Or., July 4.—(Special.)—In a final report the Marion County grand jury says it could find no evidence that gambling was being indulged in here or that the local option law was being violated in the clubrooms of several fraternal and social organizations. There have been numerous reports that poker and other gambling games were being played, but the police were unable to find any. It also was re-ported that intoxicating drinks were being dispensed in clubrooms. District Attorney Ringo informed the grand jury of the reports.
