

MISSING "500" PLAYER SUBSTITUTED BY OAKS

Superintendent of Amusement Park Passes Afternoon in Place of Member of "Hungry 11" Club.

HUNGRY ELEVEN 500 CLUB AND SUPERINTENDENT ED BOLLINGER.

GROUP OF MEMBERS OF PORTLAND TURN VEREIN.

BROOKINGS, S. D., CLUB OF OREGON.

It was surely a tragedy! The "Hungry Eleven" 500 club, which was really 16 members and not 11, met at the Oaks Tuesday to play 500. But one of the members had defected.

Mrs. L. Dreyfus was hostess. She hurried to Mr. Cordray's office. "Mr. Cordray, will you please detail one of your staff to play 500?" she asked. "We are one shy."

"Boy, called out the park manager. "Mr. Bollinger, sir," was the reply. "Go get him."

"Bollinger," said Mr. Cordray, when the superintendent appeared, "go with the ladies. They want you to play 500." Mr. Bollinger gasped and obeyed.

Prizes for the afternoon were awarded to Mrs. Emma B. Wilson, Mrs. W. F. Hinze and Mrs. W. Rice.

The "Hungry Eleven" Club included the following: Mrs. W. Rice, Mrs. J. Bedford, Mrs. T. H. Sumner, Mrs. L. Dreyfus, Mrs. W. Hinze, Mrs. M. L. Christian, Mrs. C. M. Olsen, Mrs. M. E. Graf, Mrs. H. E. Plummer, Mrs. J. H. Davis, Mrs. S. Morrison, Mrs. J. C. Ardrey, Mrs. Ada H. Hill, Mrs. Emma B. Wilson and Mrs. S. E. Long.

On Wednesday afternoon the members of the Brookings Club, composed of former residents of that South Dakota city, gathered at the Oaks to celebrate their union in Portland. There were over 50 in the party.

Among the members of the Brookings Club at the park were: Miss Doris Jenkins, Miss Helen Ripley, Richard Jenkins, J. C. Jenkins, Mrs. J. C. Jenkins, Miss Hattie Young, Mrs. E. J. Carlisle, Mrs. C. H. Bullen, Mrs. Ada Jolley, Mrs. Harza, Mrs. M. Elford, Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. P. J. Hegeman, Mrs. A. J. Erted, W. G. Jolley, M. C. Elford, W. U. Heath, Mrs. H. J. Hillon, B. Parsons, P. I. Hegeman, P. J. Cunningham, Mrs. A. O. Sisson, A. O. Sisson, Bayard Sisson, Merrill Sisson, Lois Sisson, J. H. Bryant, Mrs. J. H. Bryant, Miss Mae Collins, Mrs. P. A. Randall, Miss Ruth Randall, G. Mosher, A. J. Erted, F. J. Carlisle, A. V. Kramer, R. A. Colleton, E. E. Pike, Mrs. E. E. Pike, J. C. Cunningham, Dr. J. Elze, Miss C. Stapleton, Mrs. N. C. Jamieson, Mrs. B. T. Stapleton, C. H. Bullen, J. J. Morton, Mrs. J. E. Elze, N. C. Jamieson, C. Brown, A. J. Hilton, J. Sperr, A. A. Thogreson.

On Tuesday and Wednesday over 250 members of the Turn Verein classes were at the bathing pavilion.

MOTORBOAT JUNKET BIG

SCORE OF WATER CRAFT PARTICIPATE IN 10-MILE TRIP.

Lady Gray, Manasqua, Fay and Bowen Among Those to Carry Excursionists to Magoon's Park.

Nearly 20 motorboats and cruisers participated in last Sunday's cruise arranged by the cruising committee of the Portland Motorboat Club to Magoon's Park. Most of the boats left town at 10 o'clock in the forenoon and reached the park, 10 miles south of Portland, in time to partake of hearty lunches.

W. H. Gray, commodore of the Motorboat Club, led the expedition with a large party, consisting mostly of young folk, in his Lady Gray. T. J. Mendenhall, commodore of the Oregon Yacht Club, also chaperoned a party in his Manasqua.

Kenneth Beebe likewise chaperoned quite a party in the Fay & Bowen. Some of the boats and their passengers were as follows:

Lady Gray, owned by W. H. Gray—Mr. and Mrs. Gray, Mr. P. P. Jaeger, Miss Allida Jaeger, Miss C. Lakin, F. C. Atwell, Miss Mary Packwood, Miss Helen Rose, Miss Gladys Blue, Miss Edith Blue, Miss Marian Booth, Clarence Gray, Metros Hollinger, George Pirie, George Kerr, Nathan Bessel, William Gray.

Manasqua, owned by T. J. Mendenhall—Mr. and Mrs. Mendenhall, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Rescoe Fawcett.

Fay & Bowen, owned by Kenneth Beebe—Mr. and Mrs. Beebe, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Miss Mackenzie, Miss Barbara Mackenzie, Dr. R. M. Emerson and Walter Giffard.

Savutty Girl, owned by E. von der Werth, fleet captain of the Motorboat Club.

RECLAMATION MEN HERE

Three Counsellors of Service Confer With Officials.

Morris Blen, of Washington, D. C., Counsel of the Reclamation Service, accompanied by O. G. Cowlick and C. A. Mansuy, also of the legal division, were in Portland yesterday conferring with reclamation officials here and reviewing the work of the department in Oregon.

They attended the week's conference at Salt Lake City recently.

"We are planning to spend $20,000,000 this year and the Pacific slope will get a large share," said Mr. Blen.

Mr. Blen left last night to inspect the Umatilla project and Messrs. Cowlick and Mansuy departed for the East via North Yakima and Montana.

EMPRESS CHANGES HANDS TOMORROW

Marcus Loew Becomes Owner of Handsome Portland Vaudeville Theater.

PROGRAMME IS EXTENDED

Several Other Important Changes Are to Be Inaugurated by New Management—Bills Will Be Opened Every Monday.

At 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon the ownership of the $300,000 Empress property will formally pass from the hands of Sullivan & Considine to Marcus Loew, the New York vaudeville magnate, who recently purchased the entire Sullivan & Considine chain of theaters to add to his already extensive string of vaudeville houses. The Empress will be the first of the Sullivan & Considine theaters formally to be taken over and opened under the Loew management, and will thenceforth be known as the Marcus Loew Empress.

There will be several changes at the handsome Broadway vaudeville theater under the Loew policy. Shows will run from 1:30 to 3 P. M. and from 6:30 to 11 P. M., daily, with continuous bills from 1 to 11 P. M. on Sundays. Not only will the quality of the attractions offered, according to the guarantee of Eugene Myers, personal representative of Marcus Loew, be of the best, but there will be added features.

High-Class Act Added.

Prices are to remain unchanged, but one extra high-class vaudeville act and from four to five reels of 100 feature photo-plays will be added to each bill, making 10 or 11 features at each show, six of these being high-class vaudeville acts. Mr. Myers will assist Manager H. W. Pierson, who is to be retained with his staff, in opening the Marcus Loew Empress tomorrow afternoon and in inaugurating the new policy.

Instead of opening as heretofore, on Sunday afternoon, the new bills will be put on, under the new regime, on Monday afternoon, closing on Sunday night.

With the purchase of the Sullivan & Considine theaters, Marcus Loew secured control of upward of 100 theaters in the United States and Canada, including the most important cities in both countries. Mr. Loew is now the largest individual owner of theaters in the world, and is in a position to effect lengthy booking and secure advantageous contracts from the best talent to be had in the country. The attractions will be booked directly from New York by Joseph M. Schenck, chief booking agent for the Loew interests.

Mazamas Once Poor Lad.

The New York vaudeville magnate began life as a poor boy and today is several times a millionaire. In his boyhood and early youth Marcus struggled with many hardships and heavy handicaps. Accidentally he secured a position as operator in a moving-picture show when the film business was in its early crude stages, and soon after began a meteoric career. He soon became a factor to be reckoned with in New York's growing world of moving-picture theaters, and it was not long until he had acquired a vaudeville field. Gathering about him men of unwavering loyalty and exceptional abilities, Marcus Loew kept on reaching higher and higher in the annals of his ventures, building his business solidly and progressing steadily until today he commands a mammoth circuit of important vaudeville houses.

PROGRESSIVE BUSINESS MEN'S CLUB URGES PORT WORK.

Resolutions Indorsing Rivers and Harbors Act and Its Advocates Adopted—Teal Lauded.

Members of the Progressive Business Men's Club have joined in the movement of many commercial organizations of the Northwest, urging that prompt action be taken on the rivers and harbors bill and strongly indorsing those who have been most active in behalf of the bill and of other proposed measures for the betterment of river and harbor conditions in the Northwest.

Following a resolution adopted by the club and copies of which were mailed to representatives of the Northwest in Congress:

Whereas, it is reported that the rivers and harbors bill pending in Congress may not be passed, and a failure to pass the pending bill, with its provisions for continuing work on the Columbia River and other projects, will result in great and most irreparable loss and damage to the interests of the Pacific Northwest, and particularly the Columbia Basin, and the City of Portland; and

Whereas, at a meeting called by the Portland Chamber of Commerce and held on July 30, 1914, a resolution was passed to send a representative or representatives to Washington to work there for the passage of the pending bill;

Now, therefore, the Progressive Business Men's Club of Portland desires to express its appreciation of the public spirited and able efforts of Hon. J. N. Teal in behalf of the waterways improvement bill, and it earnestly urges prompt action upon said resolution and the appointment of Hon. J. N. Teal as a representative, with such other representatives as may be desired. We request the Chamber of Commerce to solicit the acceptance by Mr. Teal of such appointment as a public duty, though a personal sacrifice, to visit Washington at once and there support the river and harbors bill and assist our Senators and Representatives in Congress in that behalf; and the Chamber of Commerce is requested, in the interest of our city and section, to take this action immediately.

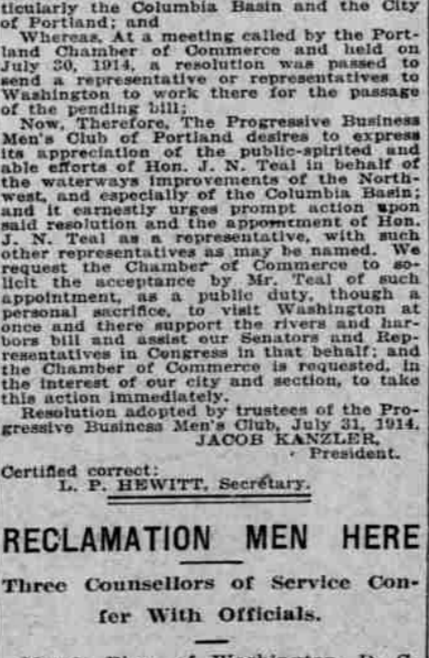

Resolution adopted by trustees of the Progressive Business Men's Club, July 31, 1914.

TWO EIGHTEEN-MONTH-OLD CROPS ON FARM OF H. W. CURRIN.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Aug. 1.—(Special.)—Paying more to the man with a team than to the man without one, and paying according to the size of the horses, is the unique policy developed by H. W. Currin, superintendent of a 2100-acre grain, grass and stock farm near Drain, Or. For common labor, Mr. Currin pays $2 per day, and to the same man if he has a team of his own, he pays $2.25 per day. He pays for small horses $1 per day, for medium $1.12 1/2 and for large horses, $1.25.

Mazamas Depart in Detachments for Mount Rainier.

CAMPAIGN GREATEST YET

Seattle and Tacoma Forces to Join Portland Climbers at Moraine Park—Party to Return About August 16.

After months of marshaling of their forces, assembling equipment and organizing their commissary, the advance guard of the Mazamas proceeded to the Union Depot yesterday afternoon and entrained for Tacoma. From Tacoma the mountain climbers will go to Fairfax, Wash., to be joined by other divisions of the Mazama forces for the conquest of Mount Rainier.

The main division of Mazamas mobilized at the Union Depot at 11:30 o'clock last night and followed the advance guard. Forces from Seattle and Tacoma will also participate in the campaign.

Under command of Eddie Sammons a light-armed detachment will leave today for Castle Rock and proceed to occupy Mount St. Helens tomorrow. From St. Helens they will advance to Fairfax and proceed thence by forced marches Wednesday to Moraine Park, where they will be attached to the main body of Mazamas. In the detachment led by Mr. Sammons are E. F. Peterson, A. S. Peterson, R. W. Ayer, J. C. Sharp and Frank L. Jones.

The campaign at Moraine Park is expected to occupy fully 10 days. The force mobilized for the occupation of Rainier is one of the largest in the history of the many operations of the Mazamas in the Northwest. The advance will be made in force from Moraine Park and conquest of all points of interest and advantage is contemplated. The forces will retire to Fairfax about August 16, and are due to arrive in Portland again and be mustered out about August 17.

The complete muster roll for the coming campaign is:

CLARKE ENRICHED BY CUPID

Marriage Fees During Month at Vancouver Total $769.50.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Aug. 1.—(Special.)—During July 171 couples journeyed to the Clarke County Courthouse and paid to the County Auditor $4.50 each, or a total of $769.50. Each couple married here spent at least $5 more for the minister's or judge's fee, so Vancouver profited not less than about $1700 by the actions of Cupid during one month.

This is not a record, but is good business, and is more than enough to pay the expenses of the County Auditor's office. One dollar for each license goes to the County Clerk's office, for recording.

admits that some small horses can be made to do the work of larger ones, but doubts the advisability of forcing them to do so.

In drawing a heavy plow back and forth across the field, four small horses are no better than three heavy horses. The larger ones are more economical, since their hire is $3.75 per day, while the four would cost $4 per day. The cost of feeding and stabling the four small horses is also heavier. These are admitted to be small items, but when applied to many teams for many days, it becomes an important matter. Its solution is another application of brains to farming.

Making this application of brains to farming pays the manager as well as the owners of the farm. Mr. Currin received $600 a year as manager of a small farm when first graduated from the Agricultural College, and was provided with a home and its maintenance. At the end of six months, he was promoted and his salary advanced to $1000 per annum. At the end of the year he was made manager of the larger farm at a salary of $1200, and furnished with home and its most complete and modern conveniences, special horse and buggy, garden equipment, and the use of an orchard. In the first six months he was advanced to $1500 per year with the same perquisites.

His salary increased from $600 to $1500 per year within two years. He was likewise elected one of the directors of the Drain cannerly. He calls his agricultural training the horse on which he rode to success, making the journey easy, rapid and safe.

Mr. Currin has bought a 12-acre farm of his own, which he says he is double cropping, his peach trees and little daughter each being 18 months old.

Notes From St. Johns

ST. JOHNS, Or., Aug. 1.—(Special.)—Arrangements have been completed for the events of the firemen's tournament to be held in St. Johns September 7 under the auspices of the Willamette Valley Firemen's Tournament Association. Business men have subscribed so far about $300 toward the prizes.

S. Rasmussen, who had been in the employ of the St. Johns Lumber Company, sustained the fracture of both legs and received other bruises in an accident Tuesday. He was taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital for treatment.

A committee from the Council has in hand the matter of the sale or lease of the St. Johns public dock, but has made no report so far. This dock has proved a white elephant on the hands of St. Johns—ever since it was erected, and the general opinion seems to be that the city will do well to dispose of the property and stop the expense of that and maintenance, which always has been above the income. The dock has been a constant expense ever since it was built, according to the report of the City Auditor.

New officers of the Fraternal Brotherhood of St. Johns were installed as follows: President, Mrs. Hattie McKinley; vice-president, Eimer B. Wood; secretary, Mrs. Anna Dryden; treasurer, James Welch; chaplain, Mrs. Clyde Rogers; past president, Roy Locke; sergeant-at-arms, Herman Amos; mistress-at-arms, Mrs. Agnes Leland; inner doorkeeper, Fred Piper; doorkeeper, Albert Pierson; physician, Dr. E. E. Gambee. The St. Johns Brotherhood will enjoy a river trip shortly tendered by the firemen's lodge for securing 49 new members.

The funeral services of Mrs. Emma M. Bredeken, who died Saturday, were held at Holman's chapel, Rev. J. A. Goode officiated. She was the wife of P. A. Bredeken. She was a member of Rebekah Lodge and Women's Relief Corps.

BIG FAIR CROWD EXPECTED

Trolley Loop Being Constructed at Vancouver Grounds.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Aug. 1.—(Special.)—Preparations to handle a big crowd for the Columbia Interstate Fair, September 7-12, were begun Friday when construction on a new loop for the trolley was started. This will permit the Washington-Oregon Corporation to run its cars into and out of the grounds without waiting to change the trolley.

Extra trains will be secured from Portland, and if traffic warrants it, a five-minute schedule will be maintained during the time of day when the crowd is going to and coming from the grounds.
