CHURCHES OF PORTLAND TODAY TO PRAY FOR END OF WAR

President's Request Meets Ready Response, Ministers Will Discuss Conflict and Plead for Peace Among Nations of Europe.

TODAY in all the churches of the city prayers for peace will be offered. The great war that has made desolate so many homes in Europe and has called forth universal sympathy for suffering and has wrought so much destruction of life and property has inspired President Wilson to issue an appeal to all denominations to join today in prayers for peace.

Besides this occasion the day will be notable in that it is raily day in joys.

For many years the Church of Our Father has marked the first Sunday in October as "Home-coming Sunday." The day is chosen somewhat arbitrarily, for service is held every Sunday of the year and the church is always open. This year the day is coincident with the day of prayer for peace and this latter purpose will take precedence in the worship and morning sermon.

The sermon announcements for the month are as follows: Sermon for day of prayer, "Rendering Unto God the Things That Are Caesar'a." The "Hymn for the Day of Prayer." by Rev. John Haynes Holmes, will be sung by the congregation morning and evening. On October 11 and 12 Mr. Ellot will speak in the interest of better understanding among the churches of
