DIECK LAKE PRIMITIVE MAN.

Joe Knowles, the primitive man, had nothing on his mind but to get away from the city. He was in the city last week, according to word received at the City Hall yesterday. While descending a rugged hillside along the sea beach between the city and Gearhart, Mr. Dieck slipped and lost his trousers. The last he saw of them they were hanging to sharp rocks in long shreds at the bottom of the hill. Immediately a rush order was sent to Dr. George Almelle of Portland, a brother-in-law of Mr. Dieck, to hasten a pair of new trousers to him. Mr. Dieck remained in hiding until the apparel could be procured.

TWO EUGENE MINISTERS FIND AUTOS INCREASE FIELD OF OPERATIONS.

EUGENE, Or., July 25.—(Special.)—The motor car as an accessory to the church is being used by two Eugene pastors who declare they have extended their field of work and are able to accomplish much more. Rev. A. M. Spangler, pastor of the Congregational Church, uses his automobile to visit the rural communities and hold special services in the country schoolhouses on Sunday afternoons. He finds the ride into the country a pleasant one for himself and family, and by doing so he is able to provide the services of a pastor to a community which would otherwise be without them.

MADAGASCAR JOB OFFERED.

Dr. J. McClelland Henderson, of Oregon Engaged by Oil Company. EUGENE, Or., July 25.—(Special.)—Dr. J. McClelland Henderson, geologist and African explorer, will leave in a few days for Madagascar to take charge of a geological expedition for an important African oil company.

PRETTY WEDDING IS SOLEMNIZED IN GERMAN BAPTIST CHURCH.

The prettily decorated auditorium of the First German Baptist Church was the scene of a charming wedding Tuesday evening, when at 8:20 o'clock Miss Freda Boehl became the bride of Edward Neubauer.

THE BRIDAL PARTY consisted of the bride, the bridegroom, and Miss Bertha Koester were the bridesmaids. Messrs. Carl Boehl, brother of the bride, and Henry Bertelut acted as best men. The little Misses Gladys and Evelyn Neubauer, cousins of the bridegroom, acted as the flower girls.

The bride, attended by her sister as maid of honor, was met at the altar by the bridegroom, who was attended by his brother, Otto Neubauer. The bride was charming in her wedding gown of ivory chamoisee trimmed in shadow lace and pearls. Her full-length veil was fastened to her coiffure in cap effect and wreathed with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

Messrs. Albert Loall, Thomas Bronie, Eugene Wetzel and John Johnson, Jr., served as ushers. Before the ceremony Miss Emma Bertelut sang "Because."

Hosts of relatives and friends witnessed the beautiful and impressive ceremony performed by the Rev. J. Kratt, pastor of the church. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played for the recessional.

Mr. and Mrs. Neubauer have left on an extended wedding tour to Southern California. They will reside in this city and be at home to their friends after August 15.

THREE JUSTICES FILE

WASHINGTON SUPREME COURT MEMBERS SEEK RE-ELECTION. Judges Crow, Chadwick and Gose, Whose Terms Expire This Year, In Race to Succeed Selves.

OLYMPIA, Wash., July 25.—(Special.)—The three justices of the Washington State Supreme Court whose terms expire with the present year, today filed simultaneously with the Secretary of State notices of their candidacy for re-election to six-year terms to succeed themselves. They are Chief Justice Herman D. Crow, Justice Stephen J. Chadwick and Justice Mack F. Gose.

Chief Justice Crow was appointed in January, 1905, from Spokane, where he has practiced law for 15 years. He was twice re-elected, once by Republican nomination for a term of two years and the second time in 1908 for a full term in non-partisan primaries.

REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION.

A Real Auction of Real Estate, Saturday, September 19th.

Charles K. Henry announces he will sell at public auction on Saturday, the 19th day of September, in the Convention Hall of the Multnomah Hotel, about sixty (60) of the choice selected lots in Laurelhurst, some being located on the high ground near Mayor Albee's beautiful residence, some on the high ground near the former residence of Mr. Henry, now the residence of Mrs. Harriet W. Scott, some near the Laurelhurst Park, and others along and on the Sandy Road.

Three choice lots in East Irvington, at 26th and Thompson streets. A residence on 25th street on Kings Heights, commanding one of the best views to be had in that locality.

In Council Crest two of the choice view lots. A residence on E. 37th and Sherman streets, and Forty-seven lots in Greendell Park, on the north side of Holman street, between 32nd and 33rd streets.

In all there will be about 125 different properties, exact descriptions to be published later, also the names of the publishers.

These people buy property when it is cheap. When times are dull is the time to get bargains in real estate. This sale will give splendid opportunities to make good investments in property that there is no finer addition on the Pacific Coast than Laurelhurst, and the other properties that will be described fully and advertised later will present fine opportunities for buyers.

Remember, the sale will be held at the Multnomah Hotel, Saturday, the 19th day of September.—Adv.

MOTORCAR CHURCH AID.

Two Eugene Ministers Find Autos Increase Field of Operations. EUGENE, Or., July 25.—(Special.)—The motor car as an accessory to the church is being used by two Eugene pastors who declare they have extended their field of work and are able to accomplish much more.

Rev. H. S. Wilkinson, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church has given up his vacation and purchased a machine. He ran into a telephone pole while learning to run it, but has become proficient.

MADAGASCAR JOB OFFERED.

Dr. J. McClelland Henderson, of Oregon Engaged by Oil Company. EUGENE, Or., July 25.—(Special.)—Dr. J. McClelland Henderson, geologist and African explorer, will leave in a few days for Madagascar to take charge of a geological expedition for an important African oil company.

He plans to take his family with him and expects to be gone a year. Dr. Henderson owns a plantation on the Mckenzie River, at Camp Creek, where he has been engaged in farming for several years.

LAND FRAUD IS ALLEGED.

Western People Said to Have Bought Granted Area Nullified by Court.

BOISE, Idaho, July 25.—(Special.)—By exchanging bogus deeds to Kentucky farms for Western lands, sharks are said to have been doing gas profit-able business defrauding innocent persons in the West, according to Robert M. McCracken, an attorney of this city who has just returned from Kentucky where he made an investigation on behalf of Western purchasers, residents of Idaho.

Some years ago the state of Virginia gave a warrant for a tract of 850,000 acres of land in the state of Kentucky to a man by the name of Walcott. This warrant was filed by Walcott about the year 1850 in Johnson County, Ky. Before Walcott obtained his deed, settlers had already taken up their homes on the land and had been given title.

Walcott's title was nullified subsequently. "Land sharks," said Attorney McCracken, "in the large cities have been trading such of these invalid Walcott deeds as they could acquire to people in the West."

PORTLAND CHANCE GROWS.

Knights of Pythias Likely to Meet Here in 1916 Is Statement.

ALBANY, Or., July 25.—(Special.)—That Portland is almost certain to procure the session of the supreme lodge of the Knights of Pythias in 1916 is the statement of L. R. Stinson, of Salem, grand keeper of courts, Ky. Before Walcott obtained his deed, settlers had already taken up their homes on the land and had been given title.

Walcott's title was nullified subsequently. "Land sharks," said Attorney McCracken, "in the large cities have been trading such of these invalid Walcott deeds as they could acquire to people in the West."

The supreme lodge will meet at Winthrop, Man., August 4 and during that session the meeting place of the next biennial session will be chosen. Portland's leading opinion for the honor appears to be Nashville, Tenn.

TRAINMEN FIND BODY.

Suicide of Davenport Farmer Follows Arrest and Fine.

DAVENPORT, Wash., July 25.—(Special.)—The body of Louis Bauerfield, 35, a farmer, who lived north of this city, was found yesterday. The discovery was made by trainmen who stopped their train at the edge of Davenport for a close view of an object they had passed daily for nearly two weeks and which they thought was a "hoax of neighborhood lads. A revolver and a box of cartridges were found beside the body.

A note was found on the body, but rain had blurred all but the signature. The day before Bauerfield bought the pistol he was arrested and fined for assault and battery. This is believed to have led to his suicide.

HOOD RIVER WANTS POSTOFFICE.

HOOD RIVER, Or., July 25.—(Special.)—Hood River wants a Federal building and a new postoffice building. The proposed structure has been agitated for the past year by the Commercial Club. Postmaster J. F. Lucas has received favorable reports from congressional representatives. Senator Chamberlain has said that he will introduce a bill in the Senate at the present session, in which an estimate of the cost are made. The Commercial Club is canvassing the situation and making ready to furnish the proposed estimates.

Socialists Seek Franklin Offices.

PASCO, Wash., July 25.—(Special.)—All political parties are preparing to enter the contest this Fall. The filings will close on August 8 and before that time it is thought every party will have filed practically a full ticket. This will be the first time the Socialists ever entered the county fight, but after winning the last city election they feel confident of being able to carry the county.
