Southpaw Lush Whole Game.

It was a wild and woozy battle in which Southpaw Lush of Portland hogged all the roles. He was Uncle Tom, Little Eva, Eliza, and the ice all in one, and, the ex-Toledoite even tried Lush stole two bases during the af-ternoon, but Captain Bill Rodgers, the base-thieving king of the League, was not to be robbed of his "stuff." Rodgers went Lush one better, steal-

Also Bill had an unusual day at bat walking thrice, getting another life on a dead ball and bagging one safe swat. Lush allowed but six hits as against in the Beavers' pelt-bag. Gus Fisher jumped still further into lead as the top-notch batsman in the League, enriching his average with three hits. Gus retired in the sixth to give Brenegan a chance to exercise. Other Chances Recorded.

Derrick also retired, after going hit-less on five trips up. Kores switched to first base, Rieger taking his place in right. Derrick was the only player to

For the Beavers, Infielder Dave Ban roft was a Wagner or Maranville in isguise. The Oaks couldn't get anything by the lightning short-patcher. Once he started a sparkling double play and earlier he brought down the spotlight by doing a one-hand specialty force at second base.

Dave was charged with an error, but it was a toss-up between Dave and Bill Rodgers. Nobody covered on a throw by Brenegan in the ninth and Middleton advanced to third.

Today the two teams play a double.

Today the two teams play a doubleheader and the first game will com-mence at 1:30 o'clock. The Beavers need only one to win the series. Score:

The payment of $2500 to Nashville by Owner Ebbetts, of the Brooklyn Nationals, ended the dispute before an actual strike was begun, so there was no open rupture between players and magnates.

Officials Are Unwilling That

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 22.—(Special.)—Olympic officials in Europe are showing a praiseworthy unwillingness to allow the 1916 Olympiad to go by default should Germany be unable to hold the games in Berlin two years hence. A prominent English official suggested that the games be given to Stockholm if Germany should default. This presupposes that Sweden will be able to maintain its present neutrality, which is probable.

The late Mike Murphy, coach of the American teams in 1908 and 1912, also was an enthusiast, and frequently declared that more physical good could be accomplished through training for walking than in any other way.
