Our climbing Beavers, entering into the spirit of a safe and same celebration of the Fourth, read the Declaration of Independence to Mr. Speck Harkness, impersonating King George III, in the morning. When the oratory had ceased, Mr. Harkness was discovered at the bottom of a 9-to-4 score and Portland had rung up its fourth victory, and its third win in a row for the series. The afternoon game went against the locals 6 to 4.

Mr. Bud Ryan fittingly officiated for Patrick Henry in the morning contest. the bases in the eighth, one out, but, With the score 3 to 2 for the King's followers in the seventh, Mr. Ryan injected the peroration of his famous speech, "Give us a home run, or we'll take one anyway," by poling one over the right-field wall. This tied the score and laid the cause of the Col-

Just to impreas the King with the cause of Liberty, the Beaver Colonists whacked him for six safe hits and as many runs in the eighth. Ten Colonists trotted to the plate in this rousing period.

Double-Header From Senators Gives

Cal Ewing's Boys Old Place. SAN FRANCISCO, July 4 .- In puruance of an apparent policy it has followed several weeks of dropping the first three of four games and coming strong on the finish of a series, San Francisco hoisted itself back to third place by winning a double-header today from Sacramento, scores: 3 to 0 and 8 to 2.

"Lefty" Leifield broke the losing streak of the Seals in the morning by shutting out the Sacs with two lonely hits. San Francisco punished Klawitter in the first and seventh with five hits and three runs. The Sacs filled the right-field wall. This tied the gathered three hits and a couple of runs. Orr was bounced in the sixth for protesting a decision. Scores:

Afternoon Game.

Afternoon Game. A spectacular ninth-inning rally won for Happy Hogan's men in the second game. Fourteen players were used by Hogan during the game. At the start of the ninth, the score stood: Portland 4, Venice 2. Southpaw Evans, twiriling for Portland, went te pieces and was replaced by Rieger, but only after Venice had completed its cally.

McArdle started for Venice by knocking the ball into the left field bleachers for a home run, scoring McDonnell, in the second inning. In the ninth Evans walked Bayless and Litschi drew a double to the right field fence. Bay-less crossed the plate after Doane caught McDonnell's sacrifice fly. Mc-Ardle joined Litschi on the bases when Bill Rodgers muffed his infield fly. Bi-that fulled the bases by beating out a flott filled the bases by beating out a to Evans.

After Bliss, a pinch hitter, had re-ceived one ball. Manager McCredle *Murph) ceived one ball. Manager McCredie yanked Evans and Rieger commenced pitching for Forfland. Hogan pro-tested the change in pitchers, but to no avail. Then Hap showed his au-thority by putting Meloan, another pinch hitter, at bat to replace Bliss. two runs with a long single to the right field fence. Although Powell pitched poor ball after replacing "Cack" Henley, he gets the credit for yesterday's win. In the eighth inning, with the score 2 and 2, Powell allowed Ryan a double. Ryan stole third and crossed the plate when Powell forced him by walking Kores.

Fowell forced him by walking Kores, Lober and Yantz, consecutively. The latter three were left on bases when Evans popped to McArdle for the third out. A double-header will be played this afternoon, the first game to start at 1:30 P. M. Porfland has won four of
