

SOCIETY

Mrs. Frederic Masori De Wette who was Miss Helen Grace Higbee this year

The trustees of the school are Miss Henrietta E. Failing, William M. Ladd, the Rev. T. L. Elliot, Winslow B. Ayer, Judge C. H. Carey, Holt C. Wilson and George Good. Helen Putnam, Sidney Bell and Henry Frederick Wentz are the instructors. A number of society girls are upon the list of those who will study art this fall. Several of the members of the smart set have already achieved considerable distinction in sketching and painting.

Mrs. Le Roy Fields gave a pretty appointed tea Wednesday in compliment to Miss Mabel Ayers. The party was planned as a means of announcing the engagement of the honored guest. A large number of her friends called during the hours and showed her with good wishes. It is regretted that the marriage of Miss Ayers to the Pasadena attorney, Charles A. Musick, has taken her to California to make her home, as she is popular in Portland and will be much missed. Mrs. Fields was assisted by a number of smartly gowned young matrons and maids. The rooms were attractive with a profusion of cut flowers and potted palms. Mrs. James Ambrose and Mrs. Harry Van Alst cut lace and tea was served by Mrs. John B. Yeon and Mrs. A. D. Charlton. Among those assisting were Mrs. James Edward Ludlum, Mrs. Ambrose Scott, Miss Frances Fuller, Miss Edna Minsinger and Mrs. Arthur Fields.

Mrs. J. Coulsen Hare returned last week from an extended Eastern trip. Mrs. Hare visited all the larger cities. The spots of scenic and historic interest claimed her special attention.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Humphry were showered with congratulations during the week on the advent of a baby daughter, who was born last Saturday and who will be christened Jane Cronan Humphry. Mrs. Humphry was Miss Josephine Cronan.

A succession of charming social affairs given for the pleasure of Mrs. Raymond McCarthy, of Pueblo, Colo., has made the big Summer and was particularly delightful for a year of her friends. On Monday Mrs. Katherine Daly gave a launch party to the Oaks and the entire day passed informally. A score of young girls and matrons shared Mrs. Daly's hospitality.

Tuesday was marked with a beautifully appointed luncheon in compliment to Mrs. McCarthy. The grill of the Hotel Portland was the scene of the festivity. The table was decorated in pink and white. Moslems artistically arranged. Circling the board were smartly-gowned guests, including Mrs. McCarthy, Mrs. Walter Gearin, Mrs. T. Morris Dune, Mrs. James Ambrose, Miss Frances Fuller, Miss Mamie Helen Flynn, Miss Katherine Hunt, Miss Helen Baldwin, of Denver, Colo., and Mrs. Boyce.

The arrival of Mrs. J. Jennings and her two attractive daughters, the Misses Florence and Violet Jennings, who have been abroad for a year or more, is of interest to their many friends. The girls have both studied music in Berlin and Paris.

Miss Bernice Riley is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Winthrop Terry. Miss Riley is an attractive Chicago girl. Several parties will be given for her in the near future. The dancing party given by Mrs. Terry on Wednesday night was attended by about 30 of the younger set.

Miss Katherine B. Jackson, of Chicago, is a widely-feted guest. She is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harry T. Burnstager, who entertained this past week with a bridge party. An interesting part of the arrangement of the afternoon was the introduction of some pretty favors, hand-carved trifles that had been brought by Miss Jackson from Switzerland. Miss Naldyne Baker gave some clever dramatic readings and character impersonations from Mark Twain's writings. On Tuesday Mrs. G. L. Ross will entertain for Miss George Stovall and on Wednesday Mrs. George Stovall will be hostess in the visitor's honor. Miss Jackson has traveled extensively and is an interesting conversationalist and sited in many ways.

A pretty bit of romance and sentiment was attached to the wedding of George W. Philbrook and Miss Roxie A. Ferryman, solemnized Thursday morning in the Congregational Church at St. Helens. The marriage was simple in appointments, with the bridegroom's father, the Rev. Charles Philbrook officiating. Four years ago, when Mr. Philbrook was in the East attending college, he met the girl whom this week he married. She came West on a trip, this Summer, and was persuaded to remain here and the ceremony was arranged in the little church built a short time ago by the Rev. Mr. Philbrook. Only a few relatives attended the wedding. Mr. Philbrook is well known as an athlete, having been a member of the Olympic team that represented this country in Stockholm in 1912. His bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Perryman, of South Bend, Ind. After the wedding trip the couple will make their home in Portland.

Mrs. John T. Morrison, wife of ex-Governor Morrison of Idaho, who is visiting in Portland, was honored guest at an informal luncheon given on Thursday by Mrs. P. H. Flynn and Miss Mamie Helen Flynn at the family home on Northrup street.

The members of Pi Beta Phi fraternity were delightfully entertained during the week by Mrs. H. L. Shepard at her country home near Oswego. A buffet luncheon and a tramp through the woods were enjoyed. Mrs. Shepard is a delightful hostess, and the Pi Beta Phi always regard her entertainments as red letter affairs.

An interesting visitation in this vicinity is Miss Margaret Simpson, of Minneapolis, daughter of George Simpson, Attorney-General of Minnesota. In her honor Miss Bessie and Bertha Hendrick, of Cascade Locks, entertained recently at a luncheon, followed by five hundred. Sweet peas were used for decoration, pink being the color scheme throughout the house. Card honors fell to Miss Simpson, Miss Roche and Miss Williams. The invited guests were: Miss Eva

D. Potts, who resigned May 1 after 47 years' continuous service. Since General Potts retired Colonel R. H. Wilson, of Port Lawton, has been in command of the Seventh Brigade. Major Adrian B. Fleming is brigade adjutant with headquarters here. General Bell was stationed here a few years ago as Inspector-General of the Department of the Columbia. He was on the maneuver trip two years ago at Gate, Wash., when General Marlon P. Maus, since retired, was in command.

Captain Herbert C. Gibber, of the medical corps, left Tuesday for Salt Lake City, to be in attendance on Company E in command of Captain Crowlitz. Stacey Company E will take part in the maneuvers of Utah, acting as a model company.

Mrs. Gibber, wife of Captain Gibber, delightfully entertained at luncheon in honor of Mrs. Clark, wife of Captain Elmer W. Clark, who is to leave about August 10, for the Philippine Islands. Those present were Mrs. Jere B. Clayton, Miss Anne Trotter, Mrs. John H. Page, Sr., Mrs. Borda, Mrs. James M. Hobson, Jr., and Mrs. John C. Fairfax.

On Thursday Mrs. Gibber gave a luncheon complimentary to Mrs. Castner, wife of Major Joseph C. Castner, who is leaving for Washington, D. C. Her guests were Mrs. James Osseward, Miss Van Cise, Mrs. Ruthertford S. Hartz, Mrs. John F. Morrison, Mrs. Hagood and Mrs. Walter C. Sweeney.

Mrs. Weeks, wife of Lieutenant Robert L. Weeks, Saturday entertained at luncheon for her cousin, Miss Edna Kirkpatrick, who arrived from California, where she has been visiting since February. The guests were Mrs. Castner, Mrs. Edgar A. Fry, Mrs. Hobson, Mrs. Osseward, Miss Van Cise, Mrs. Sweeney and Mrs. John B. Richardson. Miss Kirkpatrick will probably remain in the post for several weeks before returning to her home in Kansas.

Major Joseph C. Castner, of the Twenty-first Infantry, and Mrs. Castner will leave here August 5 for Washington, D. C., where he will be stationed for a year, attending the War College.

Captain Elmer W. Clark, also of the Twenty-first Infantry, and Mrs. Clark will leave here August 10 for Manila, going by way of San Francisco. Captain Clark is due for a tour of the islands.

Mrs. Fry, wife of Captain Edgar A. Fry, and children returned Thursday from Gearhart, where they were on an outing while the troops were in the maneuver camp.

Lieutenant Harry R. McKellar, of the medical corps, visited in the post a few days during the week while passing through on his way to Honolulu, where he has been detailed.

Captain Charles R. Howland, of the Twenty-first Infantry, has been ordered to go to Alcatraz Island to relieve Colonel Charles M. Truitt. Captain Howland will be in command of the island and is to try out the experiment of detention barracks.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

A delightful surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thompson in honor of their 19th wedding anniversary on Monday evening, July 27, at their home, 1450 East Davis street. Many beautiful presents were received. The evening was passed in music and dancing, after which a buffet supper was served. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thompson, Albert Ammer, Mrs. H. J. Smith, Mrs. Edward J. Sheen, Mr. and Mrs. Ross R. Peebler, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gray, Mrs. Lottie E. MacLeod, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Johnson, T. K. Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hollis, W. E. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rigney, Miss Xavia Rigney, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Burkhardt, Robert Imbrie and Harry Bell.

Dr. and Mrs. Wesley Arnold Lindsey entertained Wednesday evening at an informal dinner party at their attractive home, Great View, Council Crest drive, in honor of Mrs. Charles B. Teller, of Chicago, and her charming daughters, Mrs. Helen Johnston and Miss Janet Teller. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Beverly B. Crawford, Stewart McGinn and the host and hostess, Mrs. Teller and daughter, Mrs. Beverly B. Crawford, of Mount Tabor.

ECHO, OR., AUG. 1.—(Special).—Mr. and Mrs. McCarty, of Butter Creek, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Tuesday. Those who attended the celebration were the children, grandchildren and about 60 friends and neighbors of the couple. Mr. and Mrs. McCarty are respected and prominent citizens of this locality. Mr. McCarty was born in Ireland in 1827. In 1827 he went to Canada and in 1862 came to Oregon, and July 28, 1864, he married Elizabeth Jane Phillips, who was born in Folk County, Mass. in 1827. They resided in the Willamette Valley until 1877, when they went to Butter Creek, near here, to live. They have six sons and one daughter: David H. McCarty, James A. McCarty, William McCarty and Otis McCarty, all of Echo, Or.; John C. Mc-

Carty, of Enterprise, Or.; Albert McCarty, of Reno, Nev., and Mrs. J. A. McCumber, of Glenwood, Wash.

A delightful outing was had last Friday night, when the "Merry Owls" and their friends went to Berkeley, near Johnson Creek. A picturesque spot had been selected by the committee in charge, and the grove was brightly illuminated with Japanese lanterns and bonfires. A table laden with a delicious luncheon was in readiness. Features of the programme were a crawfish feast, games and music and dancing.

Those present were Carl Opperman, Miss Rose Ricard, Carroll Brock, Miss Grace DeMan, Paul Koontz, Miss Eva Nordstrom, Walter Frazier, Miss Leone Scholl, Aubrey Waters, Miss Olive Ensign, Edward Hunt, Edward Hudson, George Webb, Eugene Nordstrom, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hobbs, Ernest Nordstrom, Mrs. Mary Koontz, Fred Schroll and Mr. and Mrs. K. Nordstrom.

A bonfire party was given under the auspices of the "Buds Owl Club" on Saturday evening. Japanese lanterns were strung among the trees, huge bonfires were made and lunch was served. Dancing, music and games were also enjoyed. Those present were: Miss Rose Kurose, Miss Edna Martell,

DAINTY FOUR-YEAR-OLD GIRL HOSTESS AT PARTY.

Katherine Frances Bratton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Bratton, entertained on Friday a score of her friends who assembled to celebrate the fourth birthday of the little hostess. A peanut hunt was a feature of the festivity, and the guests were little doll dishes and a sailboat. The guests were Dorothy and Beatrice Anderson, Dorothy and Marion Hall, Mary and Elizabeth Goldwate, Virginia Eastman, Evelyn Hall, Mignon Johnson, Charlotte Pfeuffer, Elizabeth Browning, Jane Ward, Mrs. Chapman, George Eastman, David Wilson, Robert Smith, Robert Sherman, William Duggan and Jack Wheelan.

Miss Chene McKilligan, Miss Hazel Noeling, Miss Yutina Kuhnham, Miss Lora Lynn, Mrs. Zella Chapman, Miss Olena Dandemand, Miss Marjorie Sutton, Bud Probst, William Norling, Benjamin Puttkamer, Clarence Miller, Ernest Miller, Oscar Moorland, Oscar Miller, Robert Williams, Yasko Puttkamer, Samuel Grant, Francis Collins, Ralph Murchison, Harry Rasmus, Edward Brodson, Marius Nep, and Mrs. A. Norling. Mrs. M. Probst chaperoned the young people. Music was furnished by Marius Nep.

A surprise party was given for O'Dell on Wednesday, her 80th birthday. A delightful programme was given and refreshments were served by the friends who had assembled. An appropriate poem by D. A. Watters was read by Mrs. Hattie B. Allen. Rev. John Parsons gave a brief address. General and Mrs. O'dell are well known among a wide circle of friends. Mrs. O'dell has been an active and devoted church worker. Among those present at the party were Rev. and Mrs. John Parsons, Rev. and Mrs. D. A. Watters, Dr. Raymond Watters, Mr. and Mrs. Van Winkle, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Baker, Mrs. Hattie Allen, Mrs. M. Fayfield, Miss Maggie Percival and Miss Katherine Percival.

Over 200 members of the Oddfellows and Rebekahs enjoyed a picnic on Thursday at City Grove Park, near the Oddfellows' Home. Mount Scott Lodge donated a wagon load of watermelons for the lunch and Acme Lodge, among the children with a monster cake. Games were played and music was a feature. Jacob Slater sang two solos. Alice M. McNaught contributed character readings. Miss V. Boyd sang and played pleasingly. Superintendent and Matron Van Orden of the home, did all in their power to dispense hospitality to the guests and to afford pleasure for the members of the home.

A party of young men and women members of Multnomah Club enjoyed a morning dip at Windemuth and a luncheon afterward on Ross Island last Thursday. After the swim the party sailed about the Ralph Sash's sloop, Pine Stuff, and had a short ride in Dr. E. B. Haslop's motorboat. Those in the party were Mrs. Viola

Y. M. C. A. SECRETARY AND BRIDE WILL GO TO CHINA FOR MISSIONARY WORK.

MR. AND MRS. TODNEM.

Just after severing his connections with the Portland Young Men's Christian Association to become a Y. M. C. A. worker in China, Lawrence Todnem, social secretary, will be married today to Miss Annie Laurie Waldron on the farm of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley C. Waldron, near Amity. Mr. Todnem and his bride will leave this evening for the East.

Both Mr. Todnem and Miss Waldron were students, several years ago at Dakota Wesleyan University. Two years ago he came to Portland to train for the foreign work of the Y. M. C. A. They will visit Princeton, N. J., August 25 to 29, probably sailing for China from Seattle on September 26. Mr. Todnem expects to spend his first year in China in attendance at the language school in Shanghai. The Portland Y. M. C. A. is already well represented in the Orient, Merle Davis and J. C. Clark being among the well-known secretaries there who were formerly employed in this city.

Every Day Sees New Arrivals to our large assemblage of the smartest Suits for women—on our second floor. A visit there will repay every woman who is interested to learn Dame Fashion's latest mandate. A wealth of lovely new styles to choose from Russian tunics, deep yokes, close basques, coats hanging straight from the shoulder—and dozens of new notes. An unusual showing of the season's first models at one sees either the new all black velvet hat or the chic all-white "feather breast" hat. In New York, smartly garbed women wear the latter for both street and dress wear. They add just the right touch to a light Summer suit or one of dark wool. This is the most novel and jauntiest midsummer hat of many seasons. We are showing especially attractive toques and turbans in all white or white and black. See them tomorrow!

$24.75, $29.50, $33.50

At Atlantic City

Feather Breast Hats Specially Priced at $4.98

Mr. Kerble has just returned from a month's stay in New York. New Hats are arriving daily.

EMPORIUM

124-126-128 N. 5th St. Just off Washington

Watkins, Mrs. Harry Young, Miss Bernice Masters, Mrs. Jessie Pittenger, Mrs. Dorr V. Walker, Dr. E. B. Haslop, Miss Hattie K. Eilers, Miss Mary Anne Smith, Ralph J. Staehli, Earl R. Goodwin, Silas Christofferson, E. Carl Walden, J. Ward and H. Williams.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Erickson July 26, at Beaverton, Or., in honor of the 55th birthday of Mrs. Erickson. A large number of relatives and friends were in attendance. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. O. Olson, Miss Jennie Olson, Miss Mabel Olson, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Johnson, Victor Johnson, Ethel Johnson, Earl Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Person, Lawrence Person, Albert Johnson, Miss Olga Johnson, Miss Alice Erickson, Miss Mary Erickson, Olaf Erickson, Frank O. Erickson, Henry Erickson, Claus Erickson, Miss Anna Daubin, Miss Elizabeth Gardiner, Miss Emma Vehrs and Mrs. Bertha Wehrs.

One of the many enjoyable outings sponsored by the Deceen Club was a moonlight trip on the Willamette recently.

The girls, in response to an invitation extended by Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Blakebeck, went by motorboat to a picturesque spot on the bank of the river. An appetizing supper was spread, a bonfire built and games and stories were features of the evening.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Blakebeck, Mrs. Lewis Dart, Misses Evelyn Young, Minnie Sheelan, Blanche Roark, Hattie Jolly, Mina Smith, Lotie Chapelle, Lucie Bache and Elizabeth Bird.

A pretty children's party was given Tuesday by Mrs. S. C. Martin, who entertained in the garden of her home, 409 East Thirty-third street North, in honor of the third birthday of her granddaughter, Sofena M. Rice. The table was placed under the fir trees, from which hung baskets of flowers. Sweet peas decorated the table, which had as a centerpiece a big birthday cake on which gloved three gay candees. The young guests were Marian and Virginia Martin, S. C. Martin, of St. Helens, Fay Rice, of Clatskanie, Edgar Smith, Bobbie Jeffert, Dorothy

(concluded on page 9.)

First Formal Showing of Midsummer and Early Fall

MILLINERY

Consisting of the very newest sailor and semi-dress shapes of satins, velvets, kid and silk effects, in black and white.

See Our Window Display MONDAY SPECIALS

The Wonder Millinery

Corner Morrison and Fourth

New Wings—New Bands—New Trimmings