highly satisfactory to ministers of this conference. Bishop Cooke is considered the fore-most bishop of the Methodist denom-ination. In view of his recent bereave-ment, in the death of his son, it was considered better that Bishop Cooke in his own diocese than go to Montana. To entertain and take care of the Oregon Conference will be no small task. There will be 150 active minishighly satisfactory to ministers of this Wednesday the fourth quarterly con-ference of the Westmoreland, Carson Heights and Brentwood Church as will be held at the Brentwood Church and Dr. J. W. McDougall, the district super-intendent, will preside at $ P. M.

Oregon Conference will be no small task. There will be 150 active minis-ters in attendance, and in view of the fact that conference meets in the metropolis this year the wives of the ministers will generally attend, which will increase the number to be cared for. The Harvard plan will be fol-lemed a plan which we provided some for. The Harvard plan will be fol-lowed, a plan which was provided some years ago, that is, bed and breakfast will be provided the ministers, and women of Centenary Methodist Church are now planning to provide lunches in the social rooms of the church at a

Any of attend from outside the city. Any of these wishing to entertain these spe-cial friends among the ministers can reach their object by communicating with Rev. Delmer H. Trimble, the pas-tor, who, with Rev. J. W. McDougall, district superintendent, is making ar-rangements. Rev. Mr. Trimble expects to devote the last two weeks before conference to completing the details for the entertainment of conference. The business of conference is to re-ceive reports of the work from the va-rious charges in the conference, pro-

rious charges in the conference, pro-vide ways and means for carrying on the work for the ensuing year, examining the character of the preachers and stationing all ministers in the charges for the ensuing year. ### Doctrinal Issues to Be Met by Dr. D. H. Trimble.

Centenary Methodist Church to Hear Discussion on State of Dead, Im-mortality and Many Other Inter-esting Features of Life Hereafter.

THE state of the dead? Are all immortal? Is consciousness uninterrupted? Do all go to the same place and conditions? Does the body show in the immortal life? What will be our employment in the hereafter? we recognize each other in heaven?

These are the questions to be answered in Dr. Delmer H. Trimble's ser-mon this morning at Centenary Meth-odist Church, East Ninth and Pine on debatable doctrinal themes. The former two were the baptism of the holy spirit and faith healing. That doctrinal themes have not lost their interest for the modern mind would seem to be indicated by the fact that the large auditorium of Centenary is filled on these August Sundays. Next Sun-day morning the theme will be "The

"The imports of American moods are increasing, due, I think, to the sys-tematic way in which exporters here are going after business. The increase in the imports from the United States rose from $5,219,577 in 1911 to $6,832,-435 in 1912, the latest statistics avail-able. This increase was a rise of from Austrian Empire Began to Expand When Russians Drove Back the able. This increase was a rise of from 28 to 33 per cent of the total imports."

suffering. Yet the Western world is not ashamed to call the Slav an ignor-ant and superstitious people, when, if deprived of educational privileges and living in the same environment, its people would be no better. In their darkest days, under the Ot-toman rule, their desire for freedom and self expression was preserved and the Slavs always strived to regain their former territory and freedom. When the Turks besieged Vienna the Austrian ruler fled from the city leaving only a weakened garrison to defend the city against the oncoming host, John Sobleski, the Polish Slav, came to the rescue and defeated the invaders. When the decadence of the Ottoman empire began, the Slavs invaders. When the decadence of the Ottoman empire began, the Slavs driving him back little by little, the Austrian empire began to expand itself. In 1875-1878, being alded by Russia, the Servians drove the Turks from Bosnis and Herzegovina, but by the treaty of Berlin they were not al-lowed to reap the fruits of their vice tory, and Austria was allowed to oc-cupy the territory for the purpose of restoring order, and in 1908 Austria.
