LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 8 .- Venice drove two Portland pitchers from the mound today, won the game 6 to 2 and brought the record for the series between the leaders of the league up to two games for the Venetians against three victories for the Beavers.

Henley pitched a tight game, while his teammates bunched hits off Reiger in the fourth inning, scoring three runs and retiring Reiger, and then gave Evans a taste of the same medicine in the sixth when three more tallies were made.

Thrice did McCredie strive to stem the onslaugts of the Germans, but old General Hogan, christened Wray in Wurtemburg, was not to be denied and ordered his men to keep on storming the forts long after its need had vanished. Rieger, Evans and Martinoni were called upon to stop Venice, but it was useless and 10 hits, the most made by a home team since the deep Shad O. Krantz Meets Grancy, Steen, snow, were gathered off the trio. Kores and Lober tried their old trick of batting out the game along about dusk and it wasn't their fault they didn't succeed. Kores got his usual triple and Lober also got his safety, but both came in the seventh with no one else on bases. This combination gave the Beavers their last run. The first one was grabbed right at the start, when Davis singled, stole second and scored while McArdle was playing one-old-cat with Doane's grounder. The real bombardment started in the the American League race. and then a double, and it was such an unearthly proceeding that the big gang of fans present sat speechless.

Borton, Hosp, McArdle and Elliott tore off one-basers as quick as they could get up to the plate, the last rap seeing Mr. Reiger get the hook. Then Henley gave McCredie time to get his breath by fanning, but Carlisie greeted Evans with a double and three men were safe at home. By the time the sixth rolled around the crowd was in its right mind again and yelled like wild men when McArdle, Elliott and Henley's rap scored McArdle. Carlisie flew out. Leard walked, filling the bases, and Meloan's single brought Elliott and Henley home. After that liott and Henley home. After that Martinoni did the heavy work for Port-land and managed to get by without a puncture. The series is three to two for the Beavers, with two games to

"We may not be a contender this year, Matty, but there is a lot of "pep" in our club, and I figure we are going to take the heart out of two or three teams up there fighting for the lead before we get through."

Shortly afterwards Stallings broke into Chicago and took three out of four from the Cubs just when the Chicago team had a chance to climb into first place because the Cardinals were trimming the Giants. Next, the Boston trimming the Giants. Next, the Boston club moved into St. Louis while the Giants were breaking even with the Cubs and stopped the Cardinals at a time when they had a grand opportunity to move up within striking distance of the front. Later, when the tunity to move up within striking dis-tance of the front. There is no use talking. The Boston club is playing wonderful ball, and, at its present pace, may even do better than Evers predicted. It may become a contender in another month if the leaders should be attacked with a spell such as they had about leaders should be attacked with a spen of sloppy hall such as they had about a month ago. You can never tell in this freak year. Anyway, we are all afraid of Boston when we meet it in

A team like the Boston club decides many a pennant race, even if it is not up among the pacemakers itself, because it has the ability to best the best of them and carries a punch that all the other clubs are afraid of. It also had a psychological advantage. The Cubs, for instance, were fighting to hang within striking distance of the Giants, when they came East, which meant that they would have to win every time the Giants came through with a victory to held their position.

I don't look to see the race in the National League between the Giants and the Cubs hold up as close as it has been much longer. The strain is too great, and one of the teams is bound to break under it. It has kept McGraw driving every inch of the distance recently, but I figure that our club has an advantage over the Cubs club has an advantage over the Cubs

On the other hand, there are a lot of steady veterans among the Cubs, while the Giants have a collection of young timber in the lineup. Chicago is most apt to weaken in the pitching staff, as some of the twirlers are get-ting the big share of the work. Cheney is not as girong as he was, for O'Day has kept him at it very steadily. The Giants' staff is in better shape right now than it has been at any other time this season.
