Continuance of Work of Visiting Nurses Is Up to Campaign for Fund.

16 BOOTHS TO BE PLACED

Prominent Women to Preside Over Sales of Membership Costing $3, $5 or $10-Leaders Sure of Success.

The future of the charitable work of the Visiting Nurse Association rests with the success of tomorrow's campaign, which will continue from 16 o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock in the evening. Women prominent in social circles of Portland will preside at 16 booths in the downtown section of the city to receive membership donations. Enrollment in this beneficent association may be had as low as $3 a year and other memberships may be had at $5 and $10 a year.

Thousands of poor in Portland can testify to the splendid work being done by this organization, which now faces a crisis in its financial affairs. At an approximate expense of $500 a faces a crisis in its financial affairs. At an approximate expense of $500 a month or $6000 a year the Visiting Nurse Association is going $2500 behind this year. This does not in the least reflect on the management, but is simply the result of too small a contributing membership. There are now 425 members in the association, and by the campaign tomorrow the association hopes to increase this number to 1000.

Larger Membership to Save.

With a contributing membership of 1000 persons paying from $2 to $10 a year each, the financial difficulties will be soived. Many of the members paymore than the stipulated amounts, and the tuberculosis fund maintained by the association has many subscriptions of $100 a year.

Arrangements for tomorrow's canwass have been in the hands of a committee composed of Mrs. Robert G. Dieck, chairman, Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman and Mrs. S. S. Montague, and various sub-committees. They have planned to open 16 booths in the heart of the city tomorrow; in every one two of the city tomorrow; in every one two or more women will preside. They have asked that all who desire to help have asked that all who desire to help offer their services tomorrow at the booths, for numerous solicitors may be needed to encourage people to take out memberships. There is little doubt of the success of the campaign in the minds of the leaders. Realizing the value of the work, Portland residents will be generous with their support, it is thought. The lowest memberships would call for contributions of but 25 cents a month.

and the annual birthoay ten. It is ex-pended in the care of patients suffering from non-contagious diseases, except when, with authority of the Board of Health, special nursing service may be employed for contagious cases.

Seal Sale Provides Fund.

The fuberculosis fund has been raised by the sale of Red Cross stamps and special pledges. This money is sufficient to pay the salaries of two nurses engaged in that work, the expense of maintenance of the tuberculosis clinic, and to pay for milk, eggs. bedding, clothing and other necessities for those too poor to provide them for themselves.

The eight graduate nurses employed are under the superintendent, Miss E. E. Grittinger, who has headquarters at 631 Medical building. One nurse is detailed only to the care of mothers and babies. Baby clothes, underwear and bedding supplies are kept and hundreds of garments are distributed in the course of a year to those needing Patients Are Grateful.

Many a letter similar to the follow-ing is received by the association every week in appreciation of its work: "We wish most sincerely to thank the nurses of the Visiting Association, Miss Reader and Mrs. Maitland, for Miss Reader and Mrs. Maitland, for their kindness and assistance during the illness of our little daughter, Esther. (Signed) Mr. and Mrs. A. Benoit, 836 E. 29th street."

"Just a small present, a check for all I can afford at present. Hoping this will find you in a pleasant disposition, just like I used to see you. Respectfully yours. (Signed) Olaf Herriin."

A recent case handled by the assorecent case handled by the association was a mother who was ill. When the nurse visited the home, she saw a little child just able to toddle along the floor. It was suffering from infantile paralysis. A nurse took the case, obtained the best medical attention Portland could give, and with a surgeon's care there now is hope the youngster may walk.

The attention of one of the visiting nurses was called to a case of malpu-trition last February. A child weigh-ing ten pounds at birth had fallen to eix pounds. A daily visit, care at the eix pounds. A daily visit, care at the milk station, etc., helped until the child now weighs 15 pounds and is healthy. A recent case was found by the Visiting Nurse Association where a poor mother was ill and in need of immediate hospital attention. The visiting nurse co-operated with the County Physician, and in less than an hour the poor woman was receiving attention in a hospital and arrangements had been made with neighbors to take care of the three children until the care of the three children until the mother's recovery. Meanwhile the oth-er charitable associations of the city had been interested in this case and the family will be taken care of until

Work Is Among Peor.

The work of the Visiting Nurse Association is among the poor of the city. Assistance is lent those who are ill and too poverty-stricken to afford to pay for dectors and nurses. When it is possible the patients always pay a little toward their expenses, but this is not a requirement. Of particular value is this association to the needy mothers of the city, helping in many ways in the care of children. During the Summer a milk station was open from June 15 to September 1, and 71 bables were fed from there It provided examination by physicians as well as the prescription of correct milk foods.

The funds of the Visiting Nurse Association are divided into two divisions, one known as the general funds and the other as the tuberculosis fund. The general fund is derived from the annual membership dues, donations, and the annual birthday tea. It is expended in the care of patients suffering from non-contagious diseases, except with authority of the Board of the Visiting Nurse Association is apply remedies, alleviate bad conditions, relieve and relievate ba

WAR EFFECTS DISCUSSED W. D. Wheelwright Says Exports of Foodstuffs May Remain Normal.

That the effect of the European war on business conditions in the United States is as yet uncertain, and will depend greatily upon the length of the struggle, was asserted last night by W. D. Wheelwright, president of the Pacific Lumber Company, in an address in Library Hall before the Colorado State Society. Mr. Wheelwright says that France entered the war to recover Alsace and Lorraine, while England was actuated by a desire to triffill her treaty obligations.

The loss of crops in Europe, on account of the war," said Mr. Wheelwright, "may be offset by the corress sponding poverty, and the resulting loss in the consumption of American Products. Thus it is not at all certain that the war will increase the export of foodstuffs from the United States.

"The course of action to be taken by the American business men is difficult to determine. If the war is a matter of months, one course should be adopted, while if it is to last for years it will require a readjustment in the business affairs of the United States.

"France entered this war because she was not a good loser in 1870. She has always wanted to recover Alsace she was not a good loser in 1870. "When women like those in charge of the association's campaign must give up their time to solicit aid, it is up to the business men of this city at least to provide funds for the carrying on of the work," said Mr. English. "We should eliminate the need of these women begging for support. I believe that the small-contribution plan is the logical way of handling the situation. "The Rotary Club hopes to bring every member into this association. I doubt if there are any who will make the plea that they cannot at least afford 25 cents a month for such work."
P. A. Cowgill, of the Realty Board, voiced the opinion of many when he said:

"What the Visiting Nurse Association what the visiting Nurse association is doing is a wonderful work for the people who need it most. It is a meritorious undertaking for all the poor that are ill. With no sectarian affiliations and the right kind of persons in charge of the work it deserves hearty commendation."

Donor of $500 to Fund Tells Why Democrats Should Be Retired Now.

DEPRESSION CAUSE TOLD

Letter to State Central Committee Lays to Democratic "Maladministraion" Reasons for Business Conditions Today.

Reasons why the Democratic party hould be retired from its present control of Congress are given by Jona-than Bourne, Jr., in a letter addressed to the Republican state central com-mittee, received yesterday. Mr. Bourne mittee, received yesterday. Mr. Bourne enclosed his personal check for $590 as a contribution to the Oregon campaign, with the apology that he would have been able to contribute more if it had not been for the business depression due to Democratic "mal-administration" and the European war.

The effect of the Democratic tariff law and the repeal of the free tolls provision of the Panama Canal act are two of the party acts censured by Mr. Bourne. The text of the letter follows:

"WASHINGTON. Sept. 4.—Hon. Charles B. Moores, Chairman Republican State Central Committee, Imperial Hotel, Portland. Or.

"My Dear Mr. Moores: I enclose herewith my check payable to your order for $500 as my contribution to the Republican campaign now being conducted by you in the State of Oregon. I had expected to send you $1020, but I find that business depression incident to Democratic mal-administration and accentuated by the European war limit my contribution to the inclosed amount. I trust that the proceeds of the inclosed check, used in accordance with Federal and State liws, may assist in the promulgation of information as to Republican accomplishments and dissemination of just criticisms of Democratic failures.

"I had hoped to reach Oregon by this time in order to participate in the campaign and present in person my reasons why I believe that the electorate of Oregon should give an overwhelming victory to the Republican party next November. My official duties necessitate my presence here; hence, I am deprived at present of the pleasure of a visit home and opportunity of seeing my friends and presenting to them my reasons for urging loyal support to the Republican party in the coming election.

reasons for urging loyal support to the Republican party in the coming election.

"In my opinion, the greatest of all issues before this country, and, in fact, before the civilized world, is that of before the civilized world, is that of before the civilized world, is that of before the civilized world in the people and experience. Self-interest, and generally selfish interest, nearly always determines the postponed action of any individual; hence, I am convinced that the best government is that which bestows the greatest powers and responsibilities on all the people and delegates no more power to any single individual than is absolutely necessary to administer laws enacted directly by the people or through their represents and type to administer laws enacted directly by the people or charging the powers of the people and people are the people and people and people and people are the people and people and cratic administration, executive oficiatorship has reached its climax. Congress having been rendered almost completely subservient to the White House in violation of the fundamental principles of our government. The Democrats in Congress have established the policy of controlling all important legislation by party caucus. "This means that a minority of the members of either House may determine the course that House shall take upon questions of legislation, which is absolutely antagonistic and destructive of representative and popular government. A Senatorial legislative caucus is unknown in the history of the Republican party.

Bureaueracy at Height.

Bureaucracy at Height.

"Bureaucracy has reached the height of its power. Department and bureau heads seize and exercise authority and control which should be exercised only under definite and specific laws enacted by the legislative branch of the government. Under the present administration ours is rapidly becoming a government of men and not of law—an ipse dixit—a government of whim, favoritism and prejudice and not a government of, by and for the people. Such a government can not long endure.

"Other reasons why I believe the Democratic party should be retired from control of the National Congress, and the Republican party placed in power, are as follows:

"Democratic tariff legislation opened our markets to competition with Bureaucracy at Height.

"Democratic tariff legislation opened our markets to competition with cheaper production abroad, with the result that imports, during the first nine months of the Democratic tariff law, increased over $152,000,000 as compared with the corresponding period two years before. That additional amount of money is lost to this country and added to the wealth of other nations.

How West Is Affected Is Told.

"What the Visiting Norse Association is doing is a wonderful work for the people who need it most. It is a meritorious undertaking for all the poor that are ill. With no sectarian affiliations and the right kind of persons in charge of the work it deserves hearty commendation."

Pastor Has Praise.

"It is one of the most efficient, best managed charities that I know." declared Dr. A. A. Morrison, of the Trinity Episcopal Church. "It is non-sectarian and purely humanitarian-a charity of the highest order. I think the people of Portiand will respond generously to the call for ald."

"Judging from what it has been, the Visiting Nurse Association is a good thing, and we will do all we can to help it along." asserted Horace D. Ramsdell, president of the Commercial Club. "We need such an organization now if we ever did, and its work should be continued. The small amounts asked for should bring many subscriptions."

"We need such an organization now if we ever did, and its work should be continued. The small amounts asked for should bring many subscriptions."

"The Visiting Nurse Association is something we cannot afford to dispense with," maintained Rabbi Jonah B. Wise. "I have come into personal contact with its work in South Portland and find it to be the most effective form of helpful benevolence in the city. The scientific aid of trained women for those who cannot afford medical attendance is worthy the support of all loyal citizens."

"The proposal to pay Colombia $25, one produces because of the European war does not alter the fact that country an apology for the action of the Democratic with the Panama Canal Zone is an act which should meet the disapproval of the American people. "Under Pemocratic Administration, with the approval of the Democratic doubted in the approval of the Democratic American people."

"Repeal of the free tolls provision of the Fanama Canal act was a repudiation of a pledge made by the Democratic party in its platform and on the stump and was unjustified by either home interests or foreign obligations.

The Democratic party has lost no opportunity to endeavor to evade the classified civil service laws and regulations, which took a large part of the Government service out of the spoils system of politics. While the classified civil service system by no means has reached perfection, it is immeasurably better in its results than the spoils system which it succeeded and to which the Democratic party has sought to return.

"The effect of Democratic Administration upon American industry is shown by the record of commercial failures. For the month of July, 1914, before the European war had affected business conditions, the liabilities of concerns that were thrown into

He has not been in Oregon since the convening of Congress in December, 1912, as Congress has been practically in continuous session since that time.
