MUCH ONE-SIDED SERIES

Martinoni and "Skeeter" Fanning Twirl Good Ball for 8 Innings, With Fortunes of War Swerving Back and Fourth.

Coast League Standings. Yesterday's Results. At Portland—San Francisco 6, Portland 3, At Oakland—Sacramento 11, Oakland 1, At Los Angeles—Venice 1-0, Los Angeles 3-2.

Portland summoned in all reserves yesterday, but the smoke went up the chimney just the same. With Buddy Ryan and Derrick back at their accustomed places, the Beavers gave San Francisco a severe scare, but the result was the same-a San Francisco

The score was 6 to 4, and four of the San Francisco six were negotiated in a sensational ninth-inning rally off Martinoni and Lush.

Hence, if you are at all mathemati-cally inclined. Ou will be able to draw from this that Portland was ahead.

3-2, up to the ninth.
Correct. Up to the ninth is good.
Don't make the Frenchman's mistake of taking in more territory than that. It was "up to the ninth," strictly and unequivocally.

Series Much One-Sided.

After the ninth the atmosphere was all San Francisco. The series now stands four games for Sealdom and a lonesome one for Portland. With only three games separating the two leading clubs, it begins to look like a replica of the Boston-New York situation in our own backyards.

Martinoni and "Skeeter" Fanning pitched good ball for eight frames, with the fortunes of war swerving back and forth like a shuttlecock.

Marty entered the ninth, as we have emphasized before, with the score 3-2 in his favor. Doubtless the game in his favor. Doubtless the game would have ended that way had Fred Derrick been able to lay his hands on a drive by Corhan that careened between his legs at a mile-per-minute between his legs at a mine-per-mineted in the ninth.

Or had Umpire Guthrib called a third strike on Corhan that looked as aweet as a hunk of saccharine.

Corhan's drive whizzed too fast to handle, however, and that started the rout. Schmidt followed suit by smashing his third single of the day into left field.

Enter Del Howard.

Enter Del Howard.

We would like to censor here.

Howard had not shown in a box score all week, but this looked like a psychological time for the big Seal boss to nose into the picture. And enter he did as a pinch batter for Fan-

Lush's Jinx Working.

Lush's jinx apparently was not working yesterday. Perhaps it was killed in the bloody battle off Coos Bay. At any rate, not only did Howard single and fill the bags, but three others trooped up benind him and did the very same thing, towit: Fitzgerald, Charles and Coy,m. ... 6 1 1 1 0 Quinlan.r. 3 2 2 0 1 Orr.s. ... 6 1 4 11 Guest,2-s. 3 1 1 4 1 ir runs scored in the melee and Ty Lober delivered a death warrant to another at the plate by a sensa-tional throw from left center. If it had not been for Tyrus we might have been out there yet praying for rain to end the misery. Fifteen hits was the Seal total off Martonini and Lush, and seven the Seavers rung up off Fanning. Standridge pitched the final frame and was invincible. Singles by Ryan and Rodgers drovof Portland's three tallies and a sacrifice fly by Fisher accounted for the third.

One game today will end the series, commencing at 2:30 o'clock, with Higginbotham opposing Pernoll. Hig has won our only game from the Seals, and looks like Mack's chief reliance in the Portland-

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29.—Klawithment of curtallment of the league baseball season, which will close Sunday, September 13, instead of September 28, as scheduled. The early closing is due to the war situation in British Columbia, which has reduced attendance at games and all amusements to an unprofitable point. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29.-Klawit-Wolves had gathered 14 hits off his de-livery, winning by the score of 11 to 1. The Caks supplemented Klawitter's Estlard and Vancouver played an exweakness by making six errors. Stew-
