

This is the old place of former Governor Gibbs, and afterwards known as the David place. The soil and location of this property make it ideal for establishment of country homes, garden tracts, etc. The lay of the land is sloping, commands a view for fifty miles; ideal drainage, and very fertile. Almost everything grows here that will make a profit to the owner. Part of land in full cultivation with apple thing grows here that will make a profit to the owner. Part of land in full cultivation with apple and pear orchards, part in grain, one piece has produced as much as 150 sacks of potatoes to the acre. Some tracts in virgin timber. One tract has beautiful lake. Cold spring water accessible to most of tracts. One tract with splendid home not quite finished, modern throughout.

These tracts are just what you have been looking for to take you away from the city. They will be a gigantic sacrifice to the owner to sell under the hammer in this way, but every tract must and will go for the price you want to bid. Go out beforehand and see this place and be convinced that it is the place you want. A man will be there to show you over. Ask for Mr. Geo. W. Ankeny. Springbrook is the nearest town, 1¼ miles away.

The whole place has the correct location for profitable farming, fruit raising and gardening. Berries, and especially loganberries, will do better here than on some of the so-called-out-of-sight-price lands being sold now for loganberries. Elevation of property 700 to 500 feet. No heavy frosts to mar crops. Any one of these tracts will furnish comfortable living, and the environment of an envisohe suburban home for those wishing to get back to the soil.

Six trains each way every day over the new electric line to Portiand.

Automobilists wishing to see this property, take Newburg road and turn off on Springbrook road 1¼ miles east of Newburg. Go out and see this land or call Mr. W. E. Burke, Owner, Cornelius Hotel, and get further information. Main 5189.

Edwin F. James Makes Statement to Public.

CENSORSHIP MOVE CAUSE

Manager of Majestic, to an Extent Held Responsible for Mayor's Proposed Curb, Also Cites Business Men's Letters.

In answer to charges made by Mayor Albee to the effect that the Majestic Theater is to an extent responsible for the necessity for the drastic consorship ordinance proposed by the Mayor and the consorship board, Edwin F. James, manager of the Majestic, F. James, manager of the Majestic, issued a statement yesterday in which he outlines his actions which are said

F. James, manager of the Majestic, issued a statement yesterday in which he outlines his actions which are said to have led up to the necessity for the ordinance.

Mr. James says that he has always viewed the pictures himself before letting them, run and in cases of question as to their propriety he has called others in to pass upon them. He says that the production of certain photo plays, which have caused criticism on the part of the city officials, has been undertaken only after cansorship by persons competent to pass upon the morality of the productions. Mr. James also produced letters from prometics and continued to the constraint of the past of the past of the city officials, has been undertaken only after cansorship by persons competent to pass upon the morality of the productions. Mr. James also produced letters from prometics.

reasons have been given as to just why this was necessary, and it seems to be generally understood that I am to a certain extent responsible for the necessity of this drastic legislation.

First, I want to say that in the past three years more than 3,000,000 people have visited the Majestic Theater, and second, I take the playsic or point that seems to have been overlooked by a number of our crities in regard to the pluture drams.

The producer of a successful photoplay is compelled to bring out the action of the play in a very strong and forceful manner, which has been termed as gross exaggeration by some of our critics, but is absolutely necessary in order that the meaning of the play can readily be understood by all classes acmes probably have never thought of the difference between the silent and the speaking drams.

scenes probably have never thought of the difference between the silent and the speaking drama.

Take some of the more pretentious productions, such as "Quo Vadia," "Judith of Bethuilla," "The Passion Play," "Sapho," "Daughters of Men," "Teas of the Storm Country," and all other silent dramas, the serious and interesting parts have been brought out in a strong, clean and refined manner, and this is absolutely necessary in order that each and every one can follow the story carefully and intelligently.

The Mayor of this city has pointed out the Majestic Theater, of which I am the owner and manager, as being the direct cause of the proposed new ordinance on second of my desire to show a photopisty that was taken from the book of "Sapho." A play of this title has been shown from coast to coast and in fact all over the world in the speaking theaters, and is considered one of the classic plays. The story as taken from the book was clean and entertaining and I contracted for the appearance of this gisty the Mayor called at my office and refused positively to permit me to show this picture, and I called in the grand jury to view it and their findings were unanimous in my favor.

to a committee of good, solid, substantial business men that would go on record and be responsible for the kind of entertainment that is provided in this city.

I know that 70 per cent of my patrons are women and children, and it seems strange to me that the Mayor of this city should be more interested in providing a good, clean, moral entertainment in my theater than I am manif.

I have always made it a strict rule to see every picture privately before I offer it to the public and on numerous secasions I have eliminated scenes that I though might be criticised and which had been passed by the census board, and I shall continue to do so regardless of any legislation that may be forced on the motion picture subhitions of this city.

In the past few days I have interviewed a number of well-known business men of this city and herewith offer you a few expressions from them and over their ewa signatures.

EDWIN F. Jamize,

Manager Majestle Theater.

The letters follow:

the morality of the productions. Mr.

James also produced letters from prominent men indorsing the character of shows given at the Majestic.

Following is Mr. James' statement issued to the public:

To the Public: For the past week there have appeared in the daily papers of this city several interviews regarding the proposed censorship of photopisys and several reasons have been given as to just why this was necessary, and it seems to be generally understood that I am to a certain extent responsible for the necessity of this drastic legislation.

ED. L ESTES

Edwin F. James, Majestic Thesics, City-Dear Sir: It is a pleasure for me to recommend the moving picture theaters of this city to anyone, children, laddes and generalized good entortainment for our people at a very low cost, and cannot see how the pictures could be improved upon, Yours very truly, understood that I am to a certain extent responsible for the necessity of this drastic Dear Mr. James! Is reply to your dequiry and it seems to be generally understood that I am to a certain extent responsible for the necessity of this drastic Dear Mr. James! Is reply to your dequiry.

Portland, Or., July 16, 1814.

E. F. James, Majestic Theater, City-Dear Mr. James: I believe that a great deal of credit is due the men that have brought the moving picture theater from what was formerly known here as a store-room show to the beautiful theaters that are now provided without any change being made in the price, with an entertailment that is educational, interesting and moral. Yours truly,
