CABINS OF ATLANTIC LINERS THRONGED

Celtic Arrives in New York and Several Other Liners Leave Britain.

TRANSPORTS NOT NEEDED

American Tourists in London Who Booked Early Passages, Now Disposed to Wait for Greater Comforts Later On.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15 .- More than 1500 passengers from Europe arrived today on the crowded Celtic, of the White Star line. There were 304 in the first cabin, 606 in the second and 658 in the steerage. A good propor-65s in the steerage. A good propor-tion of the steerage passengers were persons who would have taken cabin passage if it had been available. The cabins were jammed and the stewards had a hard time feeding the throng. The Celtic took a northerly course and steamed without lights at night, but the trip was without incident.

Mrs. Vanderbilt on Board,

W. H. Vanderpoel, son-in-law of C. K. G. Billings, was a passenger on the Celtic with his wife, child and Miss Billings. He said they were in Paris when the condition of affairs became when the condition of a trains occasion alarming. The party left on a crowded train for Calais. Other passengers were: Mrs. Alfred Vanderbilt and son; Captain C. A. Barbour, Ernest Iselin and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Westinghouse.

LONDON, Aug. 15 .- Hundreds of Americans who signed a petition urg-ing that a transport be sent over here for them have already returned to America, and with 48 vessels sailing during the next three weeks to the United States and Canada, the citizens' committee here considers it unlikely there will be any need for a transport

Assistance to Americans. WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Reports from American Ambassadors and diplomats indicate that the situation has been considerably relieved by the release for trans-Atlantic service of the liners Lusitania, Mauretania, olympic and Saxonia. The restoration of these vessels will help solve the transportation problem, though some steamship authorities estimate steamship authorities estimate fully 100,000 Americans await

The demands of stranded Americans for ready money have been somewhat relieved. The board was informed that the banks now are honoring letters of credit held by American travelers. In cases of Americans without letters of credit, American Ambassadors, min-isters and consuls are extending as-

COWLITZ PROJECT PLANNED

Building Jetty and Changing Channel Near Toledo Considered.

CENTRALIA, Wash., Aug. 15.—(Special.)—County Commissioners Gray and Long and County Engineer Ward have been in Toledo the greater part of the week investigating the feasibility of building a jetty and changing the channel of the Cowlitz River near Toledo. Last year during high water a part of the county road and a portion of the Jacoby farm were washed away, and the course of the river is such that again, a long bar separating the two channels. County Commissioner Long, who favors the plan and desires to see the work done during the present low water, believes that a steam scraper would soon cut a channel wide and deep enough to carry the water straight on south, and a good jetty to keep the water in the new channel would help save much property.
