FOLLOW THE CROWDS

to the greatest sale of men's high-grade Clothing, Hats, and Furnishing Goods in the history of the West. YOU must come tomorrow— (Doors Open 9 A.M.)

TO THE PEOPLE OF PORTLAND:

Accept our heart-felt thanks and gratitude for the most wondrous response we have ever known to a sale announcement.

We are in Portland to stay and will strive to repay you for your kind patronage, by continuing to give the greatest values ever known, in this great closing-out sale of the People's Clothing Company stock.

(Signed.) M. Schultz & Company Per Chas. Rafield, Mgr.

M. Schultz & Co. of Chicago Selling Out Entire Stock of

People's Clothing Company

104-106 Third St., Bet. Washington and Stark

Full Details of This Great Sale Were Given the Public in a Great Two-Page Ad in The Oregonian Last Friday

National Association of Great Men Is Cheery.

Bulletin Issued by Organization Draws Attention to Hopeful Signs in Business World and Scouts Alarms.

down occur in our credit system.

"There is no occasion for alarm, but every reason for the exercise of steadiness and co-operation. We are to meet successfully all situations arising from the regrettable conflict abroad and maintain the integrity and stability of the National Association of the National Asso

TIMES FOUND GOOD and the elimination of an immediate market here for our securities held abroad was timely, and we have every reason to believe reason to believe, based upon unim-peachable information, that these ex-changes will remain closed so long as our gold stock may be menaced by threatened selling orders from abroad.

chandise and securities purchased by us, there is at present a movement of grain, canned goods, coal and other commodities to Europe. "This is the time, above all times, and manufacturer and manufacturer of that name and scored a great perceived by credit officers in nearly all Portland commercial institutions yesterday.

"It is natural," says the bulletin, "to compare signs and tendencies now prevalent to our commerce with conditions that existed in 1907 and just prior thereto.

Men consists of about 20,000 members throughout the receipt of this number of persons, whose influence extends into alternative to the compare signs and tendencies now prevalent to our commerce with conditions that existed in 1907 and just prior thereto.

Men consists of about 20,000 members throughout the receipt of this number of persons, whose influence extends into alternative to the conditions that existed in 1907 and just prior thereto.

Men consists of about 20,000 members throughout the receipt of this number of persons, whose influence extends into alternative to the country, and the receipt of this number of persons, whose influence extends into alternative to the country, and the receipt of this number of persons, whose influence extends into alternative to the country, and the receipt of this number of persons, whose influence extends into alternative to the country, and the receipt of this number of persons, whose influence extends into alternative to the country, and the receipt of this number of persons, whose influence extends into alternative to the country, and the receipt of this number of persons, whose influence extends into alternative to the country, and the receipt of this number of persons, whose influence extends into alternative to the country, and the receipt of this number of persons, whose influence extends into alternative to the country, and the receipt of this number of persons, whose influence extends into alternative to the country, and the receipt of the country, and the receipt of this number of persons, whose influence extends into alternative to the country, and the receipt of the country to the country the country that extends in the country that the country the country the country that the country that the country that the countr

Kaffe Klatsch to Be Given.

"The strain of 1907 repeated the history of every serious financial panic in our Nation's commerce by following a period of unwise credit extension and the inflation of certain commodities beyond a safe point or a reasonable value. There has been no such period of extension and inflation since 1907, therefore one of the fundamental causes of extension or panic is not to be reck-oned with in the present situation.

"The closing of the stock exchanges"

The ladies' auxiliary of the German Red Cross Society will give a Kaffee Klatsch Thursday from 2 to 5 P. M. Murray, of the Seventh Hussars. So great has been the success of this clever little actress in America that she makes her permanent home on this side of the water.

Will be hostess and Theodore Kruse of the German Red Cross work in Oregon, although inaugurated only a short time ago has resulted in more than $8000 being raised.

Dr. Emil Enna gave an enjoyable piano recital at the Behnke-Walker The ladies' auxiliary of the German

MISS MURRAY'S CAREER ON STAGE BEGUN AT 12

tain Blair Murray, but She Makes Home in United States.

ARJORIE MURRAY, the clever , . TIDINGS SENT BROADCAST

TIDINGS SENT BROADCAST

This is the time, above all times, when one should not endeavor to throw the burden upon someone else, to speculate upon a probable rise in values or to be in any wise selfish or uncothe Hellig Theater all this week, has "The retailer must recognize the de- spent practically her entire life on the pendence of the wholesaler or manu-facturer upon his redemption of obli-gation; and thus between wholesaler est co-operation and a division of the burdens, so that it may be safely carried, and no disturbance or breaking down occur in our credit system.

There is no consider for glarm, but

Miss Murray comes of a military fam-

Kay in play of that name which opens at Heilig tonight.

Business College last Friday morning, playing five numbers so ably that he won rounds of applause. The Behnke-Walker girls' quartet sang three num-Dr. Emil Enna gave an enjoyable bers in admirable style, and Miss Ripley piane recital at the Behnke-Walker gave excellent vocal selections.

Dimes to Aid Work of Albertina Nursery Home.

MAYOR INDORSES EVENT

Louise Home, Institution That Takes Care of Unfortunate Girls, to Share in Benefits-Sum Needed Is $3000.

Volunteers wanted!

The date for mobilization is October The place is the city of Portland. babies being carried on by the Albertina Kerr Nursery Home.

bertina Kerr Nursery Home.

"Tag Day" is the name of the day, and everyone in the city is earnestly requested to come to the front with a dime and buy a tag, which will be on sale by a score of women in the department stores, hotel lobbles and on the streets.

Each little dime will mean better.

R. Merrick, Alexander C. Rae and Hamilton Johnstone. The services at the crematorium were private.

Mr. Heusner, who was prominently identified with many public enterprises during his residence in Portland, was partment stores, hotel lobbles and on the streets.

Each little dime will mean better.

Each little dime will mean better ner, survive.

her baby. Mayor Albee has indorsed the tag day Mayor Albee has indorsed the tag day and a dozen prominent men have signified their intention to assist. Three thousand dollars is needed to pay the bills. Dr. Samuel A. Brown is treasurer of the institution and the Rev. J. E. Snyder is auditor. George A. Thacher has charge of the tag sale. Miss Leonora Bennett is matron and Miss Emma Levett is superintendent of the nursery and the Louise Home. The tributed to the destitute condition of Effect of Canal Not Known Definitely, the inmates are taken in hand.

The Louise Home will share with the nursery in the tag day benefit. E. C. Jehu is chairman of the committee of

J. A. HEUSNER AT REST is maintaining its normal volume," Many Are Present at Funeral Services of Business Man.

The tuneral of John A. Heusner, president of the Royal Bakery & Confectionery Company, who died suddenly last Monday, was held at Holman's chapel yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Many attended the services. In the sermon Dr. Luther R. Dyott paid an impressive tribute to the late Mr. Heus-

impressive tribute to the late Mr. Heus-ner. Mrs. Delphine Marx sang.

The palibearers were: Whitney L. Boise, H. L. Hamblett, George Hall, Warren Keeler, Charles L. Mastick, L. R. Merrick, Alexander C. Rae and Ham-ther Johnstone. The services at the

CARD OF THANKS.

Bargains-Many Are Hidden From View by Arcade Front

So Carriers Make No Move to Meet Conditions,

"In spite of the war, freight traffic the Union Pacific system, who was in Portland Monday, after an inspection trip over part of the O.-W. R. & N territory in the three Northwestern

"Passenger traffic alone is failing to hold up. That probably is because peo-ple can get along with less travel, and when there is danger of depression when there is danger of depression they stay at home.

"This European war has frightened a lot of people, and they are retrenching. Travel is one of the first items of expense that people usually eliminate. If the war should end soon, I believe the volume of travel would return to the normal."

Mr. Winchell, who has traveled through the wheat and fruit belts of through the wheat and fruit belts of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, says that farmers are moving their grain in about the same proportions as last year. There is a disposition on the part of some to wait for even higher prices, but this is offset by the shipments of those growers who contracted for the sale of their crops before the era of high prices set in.

"It is too hard to tell what will be the effect of the Panama Canal on the railroad business," he said. "It is true that we are feeling the effects, but we are unable now to analyze them. We don't know what commodities are most affected and what districts are affected.

"Not knowing these details, it is impossible for the carriers to determine what course they must take to meet those conditions."

TO INITIATE CLASS OF CANDIDATES. AND WHO WERE ENTERTAINED BY PORTLAND LODGEMEN

ILLUSTRIOUS POTENTATE OF AL KADER TEMPLE, STANDING NEXT TO MR. SMITH AND PARTY OF VISITING AND LOCAL SHRINERS.

-Photo by Weister Company