OAKS LOSE BY LATE SHIFT

The scores were 5-1 and 5-0. The scores were 5-1 and 5-0.

This makes three in a row for the Tigers in this rain-interrupted series. Klepfer pitched and won for Venice Thursday afternoon, so all three Venice triumphs of the series must be chalked up to the credit of this big right-hander. Klepfer goes to the Chicago White Sox next Spring, and ought to make good.

Hig Starts First Contest.

Higginbotham was opposed to Klep-fer in the dedicatory brawl. Hig pitched resolutely, but "Rowdy" Elliott seemed to have his number. Elliott belted in the first three Venice tallies and fur-ther spoiled the afternoon by driving a homer over the right wall in the seventh inning for the fourth tally.

Portland scored its lonesome registra-tion in the first inning on hits by Rodgcors, Fisher and Ryan.

Although a double-header was announced for the afternoon, Umpire Phyle had considerable trouble trying to persuade Happy Hogan to play a second game. Hogan's alibi was that the first game was delayed 15 minutes past the proper hour, due to rain, and that he couldn't be forced to play another. Finally the rival managers compro-

Klepfer, on the other hand, seemed to improve with work. He allowed only one hit in the second five-inning session and that was all alloy. Rodgers poked a grounder at McArdle and while Mac made a great play on the ball, he couldn't set himself in the mud to neg accurately. to peg accurately.

A story was sent broadcast recently from California to the effect that since Sacramento would not support a club in the Coast League, that league might draft Seattle, transferring the Sacramento club here. If anyone will take the trouble to delve a little into baseball laws the absurdity of the proposition becomes apparent. Either the National or the American League would have to take a club from the Coast League before Cal Ewing's circuit could draft a club from the Northwestern.
