CLUBWOMEN PREPARE FOR MEETING OF STATE FEDERATION IN EUGENE

Delegates and Alternates Will Be Provided With Rooms and Breakfast-Several Bills to Come Before Next Legislature Will Be Among Subjects for Consideration of Convention.

BY EDITH KNIGHT HOLMES. LUB women in all parts of Oregon LUB women in all parts of Gregorian bare looking forward to the 14th annual meeting of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs which will open on Monday, October 12, in Eugene. All the clubs that have not yet named their delegates will do so this week and final plans for the convention will be made. The Fortnightly Club of Eugene will be the hostess organization and Mrs. W. P. Boynton will give the greetings from the enwill be held on Monday night, October 12, in the Methodist Church and the onvention will close on Thursday

The delegates and alternates will be ovided with rooms and breakfast by e hostesses. The official headquarters will be in the Hotel Osburn. The women of Eugene are known for their charming hospitality and a good time as well as a busy series of meetings is assured those who attend.

Measures to Be Considered. Several bills to be voted on at the approaching election will be among the weighty subjects considered by the flubs. The University Glee Club will furnish music which will be an ideal nterlude between business and ad llows: Honorary presidents, Mrs. agai Scott Duniway, of Portland, d Mrs. C. B. Wade, of Los Angeles: Mrs. Sarah A. Evane, of first vice-president, Mrs. Lee e, of Pendleton; second vice-Mrs. F. E. Marrick, of Medrecording secretary, Mrs. H. F ord; recording secretary, Mrs. H. F. bavidson, of Hood River; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Saidie Orr-Dunbar, & Portland; treasurer, Mrs. C. N. Ranin, of Portland; auditor, Mrs. W. P. boynton, of Eugene; directors, Mrs. Sanes Brasishaw, of The Dalles, and Uss M. F. Beatty, of Salem; general ederation secretary, Mrs. Saidie Orrunbar, of Portland.

The complete programms of the correct of the c aplete programme of the con ention follows:

Menday—Call to order at 8 P. M. by the resident, Mrs. Sarah A. Evans; invocation, tev. H. S. Wilkinson; welcome from the ity. Mayor Yeran; University of Oregon, resident Campbell; Commercial Club, Alexnder Martin, president; greetings from the utertaining club, Mrs. W. P. Boynton, orthightly Club, Eugene; response from the education, Mrs. Vincent Palmer, Neighborhood Clubs, La Grande; music, selected, striff Glee Club of University of Oregon; eception. ention follows:

morning—8 to 9:15, registration s at Methodist Church; 9:30, ca) ats; 12, adjournment, on-1:30, call to order Miss Louise Yoran; 1:40

mbers of the Coterie Club are takan active interest in questions of al importance which relate to the me, as indicated by the following me, as indicated by the following ogramme, which is to be given at the tel Henson at 11 o'clock Wednesday: cal duet, Miss Charlotte Banfield d Miss Irone Yerex; paper, "Home vironment." Mrs. Emma B. Carroll: cal duet, Miss Charlotte Banfield and as Irene Yerex; paper, "Mother and ild," Mrs. Martin Wagner, Luncheon, 39 o'clock.

the year book for the Portland toan's Club has gone to press and soon be ready for distribution to members. Mrs. Harry Chipman, rman of the programme committee, worked untiringly to prepare for club a series of afternoons that be interesting in every way. A me of the programmes for the genclub meetings follows:

Mrs. J. A. Pettit, Mrs. J. Coulson Hare and Mrs. W. H. Fear; reports from the State Federation; discussion.

November 18.—Violin solo, F. Hampton Wing; vocal solo, Mrs. Pred L. Olson; concerted music (trio for piano, violin and cello), Mordaunt A. Goodnough, F. Hampton Wing and Charles Duncan Raff; baritone solo, Stuart McGuire; 'cello solo, Charles Duncan Raff; duct, Mrs. Olson and Stuart McGuire; concerted music (trio for piano, violin and 'cello), Mr. Goodnough, Mr. Wing and Mr. Raff; over the tescups.

November 27. Rusiness—Order of business; music; art department, Mrs. F. L. Stinson chalrman; discussion.

December 11.—Music, Weber's orchestra; address, 'Our Duty to the Children of Our State,' Mrs. R. M. Tats, second vice-president National Congress of Mothers; contraits solo, Mrs. Bertram O, Carl; address, 'Modern Metheds of Educating the Deaf and Dumb,' demonstrated by children, Mrs. E. A. Ward, chairman of State Child Welfare Promotion; seelah hou.

January S.—Sprame solo, Mrs. Pauline Miller-Grapman; stereopticon lecture on the celebration of the Pansama Canal and Pacific

HELEN AND WESLEY ZURBUCHEN. Helen and Wesley Zurbuchen, the children of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Zurbuchen, of 1034 East Tibbets street, spent their vacation at the home of their aunt, Mrs. J. E. Davis, at Beaverton.

The "kiddles" chief delight while on the farm was to feed the chickens.

So well did the children care for the fowls that they did their best to repay their small benefactors by laying plenty of eggs.

Music will be furnished by the chorus under the direction of Mrs. Lou Gray. Miss Alice V. Joyce will speak. East Friday afternoon a large number of stade teachers assembled in the head quarters, Courthouse, to attend an informal tea, which is one of the social features of the organization. Miss Gertrude Greathouse, Miss Margaret Gleason and Miss Florence Reynolds presided at the tea tables.

The school beautifying committee

The school beautifying committee met early in the week in the Library. Allen Eaton gave an interesting talk on "School Beautification," expressing his approval of the plans outlined by the committee. Mrs. J. C. Elliott King presided. The last week in October there will be an exhibition of suitable school pictures in the Alasworth School. Of this work Mrs. Hinman Loomis is chairman. Miss Henrietta Failing reported that 1000 pictures had been mounted and left with the librarian for use in the schools.

The regular monthly meeting of the Portland Woman's Union will be held at 2:30 o'clock Monday at 510 Flanders street.

The New England Conservatory Club The New England Conservatory Club has sent out invitations for a reception and musicale to be given October 12 at the home of Mrs. John H. Hall, 865 Lovejoy street, in honor of Miss Winifred Bird, of Salem. Miss Bird is a pianist of wide renown and her arrival in this city is awaited eagerly by her many friends and admirers.

day afternoon.

Mrs. E. H. Ingham, president called the meeting to order. The constitution of the Oregon Congress of Mothers was adopted and other routine business transacted.

A short programme consisting of vocal numbers by Mrs. W. F. Parry, who call numbers by Mrs. W. F. Parry, who called the meeting standard the meeting standard the meeting to order. The constitution of the Dora Faber, who, although only a little girl, sang sweetly.

Superintendent Alderman gave a short talk on "Co-operation."

The methers present gave an enthusiastic demonstration of their appreciation of the return of Mrs. Prideaux.

He has demonstrated his worth and standard to the page of the collection of the programme. At the conclusion of the programme and the meeting partook of the nature of a stock of the conclusion of the programme the meeting partook of the nature of a stock of the meeting partook of Miss Helene Butzlaff, soprano, sang a group of songs which were cordislly received at the meeting of the Hanley Club, in the Public Library, last Friday night. For her first song she gave a sparkling rendition of "The Air" (Eden) and for encore "Somewhere a Voice is Calling." Miss Butzlaff sings the German lieder with a beautiful understanding of their musical values, and it is as a singer of these songs that she is most successful.

Harold Hurlbut is arranging a programme of sacred music for the "Peace day" meeting of the Rotary Cliub at the Benson Hotel Tuesday. Mr. Hurlbut will be assisted by the First Congregational Church choir, of which he is director.

Mrs. Jean (G. S.) Macdonald Birnie, a successful vocalist of La Grande, has passed the last two weeks in this city. She availed herself of the opportunity to study with F. X. Arens. Mrs. Birnie is the lucky possessor of a soprano voice of splendid quality and range.

It will be refreshing to listen to the operas which the Gilbert & Sul-livan Opera Company will sing at the Heilig Theater, starting October 11, for a week's engagement. The unusual cast includes De Wolf Hopper, Idelle Patterson, Gladys Caldwell, Jayne Her-bert, Anabel Jourdan, Una Brooks, Miss Hazel Koontz sang an effective solo, "Charity" (McDermid), on Rally day at the First Christian Church last Sunday, Miss Koontz has a sweet, sym-pathetic soprano voice and is being prepared for a public recital by Mrs. Rose Coursen Reed.

Harry Parsons, violinist, will again lay this season for the New Thought emple, this being his third season ith that society.

Master Albert King, speken of as "the boy wonder pianist," played with great success at a series of window concerts at Ellers store last Friday and yesterday, and his piano exhibitions attracted large crowds. The second piano exhibition of this nature will be given at Ellers store tomorrow and Tuesday by J. M. Waterbury, known as "the world's champion long-time piano player." His record now is 55 hours and seven minutes, this record being made in Boine, Idaho, a few weeks ago.

Winifred Bird, of Salem, Miss Bird is a pianist of wide renown and her arrival in this city is awaited eagerly by her many friends and admirers.

Cards are out for an "at home" for the Portland Shakespeare Study Club at the home of its president, Mrs. Edward P. Preble, 875 East Twenty-ninth street North, tomorrow afternoon. The three plays chosen for study—"Hamlet," "Romeo and Juliet" and "Much Ado About Nothing"—promise many delightful and interesting afternoons. The plays will be studied thoroughly by the analytical department under the able leadership of Mrs. Julia Le Barr, while the dramatic department, with Mrs. Roy Peterson as dramatic coach, will present at least two of the three plays for the club and its guests.

The club will hold a business meeting on Tuesday at 2 o'clock in room F, Library.

The Women's Political Science Club had a large meeting Tuesday afternoon in room H, Central Library, when Anne Shannon Monroe spoke on which proved bopular last Winter is to which proved bopular last Winter is to which proved popular last Winter is to which proved popular last Winter is to the control of which proved popular last Winter is to which proved popular last Winter is to the control of the same of the wocal solcists, and R. E. Millard, flutist, at the opening session of the Women's Club at Women of Woodcraft Hali Friday afternoon. Mrs. Huntingdon will sing (a) "La Cleca," from "La Gioconda" (Ponchielli), (b) "Sylvelia" (Christian Sinding). Mr. Gorman will be heard in (a) "From "La Gioconda" (Ponchielli), (b) "Sylvelia" (Christian Sinding). Mr. Gorman will sing (a) "La Cleca," from "La Gioconda" (Ponchielli), (b) "Sylvelia" (Christian Sinding). Mr. Gorman will sing (a) "La Cleca," from "La Gioconda" (Ponchielli), (b) "Sylvelia" (Christian Sinding). Mr. Millard, will play "The Hungarian Dance" (Popp), and Mrs. Elsie Bond Bischoff and Mordaunt A. Goodnough will be accompanists. Mrs. Huntingdon and Mrs. Elsie Bond Bischoff and Mordaunt A. Goodnough will be accompanists. Mrs. Huntingdon and Mrs. Sandau (Pon

The musical services in connection with the celebration of the Jewish New Year at Temple Beth Israel, this past week, have been of marked devotional choral beauty, and reflect great credit on the members of the choir: Mrs. Zeta Hollister Politz, soprano: Mrs. Delphine Marx, contralto; Norman A. Hoose, tenor: Dom J. Zan, baritone, and Edgar E. Coursen, organist and director. These violin selections were admirably played by Henry L. Bettman Atonement day: "Kol Nidre!" (Max Bruch); "Adagio" (Franz Ries).

Marion Contes

Marion Contes.

Marion Coates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Coates, of Tillamook, Or., and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bell, of 313 East Forty-eighth street, Portland, Of., who won the second prize at the Tillamook county fair in the better bables contest, with a score of 98.5 points of a possible 106.

She is 20 months old, and besides winning the second prize received a diploma and a bronze medal from the Woman's Home Companion.

Mande Mordaunt, Arthur Aldridge, Herbert Waterous, Arthur Cunningham, John Willard and C. W. Phillips. "The Mikado" will be sung October 11, and Saturday matinee and night. Others on the list are "Pirates of Penzance," "Iolanthe," "Pinafore" and "Trini by Jury."

Miss Hazel Kooniz sang an effective

Brooklyn Woman's Christian Tenuers.

Brooklyn Woman's Christian Temperance Union met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. N. E. Rassico with a goodly number present. After the usual devotions a report of the Muitnoman County convention was read.

WOMAN'S CLUBS ARE DINED Hood River and Underwood Guest

at White Salmon Reception.

WHITE SALMON, Wash, Oct. 2.—
(Special.)—The annual reception of the White Salmon Woman's Club to the Hood River and Underwood Woman's Clubs was held yesterday at the Jewett farm. The invitation this year was to a luncheon on the lawn at tables placed in the shape of a horseshoe at which places were laid for 200.

Mrs. A. H. Jewett was an able toast mistress and after her own address of welcome, introduced the speakers in a sprightly manner.

of welcome introduced the speakers in a sprightly manner.

Mrs. Pearl Jewett, the president of the White Salmon Club, welcomed the visitors on behalf of the White Salmon Club and Mayor A. H. Jewett, representing the city, made a short address, Mrs. J. O. McLoughlin, president of the Hood River club; Mrs. Charles Castner, Mrs. Sinclair and Mrs. H. Rodwell responded for the Hood River women.

Mrs. William Hussey, president of the Underwood Club, and Mrs. J. Haynes spoke on behalf of the Underwood Club.

Five-minute talks were made by the following White Salmon women: Mrs. J. C. Holcomb, Mrs. W. Scott Coe, Mrs. Melville and Mrs. Bert Heaman. The tables were decorated with flowers and

Have you seen our new store, 25,-000 square feet floor space, six

Have you seen the new Kranich & Bach player grand-something entirely new? Have you seen the new Haynes just like hand playing, absolutely? GRAVES MUSIC CO. 151 Fourth St., near Morrison.

Stoddard-Amico Electric.

Boyer's Recital Hall

Available for Rehearsals, Lectures, Recitals, Etc. Chickering Grand Piano.

W. H. Boyer Teacher of Singing. 505 Tilford Bldg., Cor. 10th and Morrison. Phone Main 7085.

Seiberling-Lucas Music Co.

125 Fourth, Between Alder and Washington,

NEW MUSIC All Leading Publications. VOCAL—PIANO—VIOLIN. Send for Catalogues.

CLEVENGER MUSIC CO. Morgan Building.

MUSICAL DIRECTORY.

PIANO AND VOICE

THE BOONE STUDIO

PIANO ORGAN VOICE

Stearns Bldg., 6th at Morrison. Phone Marshall 1062.

AMERICAN TRAINING for AMERICAN SINGERS

Best methods. Good English used in vocal culture. Also Mason's technic. The American piano method. Harmony and musical composition taught. See DR. Z. M. PARVIN, Teacher, room 36, 165% 4th st. N. W. N. School of Music and Art (Inc.)

VIOLEN.

Miss Lenore Gregory Teacher of Violin.

Five years' study with noted European masters. Residence-Studio, 818 Hancock St

PIANO.

Methods: Leschetizky, German and Virgii Pupils Prepared for Concert Work. MARIE A. S. SOULE, B. M.

Plane and Harmony.

Plane and Harmony.

Popil of Albert Roes Parsons; Metropolitan College, New York City; Xaver Scharwenka, Berlin; Klavier Hall. London, Eng., and Post Graduate Chicago Musical College, Virgil Plane School, New York City.

252 18th St. Phone A-7292, Mar. 529.

PIANO STUDIOS

MUSICAL DIRECTORY.

PIANO.

Hargrave Piano Studio 509 Ellers Bldg. Certified Pupil of the Famous Planist.

William H. Sherwood HELEN GEBBIE Scientific Hand Development.

MARTHA B. REYNOLDS PIANO PIPE ORGAN HARMONY Music Lectures for Clubs and Schools, Pupil of Wm. Russol Case, New York, Wallace Goodrich and Kurt Fischer, Boston. Residence Phone Marshall 4215.

CARL DENTON

Residence Studio 49 North 20th St. Phone Main 4129.

PIANO, PIPE ORGAN, VIOLAN.

WINIFRED BYRD

PIANIST. Available for Concerts, Musicals, Lessons, Puptl of Carl Bacrmann, Boston, Teresa Carreno, Berlin.

Address 595 Court Street, Salem MISS DOROTHEA NASH Begins Teaching September 15, St. Francis Apts.—W Carline. St. Francis Apts.—W Carline. Pupil of Harold Bauer 1998-1912; Royal Academy, London and Berlin, etc., etc. Class Instruction Free to All Pupils.

Accompanist-Coach

ABBY WHITESIDE Teacher of Piano

Studio 515 Weldler St Phone Elast 4832, Lachmund Conservatory of Piano Playing

Miss Avis L. Benton, Sec'y and Mgr. 206 Stearns Bldg., Opp. P. O. 'New York advantages at your own door,"

Arthur von Jessen Pupil of Franz Liszt and Royal Conservatory of Copenhagen, 404 Eilers Bld. GENEVIEVE FRAZER TEACHER OF PIANO.

Children a Specialty. f Godowsky School of Vienna

TEACHER OF PIANO.

970 Woodward Ave. Phone Sellwood 885.

/ VOCAL Geo. Hotchkiss Street BARITONE

Tone Production Diction Style

International—
Training,
Teaching Experience,
Singing Experience. Fall Season Begins September 1, Voice Trials by Appointment Only. Studio, 331 Eleventh Street.

Mrs. Elsie Bond Bischoff

Phones: Main 566, A-5466.

Teacher of Singing Soprano — Accompaniat Studio 610 Ellers Bldg. Phone Marshall 318. English Diction a Specialty

Miss Edun R. Gates

Contralto. TEACHER OF VOICE. Home Studio, 35 East 22d st. North. Phone E. 5907.

Rose Coursen-Reed CONTRALTO

TEACHER OF SINGING. Studio 108 Eilers Blds: Phone Main 1469, Residence, A-7635.

ROBERT LOVELL WILSON BARITONE -508 EILERS BUILDING

Pupil of Lombardi. Will accept pupils : by appointment. Available for concert work.

Robert Boice Carson Vocal Studios 304-305 Stearns Blds. (Over Sherman, Clay & Co.) Highly authorized by leading artists.

Aaron H. Currier

Baritone TEACHER OF SINGING. COACHING IN LANGUAGES FOR SINGERS. Prospectus Sent on Request.

Joseph A. Finley Robust Tenor. VOCAL TEACHER. PURE HEAD PLACEMENT. Studies 609-10-11 Northwest Bidg. Cor. Sixth and Washington Sts. Tel. Main 7054.

Mrs. Herman T. Bohlman VOICE

Rea Studio 202 Occident street. Phone East 4409. Voices Tested by Appointment,