to Needy Than Is Sold, Though Government Figures Act Also Reduces Fire Risk.

On 11 Reserves More Wood Donated

The District Forester in this city reports that there has been an increase of more than 64,000,000 board feet of timber cut in sales on the Na-tional forests in Washington, Oregon and Alaska during the fiscal year end-ing June 30, 1914, over the previous fiscal year.

The total amount cut in timber sales during the fiscal year was 179,551,000 board feet and the average price received for this timber was $1.78 per thousand board feet. In addition 14,624,000 board feet of timber was given away free of charge to settlers living in and near the National forests. The total amount cut in timber sales

Fuel Given to Settlers. During the same period a total of 271,455,000 board feet of timber was sold in 1011 timber sales, but more than 93 per cent of these sales involved $100 worth of timber or less, and were made to those who are dependent upon the National forests for their supply of timber for fuel and other domestic

On 11 of the National forests more on 11 of the National tolera most timber was given away to needy set-tlers and homesteaders than was sold. Approximately 74 per cent of the ma-terial given away consisted of dead timber. In this manner, not only were the needs of the local inhabitants supplied, but the fire danger was reduced on account of the removal of this in-

The largest amount of timber cut en any one National forest was 42,055,-000 board feet on the Tongass National forest in Alaska. The largest amount sold on any one forest during the last fiscal year was 128,883,000 board feet on the Olympic National forest, in Washington.

flammable material.

The total receipts for timber on the National forests in Oregon, Washing-ton and Alaska during the last fiscal year was $305,285.59. Twenty-five per cent of this and of all other receipts from the same forests is given to the counties in which they are situated, to be used for schools and roads, and an additional 10 per cent is expended by the Secretary of Agriculture for the improvement of roads and trails, pri-marily for the benefit of the settlers and homesteaders within the forests.

MAPPED PASCO TRACK Survey of Quadrangle Pressed by Federal Engineers.

PASCO, Wash., Aug. 29 .- (Special.) --Surveyors of the United States Geological Survey, under the direction of H. L. McDonald, are now working in the vicinity of Richland, making the topographic map of the Pasco quadrangle,

This map, when published, will cover about 800 square miles, and will ex-tend from Hanford on the north to the Oregon line on the south, and from Kiona on the west to Pasco on the east. It will cover many square miles of irrigated lands in the lower Yakima Valley, and also on the proposed Palouse project, now being investigated by the United States Reclamation Serv-ice. A great deal of preliminary level work was done last summer.

The topographic mapping of the Mitchell and Haven quadrangle in the neighborhood of Priest Rapids and White Bluffs is about completed. It is expected that advance preliminary copies of the map will be available in the Spring. The state of Washington is co-operating in the work.

BENSON TRIBUTE PLANNED

Hood River Citizens Would Honor Columbia Highway Promoter.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Aug. 29 .- (Special.)—Plans for a testinonial in honor of S. Benson by Hood River County citizens is taking definite shape and a committee has been appointed to raise funds and select a site for a gateway, park or arch, an expression of grati-tude for the work Mr. Benson has done toward hastening the completion of the Columbia Highway through the county. The committee is composed of S. A. Mitchell, Walter Kimball, Roy D. Smith, M. R. Noble and O. P. Dabney. Mr. Dabney has offered as a site for the proposed testimonial a plot of ground about two miles west of the city, at the top of the Ruthton hill and at the verge of the valley.
