

SOCIETY

Mrs. P. ...
Grove Photo

less fortunate, and joined the Portland branch of the Guild. A number of affairs are being arranged for this week and the early part of next, among them the bridge party for which Mrs. A. ...

The Knights Templars Club will hold the first party of the season ... at the Masonic Temple, Wednesday evening, October 28. Arrangements are being made for both dancing and cards ...

A smart affair of the week was the reception given on Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 by Mrs. O. P. M. Jamison at her home on King's Heights. The party was given in compliment to Mrs. Harper Nisley Jamison, a bride of the early summer, and Mrs. Clarence F. Jamison, of Detroit, Mich. ...

The large living-room was abundantly decorated with Autumn foliage, the soft tones of brown, deep scarlet and green lending a pretty effect to the gowns of the guests. In the dining-room a color scheme of green and white was developed with shaggy asters, dahlias and baby chrysanthemums. ...

Receiving with the hostesses were Mrs. H. N. Jamison, of Portland, and Mrs. C. F. Jamison, of Detroit, Mich. In the dining-room Mrs. Harry S. McCracken and Mrs. Ned Falling cut loaves in a cozy little nook lined with vine maple and lighted with tiny incandescent lights Mrs. S. M. Keem served punch. ...

Mrs. Jamison was further assisted by Mrs. F. E. Hilton, Mrs. W. G. Stiles, Mrs. Morgan A. Baker, of McMinnville, and Mrs. C. N. Tager, of Newberg. About 300 guests called during the afternoon. ...

A large and keenly anticipated affair of the week is the bridge tea for which Mrs. Leon Rosenblatt and Miss Ray Harris will be hostesses Thursday afternoon at Hotel Benson. ...

A charming affair for charity's sake was the card party and reception given for the benefit of the church of the Madeleine and to celebrate the third anniversary of the church. The affair was given Wednesday evening at the handsome and spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Clarkson, of Irvington. About 30 tables were arranged for 100, the rooms being converted into floral bowers with quantities of brilliantly-tinted Autumn foliage and tiny green, red and white incandescent lights shining through the leaves, which completely covered walls and ceilings. ...

During the early part of the evening the orchestra from Hotel Benson, under a musical programme, and a number of vocal solos were sung by Mrs. A. F. Fetzl, Miss Nona Lawler, Miss Dagmar Kelly, and violin solos by Mrs. Max Chapman. Miss Chapman and Mrs. Joseph Donnerberg were the accompanists for the soloists. The fortunate contestants at cards were C. J. B. Malarker, Miss Mayme Berry, Mrs. Martin, Miss Keveny and William P. Sinnott. ...

One of the few parties to motor over the new scenic Columbia River Highway to date was that of Samuel Hill, who took a few guests over the new road late last week. Those in the party besides the host were Eibridge Stuart, Samuel C. Lanaster, Osgood Royal and J. C. Potter. On the return trip the party stopped at Pails Chalet for tea, after which the return was made to Portland. ...

Miss Frances Tallmadge entertained informally on Saturday at her home in Irvington. The house was decorated with Autumn foliage and masses of pink roses. Five hundred was played during the afternoon, and Miss Mabelle Holmes rendered several vocal selections. ...

One of the important events of the week was the auction of the Wednesday by Mrs. E. B. Morris in her apartments in the Altona. The rooms were elaborately decorated with red dahlias and Autumn leaves. ...

On Wednesday evening Mrs. L. R. Downing and her sister, Mrs. J. A. C. Downing, who is visiting her, were surprised by a number of friends. Cards and music were enjoyed by those present after which a delicious supper was served. The prizes were won by Mrs. J. Downing and M. Dole. ...

NEWS FROM THE ARMY POST Columbus day will be celebrated in the post with general military exercises in the afternoon by the entire Twenty-first Infantry and band in command of Colonel Young. The public is invited to be present, and it is expected that several thousand from Portland will attend. The receipts of the afternoon will be turned over to the National Red Cross Society, along with $400 which has been collected by the German-Austrian branch organized in Vancouver. ...

Charming and interesting was the tea for which Mrs. C. Lewis Mead and Mrs. W. F. Woodward were patronesses Thursday at the Irvington Club for the purpose of interesting their numerous friends in that section of the city in the work of the Needlework Guild of America, who are planning to have their annual exhibition of garments soon. Hundreds of matrons called during the calling hours of 3 to 5 o'clock, and many eagerly grasped the opportunity to help those who are room and was largely attended. Music was furnished by the Twenty-first Infantry Band. This is one of a series of hops to be given during the Fall and Winter season in the post. Two or three formal balls also may be given before Easter. ...

Lieutenant Beatty, of the Second Field Artillery, stationed at Manila, P. I., but formerly of this post, is visiting in the post. Lieutenant Beatty suffered a fractured ankle in a polo game at Manila and is on sick leave of six months in the United States. ...

Following the enjoyable hop given Friday evening, Lieutenant Harris and Mrs. Hartz entertained 45 ladies and officers of the post at a hop supper in the dining-room next to the hoproom. Among those from Portland, and out of the post, were Captain and Mrs. Cleland McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Whitney, of Portland; Mrs. Margaret Waring, of Vancouver, and guest, Miss Therkeisen, of Portland; Mr. Gibson, brother of Lieutenant Samuel A. Gibson, and Lieutenant Beatty. ...

Lieutenant Glass, who was on a detail teaching military tactics at the University of Maine, arrived Tuesday for duty with the Twenty-first Infantry. ...

BABY GIRL IS RURAL CHAMPION THROUGH PARENTS' EFFORTS. Milla Nell Mason. When Milla Nell Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mason, of Seaside, was 6 months old she scored 97.5 per cent in a eugenics contest. Her parents decided that Milla Nell's average should be higher than that, and set about to improve her. ...

With which regiment he has been assigned. Mrs. Glass remained in San Francisco for a visit with friends and will join her husband in ...

Mrs. George S. Young and her daughter, Miss Polly Young, are visiting this week at the home of Mrs. J. B. ...

Mrs. Lentz, wife of Lieutenant Lentz, delightfully entertained Friday afternoon at tea in honor of Mrs. James Woolnough, who recently rejoined the regiment, with her husband, Lieutenant Woolnough. ...

Captain and Mrs. Harry A. Hegeman gave two parties the week for the officers and ladies of the post and a few friends from Portland. On Wednesday evening auction bridge was the diversion, and John B. Richardson won the ladies' prize. ...

On Thursday evening Captain and Mrs. Hegeman entertained 400 Miss Ellis, of Portland, won high score among the ladies, while Mrs. Clayton won second prize. Lieutenant Lentz won the gentlemen's prize. The guests were Lieutenant and Mrs. Gill, Lieutenant and Mrs. Lentz, Major and Mrs. Clayton, Lieutenant and Mrs. C. Grady, Mrs. L. C. Bennett, Mrs. Blessing, Mrs. Jennie Stewart, Lieutenant Stewart, Miss Tyler (of Vancouver), the Misses Ellis of Portland, Lieutenant Newgardner, Lieutenant Dodson, Lieutenant Cress and Miss Knowlton of Portland. ...

Mrs. Ossewaarde, wife of Chaplain Ossewaarde, has returned from Zealand, Mich. ...

EVENTS OF THE WEEK. Miss Blanche Edlertsen was hostess at a farewell party on Saturday evening at her home in St. Johns, in honor of Miss Maiste Petersen, who leaves this week for her home in Missoula, Mont. ...

Miss Naomi Beckwith, who assisted at a recent tea ...

Discount Sale of Oriental Rugs. 1400 high-grade Oriental Rugs will be offered now at 1/2 Price. Reason: We must raise $10,000 immediately. Don't miss this opportunity of your lifetime. We cannot import or replace Oriental Rugs which we offer now. N. V. Simonian, 392 Morrison st., Cor. 10th, opp. Olds, Wortman & King.

Suits, Balmacaans for the inspection of ladies and misses

Smart Fall suits, made with the short, medium or long coat and having the tunic skirt, in serge, gabardine, broadcloth and chevrot.

English "King's" serge suits in navy or black. The coats are lined with Skinner's satin. Perfect-fitting models, modestly priced; $34.50.

Balmacaans in imported fleeces, tweeds, chevrots and novelty fabrics and in new American weaves. The most popular garment of the season, shown in the widest range of fabric and color.

All of the garments shown by this store are made by skilled men tailors. -Third floor.

Suits $19.50 to $69.50
Balmacaans $10.00 to $50.00
Alterations Free

BEN SELLING

Morrison Street at Fourth
A Shop for Gentlewomen

bowls and baskets of red and crimson dahlias. The guests were entertained with "900," the favors being won by S. L. Dobbie and Miss Esther Guerber, following which a dainty luncheon was served. The color scheme being the Autumn colors pink and orange. After luncheon the remainder of the evening was devoted to music and the dancing to the ever-popular one-step, hesitation and three-step. ...

An enjoyable affair of the past week was the 500 party and tea given by Mrs. Eva N. Howe, Wednesday, complimentary Miss Mary Moffatt, who will be married October 14 to Dr. Charles E. Stratton, of Kalama, Wash. ...

The Krow Eideen Club was entertained at luncheon Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Frederick McDonald, East Sherman street. The rooms were decorated prettily with dahlias. Covers were laid for nine. ...

One of the smart affairs of the week was the afternoon enjoyed by the Past Matrons' Club of Camelia Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, who motored to ...

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the season was the opening dancing party of the intercollegiate circles Friday night at Cottillion Hall. Hundreds of the younger set participated and several special features were enjoyed, among which was the supper dance. The ballroom and dining-room were beautifully decorated with clusters of Autumn leaves and hundreds of pennants. ...

The patronesses were Mrs. J. Belland, Mrs. B. Honeyman, Mrs. H. T. Adams and Mrs. Laura Edwards. The committee members were Eugene Belland, Raymond Staab, Laman Bonney, Jack Benefield, Jack Bruhn, Nelson Schoenberg, Leo Waldron, Cameron Belland and Misses Hazel Wynore, Marlon Hoban, Mary Dunbar, Edna Holcomb, Marie Beach, Lucile Dudley and Helen O'Neil. ...

A pleasant surprise was given Mrs. Emily C. Simmons at her home, 322 Seventy-second street Southeast. ...

Thursday evening by members of her Sunday school class, the King's Daughters of Millard-avenue Presbyterian Church. Refreshments and entertainment made the occasion an enjoyable one for all. A token was presented to Mrs. Simmons in recognition of her three years' work as teacher of the class. A majority of the party were class charter members. Those present were: Lucile Huggins, Myrtle Campbell, Lois Burch, Marie Wood, Clara C. Burch, Jessie Huggins, Jeanette Pound, Nettie Traxler, Frances Herahner, Clara McIntosh, Lisale Laird, Bernice Paisley, Sara Wood, Mildred McIntosh, Harry W. White, Eddie Evans, George Chambers and Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Simmons. ...

An interesting business meeting of the woman's department of the Rose City Park Club was held Monday, the latter part of the afternoon being devoted to bridge. Card honors fell to Mrs. A. C. Pool, Mrs. L. E. Barley and Mrs. C. F. Allshaw were the hostesses. The next party will be held October 19, with Mrs. Frank Miller, chairman. ...

The Krow Eideen Club was entertained at luncheon Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Frederick McDonald, East Sherman street. The rooms were decorated prettily with dahlias. Covers were laid for nine. ...

One of the smart affairs of the week was the afternoon enjoyed by the Past Matrons' Club of Camelia Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, who motored to ...

Only Ground-Floor Studio in City. Van Dyck Studio, 404 Washington St. Baby Week. This is Baby week at our studio, where special attention will be given to Children's Photographs. We guarantee every Photograph to be first-class, artistic work and will give an extra Photo to every child when mothers order one dozen. We offer this wonderful inducement in order to avoid the usual Christmas rush. Bring the children in now. Open Sundays.

Miss M. Hepburn, Owner and Manager. SEE WINDOW DISPLAY.

the beautiful country home of Miss Nellie McKinley, Sycamore station. The home of the hostess was decorated for the occasion with Autumn leaves and white asters. "Five hundred" was the diversion of the afternoon, honors going to Mrs. I. T. Mason, after which dainty refreshments were served. Those who enjoyed the afternoon were: Mrs. L. M. Davis, Mrs. W. S. Cutler, Mrs. ...

Halloween Novelties

Big showing of imported and domestic table favors, decorations, crepe paper napkins and table cloths, in unique designs—garlands, streamers, etc. Second Floor.

Order Your Engraved Christmas Cards Now

Engraved Announcements, Cards, Stationery, Birth Cards, in the newest styles. See samples. Fancy Stationery Dept. (Second Floor.)

Gill's

The J. K. Gill Co., Third and Alder.

Exquisite Furs at Sale Prices

PORTLAND'S "old families," who have traded at Rummelin's for almost half a century, realize what a wonderful opportunity this is to buy furs of highest quality at great savings! We're quitting business and everything must be sold!

A Few of Scores of Savings

Regular $20.00 Blue Wolf Scarf$15.00	Regular $20.00 Sable Wolf Scarf$10.00
Regular $20.00 Blue Wolf Muff$15.00	Regular $18.00 Sable Wolf Muff$7.00
Regular $40.00 White Fox Scarf$30.00	Reg. $75.00 Ermine and Mole Scarf$45.00
Regular $40.00 White Fox Muff$30.00	Reg. $100 Ermine and Mole Muff$50.00
$18.00 Natural Raccoon Scarf$12.50	$80.00 White Fox and Ermine Scarf$60.00
$25.00 Natural Raccoon Muff$18.00	$80.00 White Fox and Ermine Muff$50.00

Our factory still being operated. All our high-class skins made into smartest new sets at sale prices

G. P. Rummelin & Sons

124 Second Street, Between Washington and Alder

Mrs. J. J. ...
Grove Photo

Miss Alta ...
Grove Photo

Miss Naomi Beckwith who assisted at a recent tea

(Continued From Page 4) erick Harlow, and Jack Price, one of the popular beaux of local society. The chairman of the evening was George E. Waggoner. Sanford P. Lowheart will be chairman next Wednesday, and he will be host to about 24 friends at dinner. He is arranging to introduce a number of specialties, and the committee is being overwhelmed with reservations for tables. ...