A delightful card party was given by Miss Alta Clark Thursday afternoon, complimenting Miss Harriet Spencer, the charming niece of Mrs. Walter Seward, whose marriage to Warren Smith will be celebrated Wednesday. The rooms were decorated with Autumn leaves, ferns and dahlias. Miss Myrtle Gram won high scores and Miss Spencer was the recipient of a guest prize. The list of invitations included Harriet Spencer, Miss Sadie Banfield, Miss Tirzah McMillan, Miss Myrtle Brix, Mrs. Mason Wittenberg, Miss Mildred Camp, Miss Verna Barker, Miss Vida Povey, Miss Frances Tallmadge, Miss Ruth Hill, Miss Myrtle Gram and Misses Myrtle and Alice Gram.

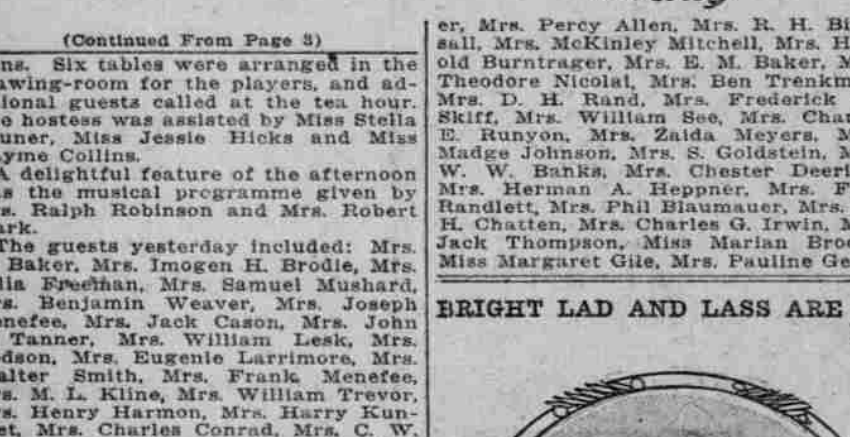

Miss Anglevone Turner, of Seattle, and Ellsworth Vadel Vachon, of this city, were married quietly Tuesday morning at 8:45 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Turner, Rev. Sydney James officiating. Only relatives were present at the ceremony.

The bride wore a smart traveling suit of blue silk, a purple hat trimmed with ostrich pompons, a corsage of lilacs of the valley and orchids complementing her costume. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, covers being laid for eight.

Mr. and Mrs. Vachon left immediately for California, and will be at the Trinity Place Apartments, in this city. The engagement of the young people was announced recently and the wedding was to have been a large affair of mid-winter.

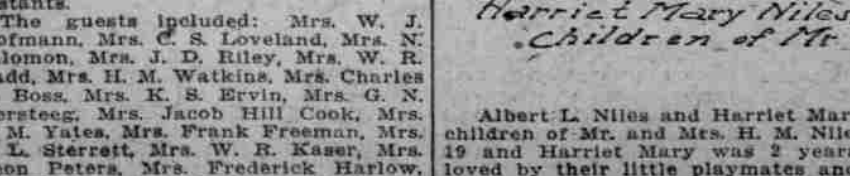

The bride visited here several months ago, and was popular in the younger set. She is a graduate of the National Park Seminary, Washington, D. C., and later traveled abroad for a year. Mr. Vachon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Z. V. Vachon, of Bellingham, Wash., and has been a resident of this city for about a year, formerly living in Seattle. He is a graduate of the University of Washington, a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

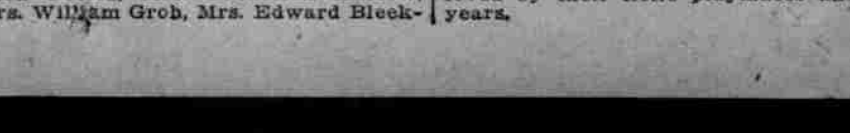

The series of dinner dances at the Commercial Club of which last Wednesday's was the second, are growing steadily in popularity. The success of these affairs is due largely to the untiring efforts of W. J. Hofmann, who is chairman of the house committee, under whose direction the dances are given.

An opening meeting of the Waverly-Richmond Literary Club was held at the home of Miss Juell Reynolds Wednesday evening. A large attendance was present and the study for the winter planned.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Margaret C. C. Duffy, when the "Rhubarb" of Omar Khayyam" will be read and discussed.

Miss Melba Reagan also entertained in honor of Miss Grace Boorem with a luncheon and shower on Monday. She was assisted by Miss Gladys Beeson. Those present were Misses Grace Boorem, Olive Nepple, Hazel Bradford, Myrtle Bearinger, Mabel Smith, Marguerite Reagan, Beatrice Lockwood, Gladys Beeson and Melba Reagan.

Mrs. George Bell, Jr., wife of General Bell, was guest of honor at a luncheon given by Mrs. John H. Page, Jr., at her quarters Thursday at 1:30 o'clock. The color scheme was pink, Killarney roses being used with artistic effect in the decorations. The other guests enjoying Mrs. Page's hospitality were Miss Bell, a sister of General Bell, who is visiting here from Washington, D. C., Mrs. Davis, Mrs. George S. Young, Mrs. J. C. Gifford of Philadelphia, Mrs. Adrian S. Fleming, Mrs. Walter O. Boswell and her guest, Miss Smith, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Special services will be held October 4, in the post assembly hall, in compliance with President Wilson's proclamation designating this day "Peace Day."

BEAUTIFUL BABY WHO IS SOON TO ENTER PRIZE CONTEST. Carl Gard Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Fulton, of Cecil, Or., are the proud and happy parents of this handsome baby boy, whose name is Carl Gard. They will be pleased, perfectly well and sunny natured. His parents are planning to enter him in the next baby show. He, with his mother, recently has visited relatives in this city.

His parents are planning to enter him in the next baby show. He, with his mother, recently has visited relatives in this city.

Chaplain James Ossewaarde will deliver the address and there will be special music. To see hundreds of soldiers praying and working for peace will be an unusual and inspiring sight. An elaborate programme is being arranged for the day's service.

Mrs. A. Ebert, mother of Colonel Ebert, in charge of the Medical Corps of the Western Department, returned to her home in Vancouver Wednesday after a visit to her son, Lieutenant Ebert, in charge of the Quarantine station at Astoria. Though nearly 88 years old, Mrs. Ebert made the trip well. She was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Lucy Ebert.

A number of officers and ladies attended during the week the tennis matches being held at the Irvington Club. Lieutenant James M. Holsatt, Jr., and Lieutenant Bernard Lentz, of the post, were among the players making a good showing.

First Lieutenant James B. Woolnough, who has been military instructor of the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, and Mrs. Woolnough and two children will arrive here Sunday night for station with the Twenty-first Infantry.

Mrs. William H. Gill entertained at tea Wednesday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. J. C. Grady, of Philadelphia, who is visiting in the post.

Miss Bell, a sister of General Bell, is visiting him, from Washington, D. C.

Major Jere B. Clayton and Mrs. Clayton are packing their household effects, preparing to leave for San Antonio, at once.

Lieutenant Gilbert Van B. Wilkes, of Company F, Engineers, and family, will leave for San Francisco October 2, from which port they will sail for Manila, going on the Government transport Sherman.

Lieutenant Charles J. Taylor, of Company F, Engineers, and Mrs. Taylor, left Friday for San Francisco, sailing from there September 29 on the Government transport Sheridan, for Manila.

The Oregon Chapter of Delta Sigma Phi Legal Fraternity University of Oregon Law Department held its annual installation of officers for the coming year and also exemplified its ritual at the quarters of the fraternity on Harrison street. The following officers were installed: Chancellor, John Dwyer; vice-chancellor, Blaine E. Coles; scribe, W. J. McKello; master of the exchequer, R. J. Lincoln; hallif, Charles Coston; master of ceremonies, Blaine E. Coles. Two new members were added to the charter rolls. After the ritual a light luncheon was served. The fraternity is the largest and most exclusive in the school. They have maintained quarters in a palatial five-room house on the banks of the upper river, and they contemplate moving into a seven-room bungalow in Ladd's Addition where all the doings of the fraternity will be held in the future.

A surprise party was given Tuesday in honor of Miss Grace Boorem at the home of her cousin, Mrs. E. N. Haupt, with whom she has been visiting for a year. Warner Fashions tell the Story. Watch our ads—they will always be illustrated up-to-the-minute.

Warner Opening starts the fashion ball rolling—the corset is the beginning. When you see a Warner announcement or our announcement, you may assuredly know that dress fashions are established for the season, because Corset Fashion has been created by Warner.

This Week we are introducing these new figure-creating, health-preserving corsets—Warner's Rust-Proof Corsets

No better corset in fashion or stability—foremost in style—Authoritative. You will need a "new style" this Fall. No matter how well pleased you are with your corset, a slight change in line only and some curve are necessary; Warner's have the line and curve. Warner's Corset made to shape fashionably, fit comfortably, not to rust, break or tear, and to wear as long as you want it to. It wears out with wear—hard wear; does not give out or split out and it holds its shape until the very last day of wear.

A most delightful social event of the week at Lents was the silver tea given by Mrs. Arthur Geisler and Mrs. Sam Allen at the home of Mrs. Geisler, on Main street, Wednesday afternoon, for the benefit of St. Paul's Episcopal Church. The rooms were beautifully decorated with Autumn leaves and asters. An excellent programme was rendered, consisting of piano solos by Mrs. E. Doran, organist of St. Paul's Church, and Mrs. Leo Katsky. Readings and vocal selections by Miss Aileen Brong and friend were followed by a most interesting lecture on Bishop Rowe's work in Alaska, by Mrs. Erickson, and remarks by Rev. Taylor on the rapid growth of St. Paul's mission. Refreshments were served to more than 60 guests.

An interesting affair was given by Miss Frances Tallmadge in honor of the J. U. G. Club. The house was decorated in pink roses and club colors—brown and gold. The guests enjoyed "five hundred," a hand-painted picture being won by Miss Alta Inman. Those present were: Misses Gladys

Morgan, Tirzah McMullen, Serita Lind, Helen Zimmerman, Esther Rudeen, Magdelle Holmes, Annabelle Crawford, Lucille Sievers, Hilma Fox, Agnes Torgler, Gladys Scarth, Alta Inman, Ruth Walter, Myrtle Brix, Agot Lassen, Nellie Depp, Mary McDonnell and Inoue Seton.

After refreshments musical selections and dramatic readings were given.

Eureka Council, No. 204, Knights and Ladies of Security, held their open meeting to inaugurate the Winter campaign for 2000 members, last Monday night at East Sixth and East Alder streets. These meetings will be held the third Monday of the month throughout the winter.

Mrs. Gertrude Wagner played a piano solo; Mrs. Maude Johnson gave a recitation and H. Cooley was heard in a vocal solo. The Misses Warren, the Ladies' Quartet, gave musical numbers. D. L. Povey, president, spoke in the place of Dr. Higge, president-elect.

The Wednesday afternoon "Five Hundred" Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. J. C. Albright, 354 East Forty-seventh street, September 16. Honors were awarded Mrs. Charles Rann and Mrs. Cora McBride. Other guests were Mrs. Fred Hohanselt, Mrs. H. Pierce, Mrs. Charles Schneider, Jr., Mrs. Young, Mrs. David Wendick, Mrs. Hood, Mrs. Fred Stipe and Mrs. W. E. Greene. Mrs. Greene will be the hostess at her residence, 1228 Denver avenue, Wednesday afternoon, September 29.

MRS. ERVIN G. LEIBY AND VIRGINIA AND WILLARD. Mrs. Ervin G. Leiby, of 325 Grand avenue, is proud of her two children, Willard and Virginia. The former is 8 years and is a bright pupil attending the Holladay School. Virginia is only 1 year old. She is one of the high score babies recently tested at the Parents' Educational Bureau, conducted by the Oregon Congress of Mothers. Virginia has been chosen as one of the babies to enter the Temple of Childhood in the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

BRIGHT LAD AND LASS ARE CHILDREN OF MR. AND MRS. H. M. NILES.

—Marcel photos.

Albert L. Niles and Harriet Mary Niles are the two bright and attractive children of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Niles. Albert will be 5 years old November 19 and Harriet Mary was 2 years old September 27. Both children are beloved by their little playmates and are exceptionally well advanced for their years.

tures of Bachelor Bill" which will begin Wednesday evening, September 30, at Christensen's hall, under the auspices of the Bachelor Buttons Club, will no doubt become one of the most popular events among the better dancers of the city. The committee in charge of these events consists of five of the most popular young women in the city, selected especially for the occasion from five prominent organizations. They are Miss Thelma Hollingsworth, Miss Hazel Mann, Miss F. Ethel Hart, Mrs. Harry E. Bennett and Miss Berdie Waldt.

There will be a series of 12 dancing parties held Wednesday evenings at Christensen's hall, known as a "prize waltzing contest," and at each party five couples will be selected by the committee in charge who will have the privilege of competing in the final grand waltzing contest which will be given Wednesday evening, December 23. The final award of honors, gold medals and grand prizes will be made by a number of the most prominent business men in the city, who have been selected especially for their fairness and ability.

These tournaments are creating much interest throughout the dancing circles of the Eastern cities and are proving a great stimulus for better dancing. The patronesses and judges for this tournament will be announced at a later date.

The "Carnival in Fairyland" which will take place in the Columbian rooms on the evenings of October 6, 7 and 8, for the benefit of the Immaculate Heart Parish, promises to be one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season. The committees in charge are taking a keen interest and all are working hard to make it a success both socially and financially.

The club rooms are being decorated elaborately for the occasion, and it is only fair to say that, upon entering, one will be led to believe that they are really in a garden of roses.

The committee in charge of decorations, with the kind assistance of Mrs. Walsh, who is furnishing the myriads of lights, have spared nothing to make it the most beautiful setting ever displayed in the club. Muehler's Orchestrans will furnish music every evening during the carnival.

The programme for Tuesday night will be opened by a prologue composed by Father Francis Black and recited by Miss Agnes Sullivan, accompanied on the violin by Miss Julia Burke. A basket social will take place, prizes being auctioned by Andy Weinberger, assisted by T. J. Murphy. Prizes will be given for the three prettiest baskets, the judges to be Mrs. P. Douglas of Saint Patrick's parish; Mrs. C. Mayer of Saint Francis; Mrs. Jenkinson of Holy Redeemer; Mrs. C. T. Smith, of the Blessed Sacrament parish, and Mrs. R. A. Kirk, of Saint Andrews.

On Wednesday evening a costume ball will be the feature of entertainment, preceded by an elaborate programme under the direction of Mrs. Covach-Fredrick, Miss Ethel Mahoney and Miss Irene Kirby.

Thursday evening will be the carnival proper. A confection battle will be the chief feature of the evening, followed by dancing and various other amusements.

The Arcadians, formerly known as the Maxilians, one of the most popular of last season's social organizations, has issued invitations for the initial Bad Complexions Peeled Off at Home. The girl with the poor complexion complains, "I have to touch up my cheeks I am so pale, and only my makeup saves me." Now, as a matter of fact, more women spoil their good looks than improve them with cosmetics. The practice certainly is unnecessary, now that the virtues of the Blended Sacrament paraffin wax has been found that the skin is wonderfully absorbent power. It causes the faded or discolored scarf skin to flake off in minute, almost invisible particles, so gently, gradually, as to cause no inconvenience at all. This was the first complexion actually removed—likewise all fine lines, freckles, pimples, blotches, moths patches and other surface defects. A new complexion appears—a clear, smooth, youthful healthy-hued skin, such as no paint, powder or lotion can produce. Mercolized wax, to be had at any drug store in convenient size packages, is applied like cold cream.—Adv.
