

The Garment of the Hour --the Balmacaan

This store shows the largest stock of Balmacaans in the city.
This store sells more Balmacaans than any other store in the city.
This store has a greater exhibit of exclusive fabrics than any other store in the city.
This store sells Balmacaans at more attractive prices than any other store in the city.

Imported fleeces, Scottish tweeds, Irish and English fabrics, American weaves—wondrous in their harmonious color blendings.

For Women and Misses, $10 to $50

BEN SELLING

Morrison at Fourth Street
A Shop for Gentlewomen

The entire third floor—elevator

Miss Roberta Daniels, who is being entertained

Miss Edith Warner was hostess at a farewell party on Saturday evening in honor of Miss Juanita Evans, who leaves this week to pass the winter in California. The Warner home was decorated prettily for the occasion. The guests were entertained with music, dancing and games and a dainty supper was served. Those present were: Misses Juanita Evans, Estella Monroe, Dorothy Brannell, Mae Monroe and the hostess and Messrs. Tod McBride, Anderson, Lyle, Fred Brannell, Robert Drear and Clyde Hoyt.

Mrs. E. Woertendyke was given a surprise party at her home, 70 North Fourteenth street, on the evening of September 29 by a few friends. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Day, Mr. and Mrs. C. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. W. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Spitzberger, Mr. and Mrs. J. Garver, Mrs. Boyd, Miss R. Waer, Miss A. Woertendyke, Miss Spitzberger, Mr. Irwin, Mr. Kirkpatrick, William Gesling, Carl Wagner and Albert Woertendyke. Music and recitations were the programme of the evening.

The Old People's Home was the scene of a charming children's party Saturday afternoon. The guests were Misses Lett, The little guests, Misses Serene Olson, Elizabeth and Margaret Anderson, Catherine, Annie and Ellen Henson were invited to bring their dolls. On account of the stormy weather, the original plan of entertaining the children on the lawn had to be abandoned and instead they played games and enjoyed refreshments in one of the sun parlors. A merry time was enjoyed by all.

Miss Myrtle Lesher entertained with a party on Wednesday evening at her home on Market street. After an enjoyable evening refreshments were served. Those who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Egan, Mrs. Belle Magraw, Mrs. Lenora McWaters, Mrs. Edna Dine, Alice Hogg, Ella Price, Alice Walker, Hazel Lesher, Miss Wallace, Miss Peterson, Nona Dine, Mrs. Brantland, Emory Lesher, Charles Fossler, Richardson, Ray Lesher, Frank Grabler, Frank Lesher and Ralph Hooper.

The Kewpie Club announces to its members and their friends that they will give a special dance next Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. E. H. Bennett, East Sixth and Alder streets. Ten dollars in gold will be given as door prizes. There will be a special featured programme, including popular selection of the latest music by the club orchestra. The committee includes Mr. Joseph Robert, Miss Edna Dine, Mrs. Brantland, Durbin, Mr. William Chopin and Mr. Charles H. Bennett.

Mrs. William Alexander, wife of Dr. Alexander, of Seattle, and her mother, Mrs. Powers, returned home this week after several weeks' visit in Portland. They were here to spend a few days with a number of delightful guests at a luncheon given by Mrs. G. McPherson.

A delightful affair of Tuesday was the luncheon party given by Mrs. Einar Jorgensen in honor of Miss Belle Brown from Apt. Scotland. Covers were laid for Miss Brown, Mrs. James Troy, Miss Tucson Troy, Miss May Troy, Mrs. William Brundell, Miss Nellie Williams and the hostess.

Mrs. Geo. Kieck, who entertained for Miss Daniels lar each week and a good time is always assured the members and their friends. On the committee are William Magison, Walter Magison, Edward Mader and Mrs. Birdie Magison. The patronesses are: Mrs. P. M. Brutis, Mrs. N. Bishop, Mrs. A. Raymond and Mrs. E. J. Harrington. Invitations have been issued for the big October dancing party of the Rozalia Girls for Monday evening, October 12, at Cottillon hall. Some innovations will be beautiful music, novel electrical effects and a carefully selected programme of the latest Eastern dance hits; the latest song hits will be rendered by one of Portland's popular vocalists, Misses Lucille and Rozalia. The girls are Misses Lucille Burt, Rose Goddard, Argyle Abbott, Bula Van Horn, Laura Peterson and Cora Walker. The patronesses of the evening will be Mrs. H. P. Love, Mrs. E. B. Burt, Mrs. T. H. Cook and Mrs. Carl Evans.

A committee meeting was held during the week by the Wells-Fargo employees to make preparations for their fifth annual ball, which will be given at Cottillon Hall Friday evening, November 6. The committee on arrangements will spare nothing to make this the largest and most novel ball ever given in Portland. Many special features are already completed and the affair is to be elaborate in every detail. The committee will be announced later. Saturday evening members of the Cottillon Club will enjoy another jolly dancing party at Cottillon Hall. Select programme, popular music and a merry crowd make these parties most pleasant ones.

the committees are: Dr. C. R. Walker, Francis Magill, Isetta Martin, Grace Powell, Stanley Haselett and Hattie Tryon. The patronesses are: Mrs. E. E. Jones, Mrs. Monroe, Mrs. Ringler and Mrs. Oscar Ward. Invitations have been sent out by Branch No. 52, National Association of Letter Carriers, to its members and their families and the Postoffice officials to another social to be given in the Masonic Temple, fifth floor, West Park and Yamhill streets, Tuesday evening, October 6, at 8:30 P. M. The committee, the members of which are E. P. Boland, W. Young, Claude Spencer, A. E. Gardner and W. J. McGinnis, has secured some of the best talent in the city. The guests

Clubdom will no doubt be pleased to learn that the Portland Rowing Club will have another series of dances this season. They will be held at the Christensen Hall and the committee will consist of Arthur A. Allen, Jacques Leiz, Fred R. Newell, Edward C. Sammons and George M. Faber. The first of the parties will be held Tuesday, October 13, and the others will follow on November 10, December 8, January 26 and April 13. The annual formal ball will probably be held Thursday, January 7.

The Satellites, Order Eastern Star, will give a dancing party at the Masonic Temple, October 22. The committee in charge is: Lena Craddock, Alta Ring, Irene Settemler, Roxanna Wommelsdorf, Blanche Hershner, Annie Young, Frances Hurlburt, Eloise Cluse, Edith Lewis, Rodney Hurlburt, Ralph Schomp and Dr. James. The patronesses will be Mrs. H. H. Young, Mrs. A. O. Sinks, Mrs. E. W. Ring, Mrs. T. L. Rice and Mrs. H. A. Smith. The club will give dances December 3 and January 14.

The Utopia Rebekah Lodge, Independent Order of Oddfellows, will give the first of its series of Fall and Winter parties on Thursday evening, October 8, at Orient Hall, East Sixth and East Alder streets. The programme includes cards and dancing. The committee in charge of the arrangements is: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Swan, Matthew Steele, Emma Bonadurer, Abraham Nelson.

Eureka Council, No. 204, Knights and Ladies of Security, will hold an at home meeting Monday evening, October 5, at 214 East Third street. The programme will be: Mrs. W. J. Clarke, Mrs. William R. Jenkinson, Mrs. G. G. Bailey and Mrs. William J. McGinn. An unusual amount of interest is being shown in this affair.

St. David's Episcopal Church Guild will hold its annual bazaar, December 2 and 3 at the parish house. Preparations are now being made for the event, and orders are being taken by the linen committee for marking linens. Mrs. J. M. Graham, of 246 East Twentieth street south, is chairman of the committee, and the other members are Mrs. Miles Bell, Mrs. James Muckie and Mrs. George H. Goodall. The rug table is in charge of Mrs. S. E. Joseph, kitchen articles, boxes, regalia: Hastings; linens, Mrs. Solomon Hollister; fancy articles, Mrs. E. W. Matthews, and dolls, which will be the prize winners at Moler & Frank's recent doll show, Mrs. E. T. Hughes; aprons, Mrs. Albert Bert.

Next Wednesday evening at Christensen's Hall the second dance of the grand prize waltzing tournament will be given by the following committee, under the auspices of the Bachelor Buttons Club: Miss Hazel Mann, Miss F. Ethel Hart, Miss Thelma Hollingsworth, Miss Arline Bates and Mrs. Harry E. Bennett. The following were selected by this committee as being on record to compete for the grand prize and awards on December 23: Miss M. Leary, L. E. Coleman, Mrs. F. P. Boody, J. R. Dickson, Miss Gertrude Hoerber, E. H. Davis, Miss Mabel Brantland, J. C. Tingley, Miss C. Wantock and W. Strange.

The girls of the Cadet Club of Oregon Assembly No. 1, United Artisans, wish to announce their opening dance to be held in the Selling-Hirsch Hall on Thursday evening, October 8.

The Irvington Monday Night Dancing Club, under the direction of Miss Buckenmeyer, will hold the first meeting of the series on the evening of October 2 at the Irvington Club.

A business meeting of the women's department of the Rose City Park Club will be held tomorrow at 2 P. M. Auction bridge will be played after the business meeting.

The O. E. S. Club is making preparations for their opening dancing party, to be given at the Masonic Temple Monday, October 26. Invitations will be issued later.

Saint Ann's Charitable Society will hold its regular monthly meeting Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. T. J. Seufert, 708 Brance street.

Mrs. Clyde B. Atchison will entertain the Portia Club Tuesday, October 6.

WEDDINGS. Montgomery-Hickey. Miss Ina Elizabeth Hickey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hickey, was married to Robert Arthur Montgomery, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Montgomery, at her home Wednesday evening at 3 o'clock.

The couple were attended by Miss Edna Joan Nixon and Roy Hickey, brother of the bride. The ceremony was rendered by Miss Myrtle Swearingen. Miss Frances Keating with songs and Miss Georgia Chapman with readings entertained the guests after the ceremony. The house was effectively decorated with Autumn leaves and asters. The bride was gowned in white crepe de chine, draped with chiffon. Her veil was arranged in a cap effect, with a wreath of orange blossoms. The bridesmaid was charming in white silk, embellished with Oriental lace, relieved with a touch of yellow. Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery will be at home in their bungalow on Hawthorne avenue after their return from a trip to British Columbia.

Svenson-Van Deusen. The First Presbyterian Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Tuesday evening, when Mrs. Maude Van Deusen was married to Winford A. Svenson, of St. Paul, Minn.

Mrs. W. A. Vicker sang and as Lohengrin and Mrs. Svenson left immediately for St. Paul. Mrs. Svenson is a woman of charming personality and during her residence in Portland has been active in musical and club circles, having just resigned the presidency of the Terwilliger Parent-Teacher Association.

Williams-King. Lewis D. Williams, Jr., of Astoria, Or., and Miss Elaine King, of Oregon City, were married at high noon Wednesday in the Episcopal Church in Oregon City, Rev. C. W. Robinson officiating.

The wedding was a simple affair; the only attendants being Rees B. Williams, brother of the bridegroom, and Miss Wynne Hanny, of Oregon City. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. King, a pioneer family of Oregon. She is a very popular and accomplished young woman, and has a wide circle of friends. Mr. Williams is the son of L. D. Williams, a prominent business man of Ilwaco, Wash., and is a graduate of the Portland Academy and the University of Washington.

He is a member of both the Phi Delta Kappa and Sigma Nu fraternities. Mr. Williams is assistant engineer on the sea wall now building at Astoria, where the young couple will be at home after a two weeks' trip.

Glasco-Jacobson. Rev. Alfred Rates officiated at the wedding of Haakon Glasco and Miss Emma Jacobson on Monday evening at 227 1/2 Larstons street. Miss Hilma Jacobson was bridesmaid and Ole Kvinge was best man. After the wedding a delicious wedding dinner was served.

Van Fleet-Buckus. A pretty home wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening, September 30, when Miss Marguerite Buckus and Luther W. Van Fleet were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. S. Buckus, at 675 East Alder street. The bride wore a charming gown of ivory silk, trimmed with net and Spanish lace. Her sister, Miss Minna Buckus, was bridesmaid and Louis Schaefer acted as best man, while the wedding march was played by Mrs. W. F. Buckus. A large number of friends attended the reception later in the evening.

Postnot-Miller. BAKER, Or., Oct. 3.—(Special).—Edward C. Postnot, of Salem, took as his bride Mrs. Emma Miles, of this city, Wednesday evening. They were married at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. D. W. Youkam. They will make their home in Salem.

Wilcox-Jensen. Lloyd A. Wilcox and Miss Florence Jensen were married last Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Nelson, 213 Smith avenue, St. Johns. Mr. Wilcox is a prosperous rancher of Grass Valley, Or., and Miss Jensen has been a teacher in the public schools of Wasco County for several years. The marriage was performed by Rev. J. Allen Leas, of St. James' English Lutheran Church.

ANNOUNCEMENTS. Mr. and Mrs. U. Sheldon Attix are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of their second baby boy on October 2. The parents, former residents of Portland, are at present residing in Salem.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS. Miss Buckenmeyer is now forming dancing classes. Hair and Half and other late Castle dances taught. Marshall 1734, A. 7254.—Adv.

Mrs. M. Young can accommodate a few more young ladies in dancing class now forming. Phone East 3119.—Adv.

Mademoiselle Marie Louise Alexandre will accept pupils for French. Call or write care Portland Hotel.—Adv.

The Gilbert-Murray School of Music and Acting (formerly Northwestern Conservatory), 409 Stearns Building, are offering special courses in acting, singing, violin, piano, stage and modern ballroom dancing. The art of making-up characters taught.—Adv.

Mrs. Mary Etta Chamberlain has opened her music studio at 614-615 Columbia bldg.—Adv.

SOCIETY PERSONALS. Otto G. Ambrosius, who resided at 388 East Forty-first street, has left for Alaska, to be gone about two years.

Mrs. L. F. Chemin and Miss Julia Chemin have returned from North Apartments for the Winter.

Mademoiselle Marie Louise Alexandre recently arrived from France and has

COUPLE FROM THE DALLES WHO WERE MARRIED IN PORTLAND RECENTLY.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN E. BUNN. Miss Mabel Wallace and John E. Bunn, of The Dalles, were married in Portland September 27, at the residence of Rev. Delmer H. Trimble, of Centenary Church. Miss Wallace was attended by Miss Clara Kilndt, of The Dalles, and Robert Jackson, of Portland, was best man. The bride wore a white crepe de chine gown and carried a bouquet of pale pink carnations. The bridesmaid was dressed in a pale blue crepe de chine gown. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of Mrs. Robert Jackson. The couple left on a wedding trip to San Francisco, and after October 6 they will be at home at The Dalles.

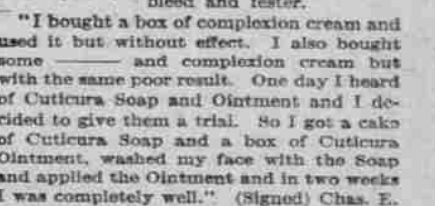

PORTLAND WOMEN WHO RECENTLY RETURNED FROM A MOST INTERESTING TRIP ABROAD.

Mrs. S. Beckus and Miss L. Beckus. Mrs. S. Beckus and Miss L. Beckus returned from a most interesting trip abroad. Mrs. Beckus was accompanied by her sister, Miss Beckus, and they spent several weeks in Europe. They returned with many interesting stories and photographs of their trip.

COMPLEXION RUINED BY PIMPLES

Itched and Burned Badly. Also Had Blackheads. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In Two Weeks Completely Well.

"I bought a box of complexion cream and used it but without effect. I also bought some hair and complexion cream but with the same poor result. One day I heard of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I decided to give them a trial. No! I got a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment, washed my face with the Soap and applied the Ointment and in two weeks I was completely well." (Signed) Chas. E. McGinn, May 5, 1914.

How To Make the Quickest, Simplest Cough Remedy

Much Better than the Ready-Made Kind and Yon Save 5¢. Fully Guaranteed.

This home-made cough syrup is now used in more homes than any other cough remedy. Its promptness, ease and certainty in conquering dry, hacking, chest and throat colds, is really remarkable. You can actually feel it take hold. A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough—relieves even whooping cough quickly. Splendid, too, for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

Get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour it in a pint bottle and fill with plain granulated sugar syrup. This gives you a cost of only 64 cents—a full pint of better cough syrup than you could buy for $2.50. Takes but a few minutes to prepare. Full directions with Pinex. Tastes good and never spoils.

You will be pleasantly surprised how quickly it loosens dry, hoarse or tight coughs, and heals the inflamed membranes in a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in quaiacal, which is of healing to the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, be sure and ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces Pinex," and don't accept anything else.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.