CONGRESS RESERVES RIGHT

Christian Provinces to Choose Representatives by Popular Vote, Non-Christians to Have Legislators Appointed.

WASHINGTON, July 11 .- An Administration-approved plan for a more autonomous government in the Philippines as another step toward independence was laid before Congress today.

Representative Jones, of Virginia, introduced the bill. Mr. Jones is chairman of the House insular committee, and his measure declaring the purpose of the people of the country as to the future political status of Filipinos, follows a long series of conferences with President, Secretary Garrison, Manuel Quezon, the Philippine Resident Commission to the United States, and Democratic members of the insular committee, all of whom have approved it informally. Date of Independence Not Set.

The bill makes no attempt to fix a date for Philippine Independence. Its preamble recites that it was never the intention of the people in the inciplency of war with Spain to make it a war of conquest or territorial aggrandizement. It asserts that it always has been their purpose to recognize the independence of the islands "as soon as a stable vernment could be established therein." It declares it to be desirable to place in the hands of the Filipinos as large control of their domestic affairs as may be consistent with the exercise in the meantime of the right of sovereignty of the United States. Mr. Jones, explaining his Philippine

'WARBURG'S MOVE,' DECLARES SENATOR

SENATE COMMITTEE TO TAKE NO FURTHER ACTION.

Opponents of Confirmation to Seek Publicity of All Facts Developed in Investigation.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Publicity of all facts ascertained by the Senate banking committee relating to the nominations of Thomas D. Jones, of Chicago, and Paul M. Warburg, of New York, as members of the Federal Reserve Board is sought by Democratic and Republican Senators who oppose their confirmation.

An effort will be made next week to have lifted the ban of secrecy on this testimony taken by the committee in Mr Jones' case

Senator Hitchcock, acting chairman of the committee, when he makes the committee's report adverse to Mr. Jones' nomination, proposes to move that the testimony in full be made public and also that all the facts regarding Mr. Warburg's case be aired.

Nearly every member of the bankng committee today received scores o letters and telegrams from individuals and business associations throughout the country urging the confirmation of Mr. Jones and Mr. Warburg. No messages have been received, so far as could be learned, opposing President Wilson's nominees.

Members of the committee today said no further action would be taken on Mr. Warburg's nomination unless the New York banker should consent to appear before it. "It is Mr. Warburg's move," one Sen-

VERA CRUZ, July 1 .- Sincere in his convictions as is Secretary of the Navy Daniels, there is little doubt but his genial spirit would be somewhat perturbed did he realize the irritation he has aroused in the naval service by the enforcement of his own ideas.

There is a spirit of resentment in the ervice which has never been equaled fleet, and it is literally true that the navy is counting the days until March 4, 1917, when it has hopes of Mr. ampaign was the election of Eugene Daniels' retirement from his present Rich. The campaign ended last nest As long as he is secretary Mr. As long as he is secretary Mr. Daniels' orders will be obeyed in letter and spirit by every man, and there will be not a word of complaint or criticism in public, but the fact remains that the way in which the North Carolinian can best please the service today is by resigning.

Influence Is Demoralizing. It is probably true the service is not entirely justified in its bitter feeling toward Mr. Daniels, yet the feeling is here, a demoralizing influence, bad for the service and bad for Mr. Daniels. It is equally true, however, that that man cannot be called a success who in 15 months transforms thousands of

It is a rather interesting fact that Attitu half the blame for what Mr. Daniels has done is put by the Navy upon the broad shoulders of his preceptor, Mr. Bryan. In fact, the two are constantly linked together in the mind of the Bryan from his present seat of authority in the National Government would cause almost as much rejoicing

Oregon Wild Blackberry and Cuthbert Raspberry, by Pollenizing, Produces Latest Variety.

By pollenizing the Oregon wild black berry with the Cuthbert raspberry, Father Schoener, parish priest of Brooks, Or., and famous as a breeder of roses, has produced an entirely new variety of berry, which he tentatively has named the "Willamette," in honor of the valley in which it was created. In pollenizing the blackberry with the raspberry, Father Schoener reversed the process that produced the logan-

The new berry is described by J. A Curry, president of the Portland Rose Society, who returned yesterday from a visit with Father Schoener, as dark red, in form like a raspberry, but three or four times as large as the largest raspberry. "The fruit is firm and of a most de licious, distinctive flavor," said Mr. Currey last night. "It has nothing of the acid sourness of the loganberry. nor of the heavy aweetness of the raspberry. Nor does it resemble the taste of its wild mother. It is neither tart nor sugary, and cannot be de scribed. It must be tasted." Mr. Currey saw the plant in bloom last Spring and describes the blossom as closely resembling that of the Shasta daisy.

Mr. Currey sees great commercial possibilities for the new berry.
