

An unique system of dividing her class into groups and having a merit and contest marking has resulted in remarkable success in the young men's class, of which she has been teacher during the first year of the system.

Mrs. Lange took charge of the class one year ago. At that time it had a membership of 20 young men and boys. Immediately she divided them into groups of ten each. She appointed a captain to preserve discipline and a censor, or secretary, to record markings for each group.

By this original system Mrs. Lange has increased the class membership from 20 to 72 students, with an average attendance of 90 per cent. The scholars average 15 years in age.

Contests are held at different times for which the successful group is awarded some useful article. Markings determined the winning team. These were made on the following basis: Attendance, 25 per cent; collection, 20 per cent; discipline, 25 per cent; proficiency in class work, 30 per cent.

Speakers are invited to address the Piedmont Presbyterian Church, will succeed Mrs. Lange as teacher of the class.

The Universalist Church, at Broadway, East Twenty-fourth street, lives up to its name as one of the most inclusive and inspiring religious forces in the city. In addition to the kindly and instructive sermons of the pastor, Dr. Corby, the best speakers who come to the city for conferences or other gatherings are invited to speak. While the pastor is deservedly popular and the congregation always receives a feast when he speaks, he encourages his people to hear other leaders, invites them to assist in the service and shows them that their liberal faith has long anticipated that which is presented, and that Universalism includes all that is best in religion, philosophy and psychology. Dr. Corby has invited Rev. John W. Ring, of San Diego, one of the speakers at the New Thought conference, to assist in the service this morning at 10:30 o'clock. The organ recital and children's choir are features of the early part of the service.

With Dr. Richard C. Cabot's book, "What Men Live By" as the inspiration, Dr. Luther R. Dwyer will spend tonight on "Play" at the First Congregational Church. This is the second of the series, the first of which was Pastor Points Road of Success to Indian Boys.

Commencement Address at Chemawa School Says That Failure Are Due to Low Standards Rather Than Poor Brains.

REV. JOHN H. BOYD, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, delivered the commencement address before the graduating class of the Chemawa Indian School, Thursday afternoon. He spoke upon "The Road to Success," and pointed out that while knowledge is fundamental, failure is more due to lack of character, to deficient mentality, and that success awaits the man who has a finely balanced combination of mind and morals, a disciplined mind that knows, and a conscience which attended to the needs of the forces of personality along the lines of honesty and justice and faithfulness to the tasks of life.

At the First Presbyterian Church, corner Twelfth and Alder street, Rev. John H. Boyd, D. D., the pastor, will occupy his pulpit at 10:30 A. M. and 7:45 P. M. Dr. Boyd has arranged to speak each Sunday evening during the next month, on subjects suggested by the early chapters of the Book of Genesis. His subject for the Sunday evening will be "Man's Relation to Nature; His Supremacy and Dominion."

The young men's Bible class, under the leadership of H. C. Ewing, will continue its regular class sessions throughout the summer, at 12:15, room 11, First Presbyterian Church. The class is taking up the study of the regular international Sunday school lessons. Mr. Ewing has but recently returned from an extensive tour of the Holy Land and gives the class first-hand information concerning the birthplace and earthly home of Jesus.

Under the leadership of Mr. Hazlett, the young men have formed a baseball team, which is rounding into fine shape and expectations are that it will carry off the pennant this year in the Inter-School Baseball League. "Lefty" Beard will twirl the oval this season. All followers of the game will remember that "Lefty" is a hero, who has taken his place on one of the prominent Middle West teams a few years ago.

A special invitation is given to all newcomers to attend the class and participate in its many activities. Some of the members take prominent part in the services at the Men's Resort, corner of Fourth and Burnside. Others help take charge of meetings at the Fraser Home for Children. Regularly on the third Sunday of the month a large delegation goes to the Young Men's Fraternity and holds gospel service for the inmates at the institution. It is also actively engaged in the directing of a circulating library among the lumber camps of the Northwest.

The summer session of this Sunday school of the First Presbyterian Church was ushered in last Sunday with an attendance of 489 children, promising success for the plan of the superintendent and teachers who have outlined the instruction in lantern slide studies. The little ones are under the care of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Thaxter, who are telling the story of the child life of Jesus.

The pictures for today in the main auditorium of the church house will be a continuation of the "Lesson on Immigration," which was given last Sunday. J. F. Ewing, the superintendent, will speak to the school on "New Americans for a New America."

The first annual convention of the Christian Yoga for this district will be held in Women's Woodcraft Hall Monday and Tuesday.

The district includes all of the states of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana. At this session, the location of the permanent headquarters for the district will be decided, the choice of which at present lies between Portland and Spokane.

Besides the business sessions of the delegates, there will be public sessions, when addresses will be made by A. K. Mozumdar, founder of the work in America; Rev. Ralph M. de Bit, superintendent of the work in the Southwest; and F. O. Garrison, minister of the local society. A suitable programme has been arranged for the first public meeting, to be held the evening of June 29.

Church Honors Memory of David Campbell.

Centenary Methodists Prepare Programme, While Firemen's Band Will Give Musical Selections and Pastor Will Talk on "Heroism."

A Centenary Methodist Church, East Ninth and Pine streets, at 7:45 P. M. Sunday, will observe the David Campbell memorial service. David Campbell met his death in the service of the city, at a fire which destroyed the Union Oil Company's plant, on June 25, 1911. He was for many years one of the city's most popular figures and in the circumstances of his death he was nothing short of heroic. Fittingly at this service, Rev. Delmer H. Trimble will take for his theme, "Heroism."

The Firemen's Band, one of the most prominent musical organizations in the Northwest, which toured the East last year, will be present in uniform, in full force of upwards of 30 pieces and render the following programme: March, "Love and Glory" (Lee Oren Smith); medley selection, "Gospel Hymns" (David Snowberger); "Spring Song" (Edward Bergenholts); march, "Cavalry Commander" (Herbert L.

thousand and Irving streets, will leave on July 1 with the Oregon Naval Militia, of which he is chaplain, on the cruise to the Hawaiian Islands. He will be gone three weeks. Rev. Herman Lind, recently of Tacoma, now located here, will fill the pulpit during Mr. Lind's absence. Dr. G. Krump, of Clatsop, will preach at the Epworth League, Augustana College and Theological Seminary, Rock Island, Ill., will speak at the evening service today.

The Luther League of St. James' Lutheran Church will hold an "old-fashioned" farrow supper in the parsonage lawn Monday night.
