

100 DEATHS LAID TO COLLIER'S MATE

Unauthorized Change in Stors-tad's Course Blamed for Collision With Liner.

TESTIMONY IN CONFLICT

Canadian Wreck Commission Holds Third Officer Was Negligent in Navigating Vessel Himself, Not Calling Captain.

QUEBEC, July 11.—Alfred Tuftness, third officer of the Danish collier Stors-tad, was held today by the Wreck Commission to be directly to blame for the collision with the Empress of Ireland in the St. Lawrence River that caused the loss of more than 1,000 lives. The Commission finds the young mate was "wrong and negligent in keeping the navigation of the vessel in his own hands and failing to call the captain when he saw the fog coming on."

Splendid Medicine Stomach Trouble

I Suffered for Several Years Peruna Restored My Health

Mrs. Elisabeth Reuther, No. 508 Twelfth St., N. W., Washington, D. C., writes: "I am pleased to endorse Peruna as a splendid medicine for catarrh and stomach trouble, from which I suffered for several years. I took it for several months and at the end of that time found my health was restored and have felt splendidly ever since. I now take it when I contract a cold and it soon rids the system of any catarrhal tendencies."

MEDICAL FIRMS INDICTED

Grand Jurors Who Kept Defendants Informed Face Trouble.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—Seventeen indictments against more than 20 medical practitioners and members of medical firms were returned today by a Federal grand jury charging them with using the mails to defraud.

SHIP'S OFFICERS ACCUSED

Captain, Mates and Purser Indicted for Assaulting Sailor.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—A Federal grand jury returned indictments against Captain Harry Stremmel, of the steamship Harvard, Robert Hill, mate, Eric Proberg, second mate, and Robert C. Pitt, purser, charging them with an assault on the high seas against Louis Lull, a sailor.

INTERFERENCE IS OPPOSED

Business Men Vote on Trust Bills Pending in Congress.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Non-interference with business in its general details was favored by the business men of the United States, who voted in 35 states, under the referendum called for by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, on the pending trust bills. The vote against the attempt by statute to forbid discriminations in prices of commodities was 531 to 22. That a proposal to compel persons controlling the product of mines to sell to all applicants who may be responsible, is wrong in principle and unworkable in practice, was voted 527 to 32. That there should be no statutory prohibition of conditions accompanying sales and leases to the effect that buyers or lessees cannot handle or use the products of competitors, was voted 514 to 35. That a final decree in an equity suit brought by the Government which establishes the existence or the non-existence of restraint of trade or of a monopoly should be conclusive evidence as to the same general fact in private actions brought against the same defendants under the anti-trust laws, was voted 484 to 52.

CONVICT LABOR ESPOUSED

Corvallis Man to Represent His County With This Mission.

CORVALLIS, Or., July 11.—(Special.)—The Benton County Court has authorized Sam H. Moore, of this city, to represent the county at the Good Roads Convention at Medford the last of this month. Mr. Moore is the originator of a plan to use convict labor in the manufacture of road materials, state roads also to receive state aid in materials and convict labor, so far as available. He advocates the purchase by the state of a shale, and rock, or cement, deposit, the bulk of the material to be used in the operation of the plant with convict labor. He believes that the convicts will be doing labor not likely to be done by paid labor.

3000 REGISTER IN RECALL

CENTRALIA, Wash., July 11.—(Special.)—With a total registration of about 3000, the registration books for the recall election to be held in Centralia July 20 closed last night. From the importance of the election it was thought the registration would be greater.

Victor Jackson, editor of the Daily Star, who was responsible for the recall, and whose plant was recently sold at auction to satisfy creditors, has taken a new lease on life, and will start publishing his paper again Monday, leaving in the morning instead of evening. When Jackson ceased publication the recallers were without an official organ.
