BAZAAR LONG BEACH EVENT

Church Entertainment Is Notable Affair of Week at Resort.

LONG BEACH, Wash., Aug. 1.—(Special.)—One of the biggest and most notable events of the present season at this resort was the bazaar and din-ner given Tuesday afternoon and even-ing by the Ladles' Union Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church, of North

The bazaar was held in the society's rest and reading-room on the beach. It proved to be a huge success from a social standpoint as well as financially. The proceds will be used to liquidate the debts of the rest-room, which is a new branch of the society's work. In the evening an claborate and interesting programme was given in conection with the motion pictures at the Pastime Theater. The programme was as follows: Reading, by Rev. Mr. Bates and Miss The programme was as follows: Read-ing. by Rev. Mr. Bates and Miss Schloppe; vocal selections, by Miss Edna Kindred, Reese Williams, Law-rence Dineen, Miss Eloine Gooley, Miss Vera Venable, Miss Soule, Mr. Round, Mrs. Cumming and Mrs. Hammond.
Miss Beatrice Lash contributed to the affair with several violin solos, accompanied by Mrs. Joseph F. Greggs, of Tacoma. Miss Stevens also gave instumental selections.

The members of the reception com-mittee for the afternoon were Mrs. W. B. Murdock, Mrs. B. A. Chambreau and Mrs. N. Pope.

Stationed at the punch table, placed in a bower of the society's colors, yellow and white, which predominated throughout the room, were Mrs. L. C. Davison and Miss Lulu Martin. The flower-booth, one of the prettiest corrers of the room, was presided over by Mrs. J. J. Campbell, assisted by by Mrs. J. J. Campbell, assisted by the Misses Baker and Lolita Tinker. Dr. Belle MacDonald, of New York City, had charge of the preserved fruit table and also arranged the "postof-fice" game, which was a delightful part of the affair. Mrs. H. E. Deputy was particularly active on the enter-tainment committee, of which she was
