WOMEN'S CLUBS ARE BEGINNING TO HOLD THEIR FIRST FALL MEETINGS

Federation Council Luncheon and Session Heretofore Attended Only by Officers and Board Members Thrown Open to All Clubwomen-Daughters of Revolution, Portland Union, Coterie and Others Have Gatherings.

BY EDITH KNIGHT HOLMES HE women's clubs are beginning to hold the first Fall meetings. Interest in federated clubs, charities and social service organizations shows signs of being stronger than ever. The federation council luncheon and meeting yesterday at the Hotel Benson was a most important gathering. Heretofore these affairs had been attended by the officers and federation board members, but yesterday the meeting was open to any clubwomen interested Mrs. Sarah A. Evans pre-

Woman's day, Tuesday, at the State Fair a brilliant success.
During the past week among the principal meetings were those of the Daughters of the American Revolution on Monday and the Portland Woman's Union the same day, The Woman's Political Science Club met on Tuesday and the Coterie on Wednesday. On Thursday the Daughters of the Confederacy held a social afternoon. At all fedheld a social afternoon. At all fed-erated club meetings delegates to the state convention to be held in Eugene october 12 are being appointed.

The workers of the Neighborhood House have been busy this past week, many of them having been in attendance at their booth in the health and welfare exhibition in the Yeon building. The Council of Jewish Women will not hold a regular meeting until next month, but its labors of love never cease. The Neighborhood House conducted by this organization is one of ducted by this organization is one of the best institutions of its kind in point management, equipment and of management, equipment and efficiency in the country.

The People's Institute and the Portland Fruit and Flower Mission will both have a large share in the social work of the Fall. This is Miss Prichard's tenth anniversary season as manager of the People's Institute. The Fruit and Flower Mission will continue to maintain its day nurseries which care for the babies while the mothers are cut at work. In the evening when

In her report and suggestions relative to the appointment of a woman's auxiliary to the Rose Festival board, made yesterday before the meeting of the federation council. Ars. Bertha Taylor Vorhorst reviewed the encounters between the nominating committee and some of the delegates representing the various women's cluber of the city, the Buckman Parentresenting the various women's clubs at the time of the election of the present Festival Board.

She then referred to "What women are doing for the Panama-Pacific In-ternational Exposition." She pointed out particularly that among themselves they are raising the funds to furnish and maintain the California building. they are raising the funds to furnish and maintain the California building, of which they are to have charge, and have also assumed the responsibilities, financial and otherwise, of establishing a travelers' all bureau and have contracted for a $25,000 monument representing "The Floneer Mother," which will occupy the central position in the palace of fine arts, and which at the close of the exposition will become the property of the City of San Francisco.

Summing up the work of the woman's board, Mrs. Voorhorst read several paragraphs from official literature issued at the exposition management, She and:

One of the interesting figures at the blennial was Mrs. Clara Aldrich Cooley, wife of the late Judge Cooley, of Dubuque, Ia. She was the oldest delegate present, and 40 of her 55 years have been spent in the cause of women. She is an honorary member of the New York Scrosis, honorary vice-president of the General Federation, honorary state regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Jowa, and the president of the Monday Afternoon Club, which for 38 years has been meeting at her house, beginning to plan for the Fall work.
Only a few will meet this week, but in October all the circles will begin active work. The state convention of the Oregon Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations will be held the latter part of next month, and

One of the progressive organizations of the city, the Buckman Parent-Teacher Association, will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock. Mrs. ?.G. Nealond, president, has appointed on the committees for the year many of the prominent women of the district who will assist in the social, educational and philanthropic work. The committee list includes: which for 22 years has been meeting at her house.

I had the honor of hearing Miss Jane Addams, the woman who has taught the whole world to be kind. She said the American woman who does not withdraw herican woman who does not withdraw herican woman also women can be of more help than any one clee in assisting the helpics but wistful neighbor. She declared clubwomen are fitted by their study to understand, and are not haffled by difficulties.

We Americans, who have inherited from our grandmothers the wisdem of many kins, should help the foreign woman in her adjustment to our conditions.

The Chicago women will always have a warm spot in my heart for the unusual courtesies extended me, appreciating the fact that I was the only delegate from such a distant club, and coming so far alone, although I was not alone from the time I was given my badge until I started for home.

Summing up the work of the woman's board, Mrs. Voorhorst read several paragraphs from official literature issued at the exposition management. She said:

"The fact that women are enfranchised in California has a deep significance, and makes them a definite factor in every civic movement. When women come forward in the very first days to do their part they unconsciously brought with them civic enthusiasm and pride in their role as citizens whose opinions counted."
