Interstate bridge bond committee and the Bridge Commission will be advised to issue securities to the amount of $125,000 upon which the bidders will be invited to name the interest rate. An effort will be made to hold a meeting of the Oregon Interstate Bridge Commission today to act upon the suggestion of the bond committee. District Attorney Walter H. Evans, Henry Teal and Charles K. Williams make up the bond committee, which acts in an advisory capacity to the Bridge Commission. It was recom-mended to advertise for bids, to be opened November 1.

10,000 BOOKLETS READY

Ad Club to Distribute Copies of A. L. Mills' "Prosperity Speech."

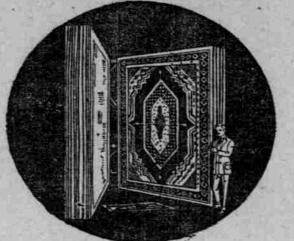

Ten thousand copies of A. L. Mills' "prosperity speech," which was de-livered before the retail merchants of Oregon during the recent Buyers' week, have been secured by the Portland Ad Club, and will be distributed widely. The speech was deemed so timely a review of the financial and commercial situation by the United States Senate, that it was ordered printed as a public document, and the Ad Club secured the copies from the Oregon Senator. Copies will be sent to the Commer-cial Club, Chamber of Commerce and other organizations in large quantities by the Ad Club and they will assist in the distribution of the speech among the citizens of Portland. Copies may be secured by application to the Ad Club or to any of the clubs to which it has sent copies.
