Here's Good News to Men and Young Men

It's our misfortune to be handicapped, in a business way, by the blockade of Morrison street, between Fifth and Sixth.

To meet the condition which comes as the result of business being diverted elsewhere, we propose to hold ours by making our customers a special inducement. Therefore, commencing tomorrow morning, we inaugurate what is rightfully termed a

Our Misfortune Your Opportunity

It is unfortunate that the Morrison-st, cave-in should occur at all, and doubly unfortunate for us that it happened at the present time. Our shelves and stock rooms are loaded with Winter and Holiday goods that under normal conditions would rapidly move in the natural course of trade. Now we are confronted with a De Wolf Hopper Says Parody Born in Worcester.

E. L. THAYER IS AUTHOR pal Judge Stevenson yesterday to serve

Prominent Manufacturer, Liked by Everyone, Is Father of "Casey at the Bat," Always Connected With Comedian's Career.

The mere mention of the name of De Wolf Hopper, the popular comedian. who will soon appear in opera in Portthat familiar epic "Casey at the Bat." It matters not what role the tall comedian is playing or in what part of the country he is, there is always an insistence upon the part of the au-dience for "Casey." As this poem has been so intimately associated with Hopper's career, it no doubt may prove Interesting to know how he secured it "Thereby hangs a story," says Mr. Hopper. "It was long before Wang' ever saw the light. It was in 1887 that Archibald Clavering Gunter sent 'Casey' to me. He never said where he got it but merely requested that I should read it over and recite it the next day when the Chicago and New York baseball clubs would be guests at the theater where we were playing in New York. I looked at it and nearly fainted.

"We were playing at Wallack's then."

We were playing at Wallack's thep "We were playing at Wallack's thep, and I was in no mood to get anything in shape. My son was ill with diphtheritic sore throat, and I believed he was going to die. I told Colonel McCaull (I was a member of the McCaull Opera Company) that I couldn't do it, and that was all there was to it, and the next day I received at one o'clock a wire that my boy would pull through, and I sat down with 'Casey' at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

"If Casey is snything, it is a mile o'clock in the afternoon.

"If Casey is snything, it is a mile long, I had it, however, within an hour, and kept it revolving in my mind. At the time we were playing Castles in the Air.' Well, the night performance came around, and in the bexes sat the two baseball teams. There was Pop Anson, Ewing, and other famous players. To make a long story short, I pulled 'Casey' on them, and it made a hit. After the performance I hunted up Gunter and asked him the name of the man who wrote 'Casey.' He told me he had cut it out of a San Francisco newspaper sometime before, because it had made an impression on him.

"Will you believe it, I tried for four years to find the man that wrote that thing. I asked everyone. There were initials signed to the gem, but that was all—E. L. Since 1910.
The budget, as it stands now, calls for total appropriations of $3,228,207.
There will be received in 1915 from direct taxation a total of $751,051.
There will be left in the treasury at the end of this year about $404,000, making $1,165,051 which will not have to be raised by taxation. This would leave $2,163,156 to be raised by taxa-tion.

The grand jury was unwilling to indict Cummings on a charge of manslaughter, although the Coroner's jury recommended such action. It is believed that the grand jury felt that because of Cummings' youth it was doubtful if a conviction could be obtained.

Harry P. Coffin, member of the "Safety First" commission, swore out a complaint yesterday against Cummings charging reckless driving. In the Municipal Court Cummings pleaded guilty.

W. H. Thurston, W. E. Hendricks and Allen Cook were fatality victims in the machine that Cummings was driving.
