MRS. W. O. SUNDERLAND PASSES ON 59TH BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY.

Neuralgia of Heart Proves Fatal After Hiness of Five Days-Husband and Eight Children Survive.

OREGON CITY, Or., Aug. 1.—(Special.)—Mrs. Harriet Eliza Sunderland, wife of W. O. Sunderland, of Sheridan, Or., and mother of Mrs. Ellerd Bailey, of this city, died at the family home at Sheridan July 20, on her 59th birthday anniversary, after an illness of five days from an attack of neuralgia of the heart. Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist Church of that city July 22.

ville, N. C., July 20, 1855, and was the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Raphael W. Patty. The family moved to Knoxville, Tenn, where she was married to Mr. Sunderland, and soon after they came West, accompanied by Mrs. Sunder-land's parents, who settled at McMinnville, where Mr. Patty became pastor of the Methodist Church, and Mr. and Mrs. Sunderland proceeded to Sheridan, where they have resided over 35 years. Mrs. Sunderland was a musician of note, coming from a family of musi-cians, and devoted much of her time to the violin, and was heard in public on many occasions. It was just recently discovered that Mrs. Sunderland possessed what is thought to be a Stradi varius violin, which is in a good state of preservation.

Mrs. Sunderland is survived by her

Commissioner Brewster Sends Final Draft of Ordinance to City Auditor.

OTHER CHANGES ARE MADE

Provisions Applying to Parking o Autos Altered and United States Mail Wagons Are Listed for Regulation

City Commissioner Brewster yester tay sent the final draft of his proposed new traffic ordinance to City Auditor Barber for submission to the Council at its regular meeting Wednesday. The new draft contains provisions making pedestrians subject to traffic regulations and all the changes favored by Mr. I rewster in the ordinance as presented by him originally a week ago.

Up to this time pedestrians have not een included in the classes of "vehicles" subject to the new regulations, In cles" subject to the new regulations. In the new draft is a provision reading, "Pedestrians shall observe the traffic directions of police officers and they should, also, for the safety and convenience of themselves and the public look to see what is approaching before stepping from the sidewalk: cross the street at a right angle, preferably at a regular crossing; stand on the sidewalk when waiting for a car; face the front of a car when alighting from it and in crossing behind a car, observe the traffic in both directions; on sidewalks keep to the right, and when stopping do not obstruct a crossing or an ping do not obstruct a crossing or an entrance to a building." Parking Autos Changed.

Another change provided in the new measure is in regard to the parking of automobiles. Heretofore machines have been allowed to stop with the front wheels against the curb. The proviwheels against the curb. The provision in the proposed new measure reads: "A parked vehicle shall not occupy a space more than nine feet from the curb between 9 A. M. and 6 P. M. and all head out from the curb in the direction of traffic."

The opening gun in an attempt on the part of the city to force Uncle Sam's mail wagons to observe traffic regulations is seen in one of the new provisions in the ordinance.

The new measure provides that, "the
