Life by Wits Alone Is Problem to Be Solved in Forests.

LONESOMENESS NOT LIKED

Adventurer Will Enter Oregon's "Garden of Eden" on Tuesday Without Stitch of Clothing.

BY JOE KNOWLES

KNOWLES' CAMP, SISKIYOU NATIONAL FOREST, via Grants Pass, Or., July 18.—(Special.)—Tuesday is the big day. It is the 21st and early in the morning I shall be up.

I've worked about the camp all day getting things straightened out so the men here will be as comfortable as possible while I am in the woods.

First Two Days Problem.

I am going to tell you about what I am going to do for the first two days or so in the forests after I am alone, and afterward I am again going to tell you why I am making it to accomplish by Tuesday some time (I have not decided yet at what hour I shall enter these woods about me.)

Plan is to Speak to No One.

If I have my own way, and I hope I will, I shall speak to no human being for at least 20 days. I shall dive into the forest and the outside world will be a closed book to me until my return.

PUERTA MEXICO, July 18.—Unwillingness to leave behind any friends who want to accompany him into exile, and failure to select a vessel to carry them beyond the reach of the constitutionalists, has resulted in the postponement by President Huerta of his departure for perhaps several days.

People Show Only Curiosity.

Huerta spent a dull day, the greatest break in its monotony being a call on the captain of the German cruiser Dresden. A small crowd gathered to watch him alight from the train and go aboard the cruiser lying a short distance out, but when the stubby old man in plain clothes, accompanied by General Blanquet in full uniform and three members of his staff, walked to the landing where the Dresden launch was waiting, there was no evidence of emotion other than curiosity.

KANSAS FARMERS WILL HOLD WHEAT

100,000,000 Bushels May be Kept Back.

ORGANIZERS FIND WELCOME

Grain Bins Being Rushed to Completion All Over State.

DOLLAR IS PRICE SLOGAN

Belief Is, However, Growers Will Accept Less, but Present Figure of 60 Cents Plus Is Regarded as Too Low.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 18.—(Special.)

Kansas farmers will hold 100,000,000 bushels of wheat this year, or 25,000,000 bushels more than the entire crop of 1913, according to W. H. Mitchell, National vice-president of the Farmers' Society of Equity.

Mr. Mitchell is organizing the farmers of Kansas and urging them to hold their immense crop for higher prices. Sixty-cent wheat in Kansas has become the rule and has turned the thoughts of the farmer to the possibility of holding his grain.

Grain Bin Being Rushed.

"I do not believe more than one-fourth of the wheat grown this year will be sold," said Mr. Mitchell.

Grain bins of frame and cement construction are being rushed all over the state, and in many places wheat is being piled on the ground by farmers who refuse to accept present prices for it.

The Farmers' Society of Equity is campaigning for dollar wheat, but the Kansas members will sell their grain for less than that figure. It is generally believed. Most of them are preparing to hold for higher prices than the 60-cent now offered, however.

Harvest Hands Saving Money.

The money order sections of the country town postoffices in Kansas prove that this year is an exception with the harvest hand, as well as the wheat-growing farmer, for the harvest state is sending his money home. This is probably due to two causes. One is that the harvest hand has learned the value of money, and the other, the farmer has learned that he must protect his helpers to be sure of getting them when they are needed.

For years the popular diversion with a certain crowd of men who followed the harvest was "harvesting the harvest hand." Gamblers began in Kansas and worked with the harvest to the Canadian border. Some of them even worked in the fields, to be better enabled to separate the harvest hand from his money. There was every sort of game that would be easily transported and quickly hidden. The lay-abouts were not of the fancy kind, but they brought quick action on the wagers made, and the quick action resulted in shifting the money from the worker to the gambler.

SAYRE'S COUSIN STARVING

Woman Found in Church Where Ghostly Rumors Are Heard.

LANCASTER, Pa., July 18.—(Special.)—It has become known today that Miss Beulah Cummings, who was found yesterday by the caretaker of the deserted Presbyterian Church at Churchtown in a starving condition, her presence having given rise to thrilling ghost stories, is a first cousin of Francis Bowes Sayre, President Wilson's son-in-law.

Her octogenarian mother, Mrs. Catherine Cummings, of New York, widow of Dr. James L. Cummings, a wealthy physician of that place, had been informed of the finding of her daughter, who left home June 9, but it is doubtful whether the infirmities of age will permit her journeying to Churchtown, where Dr. Cummings is buried.

It is believed it was a desire to visit her father's grave that prompted Miss Cummings to take the trip.

MAN KILLED DUE TO DARE

Seaman Is Hurling From 150-Foot Tower When He Touches Wire.

PASCO, Wash., July 18.—(Special.)—Wilhelm Mewes, a seaman, was killed at the Snake River Bridge at Almsworth yesterday. He was employed on the Government dredging boat, Unadilla, which was moored at the bridge.

After the evening meal he and Harry Green, dared each other to climb to the top of the steel tower which carries the high power electric wires across the river.

Mewes, on reaching the top, grasped the high power wire. He was hurled to the ground, a distance of about 150 feet. The body in falling barely missed Green who was climbing about 20 feet below.

WOMEN SEEK LOW WAGE

Apprenticeship Permit Requests Numerous in Washington.

OLYMPIA, Wash., July 18.—(Special.)—With the enforcement of orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission of Washington putting into effect the minimum wage schedules for women, many applications for apprenticeship permits are being received at the office of Labor Commissioner Olson.

A striking feature is that many women capable under the law of demanding the full minimum are asking the commission to permit them to work under apprenticeship rating at wages as low as $6 a week, when the minimum range from $8.90 in factories to $10 in stores. The law does not permit employers to ask apprenticeship ratings for their employees, but the women themselves must make the applications.

ROSE FESTIVAL WILL LIVE

Representatives of Northwest Cities Decide It Advisable to Continue Annual Carnivals in Interest of Good Fun.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 18.—(Special.)

With a delegation 150 strong, led by Queen Thelma, the Royal Rosarians, and Mayor Albee, and inspired by the music of the Royal Rosarian Band of 24 pieces, Portland today made the best showing of any outside city at the Seattle Tillikum Potlatch.

The Portland delegation came on a special train. The first event of the day in which the Portlanders figured was the luncheon given at the New Washington Hotel by George F. Vradenburg, tyee kopa konoway of the Tillikum, and attended by prominent members of the Rosarians, Tillikums, Ad and Transportation clubs of the principal Northwestern cities.

Many Cities Represented. Those who attended were: Mayor H. R. Albee, of Portland; Mayor H. C. Gill, of Seattle; Mayor T. B. Baxter, of Vancouver, B. C.; W. J. Hoffman, president of the Royal Rosarians of Portland; C. C. Colt, president Rose Festival Association; C. D. Kennedy, vice-president of the Portland Transportation Club; Charles F. Berg, president Portland Ad Club; J. E. Werlein, chairman of entire Portland delegation to Seattle, and Joseph W. Blithen, president of the Seattle Carnival Association, which gave the Potlatch last year.

The subject of discussion was the advisability of continuing the series of carnivals and community shows, such as the Potlatch of Seattle and the Rose Festival of Portland. C. C. Colt, Mayor Baxter, Mayor Albee, Joseph Blithen and others spoke and the sense of the meeting was that it is advisable from the standpoint of the different cities to continue these festivals.

Self Financing Advocated. Mr. Blithen and Mr. Colt called attention to the necessity of providing a play-time for the people in the summer. It was considered, however, that such a festival as the Montanara Feste of Tacoma, which is self supporting, is preferable to any festival which calls for repeated contributions from business men.
