

WAR NEWS SPIRES TO SERMONS ON "PEACE" AT CHURCHES

Portland Pastors to Take European Conflict as Basis of Addresses to Congregations at Today's Services.

A WIDE range of topics has been prepared for the consideration of church-goers for today. The subjects are many and varied. The "Back to home" movement advocated by the educational committee of the Oregon Civic League is receiving recognition from the ministers.

Rev. W. G. Elliot, Jr., will speak this morning on "Back to the Home and Its Consequences." Many other ministers are preparing to cooperate with the league.

The war news in the air is inspiring many of the pastors to preach on the beauty of "peace."

The Rev. J. Richard Olson, chaplain of the Oregon Naval Militia and pastor of the Immanuel Lutheran Church, Nineteenth and Irving streets, who has returned from a trip to Honolulu, will speak tonight on "Peace Within and Without."

In the White Temple Rev. J. Q. A. Henry will have as his theme this morning "God's Second Best" and tonight he will speak on "Man, the Glory and the Scandal of the Universe."

"The Time to Keep Silent and the Time to Speak" will be Dr. E. A. Woods' subject at the East Side Baptist Church tonight.

Rev. A. B. Calder, of the Trinity Methodist Church, announces his morning subject as "Where Iron Shoes Are Needed," and as a contrast to war topics he offers for the evening "The Joy of Peacemakers."

Portland Priest Will Preach at Gearhart. Rev. Father George Thompson to Have Charge of Services During August—Northwest Parishes Are Active.

period different members have charge of the school. J. G. Malone will be the leader today.

The Young People's Society of the First Norwegian Danish Methodist Episcopal Church, Hoyt and Eighteenth streets, have made preparations for a big time Tuesday night. A splendid programme consisting of music, singing and readings will be given. After the programme refreshments, ice cream and cake will be served. A free will offering will be taken for the benefit of the board of stewards of the church.

Rev. W. O. Shank, pastor of the East Side Baptist Church, being absent on his vacation for August, the pulpit will be supplied by Rev. E. A. Woods, D. D., former pastor of the First Baptist Church of San Francisco and professor in the theological seminary at Berkeley, now residing in Portland. He also will have charge of the mid-week prayer meeting service.

Visitors Will Fill Pulpit During August.

Rev. John H. Boyd to Spend Vacation on Country Place in Mountains and at Seaside.

REV. JOHN H. BOYD, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, corner Twelfth and Alder streets, has entered on his vacation, which he plans to spend between his country place at Mount Hood and the Oregon coast. Dr. Boyd will be away from his pulpit through August and the first Sunday in September. During his absence the pulpit supply committee has arranged the following unusual series of sermons, to be delivered by preachers of note in the Presbyterian Church:

August 2.—Rev. Edward Arthur Wichel, of the chair of New Testament interpretation in the San Francisco Theological Seminary and one of the most eminent educators in California, will speak.

August 9.—Rev. Robert H. Milligan, D. D., of Tacoma, who spent eight years in South Africa, will bring an inspiring message from the jungles. At August 16 and 23.—The Rev. John E. Bushnell, D. D., of Minneapolis, successful pastor of Westminster church in Minneapolis and one of the noted preachers of the Presbyterian denomination, will speak.

August 30.—Rev. Lapsley A. McAfee, D. D., from the First Church of Berkeley and one of the strongest preachers on the coast, will fill the pulpit. Dr. McAfee has recently been offered the chair of homiletics in the Theological Seminary of San Francisco.

September 6.—Rev. George S. McCune, of the Hugh O'Neil, Jr., Academy for Boys in Sycuan Church, will be heard. Mr. McCune is an enthusiastic speaker and has rendered his valuable assistance, has left Oregon to take charge of his parish in Cottonwood, Idaho. Father Odilo has succeeded in making many warm friends in the parish.

Monday evening, Rev. Father Chapoton left for St. Louis, Mo., and it will be toward the end of August before he will return.

The Presentation Catholic Church at Deer Park, Wash., dedicated at 10 o'clock high mass, July 13. Bishop Schinner, of the Spokane diocese, officiated and preached the dedication sermon, assisted by Fathers Crasbach and the Rev. J. J. O'Neil, pastor of the church. The Sisters of Charity choir of Chewelah led the musical part of the ceremonies.

The Rev. Frederic Sledenburg, S. J., dean of the school of sociology at Loyola University, Chicago, spent a few days in Portland last week.

Father E. H. Gribben, a former resident of Portland, died at St. Joseph's Hospital, Aberdeen, Wash., July 27. He was 82 years old, having been born June 7, 1831, in Dromore, County Down, Ireland.

Father Gribben celebrated the 50th anniversary of his elevation to the priesthood on December 8, 1912, at St. Francis Church, Portland, where he resided with Father Black for about a year.

Last Saturday Sister Bernarda, the new superioress, accompanied by Sister Borromeo, of the Immaculate Heart, arrived from San Francisco.

Sister Dominica, accompanied by Sister Innocentia and Sister Carmalia, left for California last week. They have been assigned to schools in the Southern missions. Sister Dominica organized the Immaculate Academy and supervised the construction of the present commodious building.

Portland Pastor to Conduct Capital Camp Meeting.

Rev. Mr. Law, of First Methodist Church, South, to Leave for Washington This Week.

REV. LOVICK PIERCE LAW, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church South, will leave Tuesday or Wednesday for Washington, D. C., to conduct an old-fashioned campmeeting for the Methodists at Loudon Camp, one of the famous campgrounds of Southern Methodism.

Rev. Mr. Law had this engagement before coming to take the pastorate of the church in Portland.

His work will be well cared for in his absence, each Sunday service being filled in with good sermons. It is quite probable that Dr. McMurray, the church extension secretary, will return from the East with Mr. Law and fill the pulpit in Portland on August 30.

A church bulletin of the services has been arranged for August and will be distributed today. The special musical night is tonight at the church and an extended programme will be given with a ten minute sermonette by Rev. Mr. Law. An invitation is extended to all.

Rev. J. J. Staub, of the Sunnyside Congregational Church, has returned with his family from a month's outing at Long Beach, Wash. Dr. Staub will occupy his pulpit today. Splendid plans for an aggressive campaign of church work are on foot. Meetings of the church departments will be called early in September to outline plans for the Sunnyside church.

Queries From Congregation Invited by Pastor.

Dr. S. R. Hawkins, of Central Christian Church, to Devote Evenings to Discussion of Questions Raised.

DR. S. R. HAWKINS, pastor of the Central Christian Church, announces that during August he expects to use the time usually given to the Sunday evening sermon in answering questions, such as pertain to scripture interpretation, social and civic problems of a practical nature, and to the issue of statewide prohibition. The membership of the church and the public are invited and urged to send in questions at their earliest convenience. He requests that the questions be written and mailed to him at 175 East Twentieth street, and that they be carefully worded so as to convey to him just the difficulty the questioner has. Impertinent questions will receive no attention.

In case more questions are turned in than time will permit properly to answer the converts to be given to the ing the more important and practical questions. Those asking questions may sign their names or not to their questions, as they please.

One question for this evening is based on Mark xvii:17-18, and another on Matthew xx:1-6. Another wishes to know what is meant by the "Back-to-the-home movement" and who are the instigators of it.

"The Mayor and Movies" Centenary Church Topic.

"Joy and Man" Service to Be Attended by Sons of Spanish War Veterans.

He is planning a series of special interest for the Sunday morning services. It will have to do with cardinal points in Christian belief on which there is more or less debate as to the scriptural teaching, but which nevertheless are regarded as vital to character and destiny.

The first of these will be at 11 A. M.
