

MAZAMAS SEE BEAUTIFUL MOUNTAIN SCENES ON RAINIER OUTING

Portland Mountain-Climbing Society Enjoys Expeditions to Summit and to Glaciers and Crevasses.

SNAPSHOTS TAKEN ON THE MAZAMA OUTING TO RAINIER: 1—MAZAMAS' CAMP AND OPEN-AIR DINING-ROOM AT BASE OF RAINIER. 2—UPON THESE TWO MEN DEPEND THE LIVES OF THE MAZAMAS. 3—SNOW FIELD AND GLACIERS ON MOUNT RAINIER. 4—A STRIKING VIEW OF THE MOUNTAIN. 5—FRANK B. RILEY AND FELLOW MAZAMAS CONSUMING THEIR NOON ALLOWANCE OF PORK AND BEANS. 6—CREVASSE OF ROCK AND SNOW. 7—A GROUP OF WOMEN MAZAMAS DRESSED FOR CLIMBING.

FAIRFAX, Wash., Aug. 15.—(Special.)—Over a route pioneered by men of their party, by a climb marked with thrilling incidents, the Mazamas last Monday established a new record on Mount Rainier, taking to its summit the largest party that has ever stood on that crest at one time. Seventy-five began the climb and 71 reached the summit.

George X. Riddell and A. Boyd Williams mapped out the trail over the Winthrop Glacier. The trip took two days. Going from permanent camp Sunday morning, the Mazamas camped at an elevation of 9500 feet on the rocks of Steamboat Prow, and on the following morning began the final ascent. They reached the summit at 11:35 in the morning.

They were divided into nine companies, the members of each company being roped together. Mr. Riddell supervised the climb and the company leaders were B. S. Darling, of Vancouver, B. C.; Dr. W. E. Stone, of Lafayette, Ind.; Allan H. Bent, of Boston; Dr. F. B. Wynn, of Indianapolis; R. L. Gilsan, Eddie Sammons, John A. Lee and F. W. Buechel, of Portland, and W. C. Yorran, of Eugene.

The most exciting incident of the climb was when a snow bridge over a crevasse caved just as the last two in the party headed by John A. Lee were crossing. Only the presence of mind of the members of the company and the prompt action of those who had reached firm ground saved the whole party from being plunged into the crevasse.

The registration of the party in the book on the summit followed. George X. Riddell, A. Boyd Williams, Francis Benefield, chairman of the outing committee; B. S. Darling, Annie Reid, Katherine B. Hollowell and Harold H. Shanley, of Vancouver, B. C.; A. B. Morkill, of Victoria, B. C.; Mrs. W. E. Stone, of Lafayette, Ind.; Allen H. Bent, of Boston; Dr. J. B. Wynn and James A. Wynn, of Indianapolis; W. B. Marble and Ethel Freeman, of Chicago; Mildred Stanford, of Olympia; C. A. Barnes and Carl Phillips, of Tacoma; Mabel Furry and Gladys Kellett, of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branch Riley, R. L. Gilsan, R. W. Ayer, C. J. Siebert, J. C. Sharp, Alfred Parker, D. G. Lebb, Anna Dilliner, Jerry Bronaugh, W. C. Yorran, Martha Nilsson, H. G. Johnson, Arthur S. Peterson, Edwin F. Peterson, J. W. Marsh, L. E. Anderson, I. Brooke White, E. C. Sammons, Mary C. Henthorne, A. L. Heyer, D. M. G. Kerr, C. A. Guerne, Keith M. Walker, F. P. Luettich, Pearl Harvorn, R. M. Filloon, Alice Banfield, R. J. Davidson, R. J. Clary, Mary E. Powell, George Williams, Anna Bullivant, Fred H. McNeil, Edna P. Shotwell, John A. Lee, Louisa Almy, Virginia M. Irby, Marion Schneider, Dr. V. C. Luther, C. W. Howard, Robert E. Hitch, J. K. Parker, Edith Ellis, Lola Crighton, W. V. Glascock, Arthur A. Allen, James Hale and Fred Hale, of Portland.

FEEDING HUNGRY MEN IS SCIENTIFIC TASK

Captain Daugherty Tells Problem of Furnishing Ample Food for Troops in Camp at Nominal Cost to Government.

TO the uninitiated the task of feeding 65 hungry soldiers, which was the quota of Company B at Camp Jackson this year, would be a stupendous one, especially in view of the fact that only 27 1/2 cents a day is the amount allowed by the Government for the purpose of feeding each man.

While this may seem a pitifully small amount, yet by economical buying, which is made possible by the regimental commissary, and the careful preparation of the food by cooks who are trained to Army cooking, a very palatable and adequate menu is made possible.

This depends largely, however, upon the skill of the cooks in preparing the food and the judgment used by the sergeant in charge of the mess, who does the purchasing.

These are issued to the companies at a fairly nominal price. Beef is sold at 15 1/2 cents a pound, bacon at 17 cents a pound, coffee 18 cents a pound, milk 7 cents a quart and other things in proportion.

Each mess sergeant is issued daily the sales slip of the articles purchased by him for the day and the cost thereof.

It is his duty to see that no unnecessary articles are purchased and that he does not exceed his allowance. This is excellent training, for should the eventually arise that our troops be called into service the lesson of feeding from a limited food supply would in a measure at least have been learned.

ANN SWINBURNE MAY BE MAROONED ABROAD

Friends Unable to Learn Whereabouts of Famous Portland Prima Donna, Who Is in Europe.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—(Special.)—The friends of Ann Swinburne (Ditchburn), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Ditchburn, formerly of Portland, the petite prima donna of "The Madcap Duchess," Victor Herbert's successful comic opera of last season, are greatly concerned over the absence of the fair singer who has been chosen by Mr. Herbert for stellar roles in his three operas, "Sweethearts," "Madame Modiste" and "The Madcap Duchess," which are to be produced this coming season.

When last heard from Miss Swinburne was touring Europe and had just crossed the Simplon Pass with the intention of visiting Rome before sailing for America to open her season.

COLLIE SAVES ITS MASTER

Dog Beats Off of Unconscious Man Nearly 100 Hogs.

OTTAWA, Mont., Aug. 5.—W. C. Parks, a farmer living three miles northeast of here, owes his life to the fidelity of his collie dog, which beat off from his master's body for three hours nearly 100 hogs.

Plea Made for All to Join Community Sing.

Mrs. Thomas Carrick Burke Says Every Should Sing as Involuntary Expression of Enjoyment.

ing as a people if we hope to deepen our musical consciousness. Let us start with the Multinational field "sing" and keep on until singing becomes an involuntary expression of enjoyment on all future occasions.

PASTOR WEDS SECRETLY

Bride Friend of Former Wife and New Father-in-Law Angry.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—Several years ago, when the Rev. Walter S. Maines went to Paterson, N. J., as the pastor of the Second Reformed Church there, he and his wife made the acquaintance of Miss Mae Ritter, a girl in her latter teens, and in the course of time induced her to join the church, however, Mr. Maines was a leader in the association and Frank Ritter, Miss Ritter's father, was the proprietor of a saloon.

All went well until the Paterson Ministerial Association began an active campaign against the saloons in Paterson. Mr. Maines was a leader in the association and Frank Ritter, Miss Ritter's father, was the proprietor of a saloon. The anti-liquor fight of the ministers led to unpleasantness between Mr. Maines and Mr. Ritter, and Miss Ritter was forced by her father to resign from the church choir. She remained loyal to the church, however, and attended the services regularly.

They were married quietly a few days ago at the home of Mr. Maines' brother, Dr. Eugene L. Maines, a chemist, who lives at 885 Greene avenue, Brooklyn. The Rev. Charles Herge, pastor of the Lafayette Reformed Church, Jersey City, one of Mr. Maines' associates, performed the ceremony. Mr. Ritter's consent was not obtained and by the time he was informed of the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Maines had left on a honeymoon.