

SOCIETY

MRS. FREDERICK HARRIS AND SON, OF LOS ANGELES, WHO HAVE BEEN ENTERTAINED HERE.

C. W. Miller, Mrs. F. A. Watts, Mrs. A. H. Trega, Mrs. P. W. Kreyer, Mrs. Angus Graham, Mrs. G. A. Johnson, Mrs. I. T. Mason, Mrs. G. Hamaker, Mrs. A. E. Paulsen and Mrs. O. S. Cutler.

Dr. and Mrs. D. O. Webster were the recipients of a surprise party given by their friends on their second wedding anniversary, Friday evening. The evening was passed with cards and dancing, after which refreshments were served.

Those present were: Dr. and Mrs. Charles Billington, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Webster, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Bender, Mr. and Mrs. J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. White, Dr. E. H. Gilbert, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore, of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Webster, of Honolulu.

On Tuesday night Mr. and Mrs. M. Steele entertained a few of their friends at their home, 848 East Taylor street, the occasion being in honor of Mrs. Steele's birthday. The evening was spent in playing cards and dancing, after which an elaborate collation was served. Mrs. Steele was the recipient of several presents.

Prizes were won by M. S. Magee and Miss Florence Sutherland and Mr. and Mrs. Quimby. Those enjoying Mr. and Mrs. Steele's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Westbrook, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Swan, Mr. and Mrs. Quimby, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Magee, Robert Clark and Miss Florence Sutherland.

Mrs. W. A. Gill entertained the members of the "U-re-ka" Club at her home on Cleveland avenue, Wednesday. Five hundred was the diversion of the afternoon, after which an elaborate collation was served. The table was artistically decorated with purple and gold, the colors of the club. Mrs. F. E. Disbrow received the first prize and Mrs. A. C. Thorpe the consolation award. Those present were: Mrs. F. E. Disbrow, Mrs. W. A. Gill, Mrs. D. K. Hill, Mrs. J. C. Patrick, Mrs. D. L. Povey, Mrs. R. R. Quick, Mrs. A. C. Thorpe, Miss Adair Taylor, Mrs. Cora Talbot and Mrs. Burr C. Wagner.

Woodstock Circle of the Portland Psychology Club met at the home of Mrs. E. J. Steele, 4363 Forty-second avenue, Tuesday morning. Mrs. Martin, the chairman, presented the outline of study given out by the inner circle and the reading and discussion of that took the place of the regular work. Topics were assigned for the next meeting in conformity with the outline given and every effort will be made to promote the efficiency of its members in their particular fields, whatever they may be.

On Thursday the Irvington Clubhouse was the scene of the second monthly dance of the popular C. O. R. D. S. Club. The hall was attractively decorated with autumn leaves and colored lights. A large number of the friends of the club enjoyed the evening.

The patronesses for the affair were: Mrs. William Doyle, Mrs. Otto F. Olson and Mrs. Christina Spencer. The committee in charge included Miss Clara Callwell, Miss Hazel Doyle, Miss Gordon Spencer, Willis Doyle and Raymond Olson.

The opening dance of the Blixotes Club was held Tuesday evening and was a great success. It was one of the most enjoyable of the season's dances and the club will give a similar affair the first Tuesday in November. The committee are: Edward J. Elvers, Leo J. A. Peroni, Chauncey L. Mullen and Jack Leavy.

The patronesses for the evening were Mrs. Ellen Meyer, Mrs. M. E. Mullen, Mrs. W. J. Elvers and Mrs. R. L. Aldrich.

A surprise party was given to Frederick Kerr last Sunday at his home in Aurora, Or., on the occasion of his birthday. It was a delightful affair and was attended by Mrs. J. F. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Miller, Mr. and Mrs. A. von Jesse, Miss Henrietta Beck, Miss Winnie Wippen, Misses Jose, Carrie, Zela and Rose McCormick, Miss Louise Kerr, Miss Helen Kerr, J. F. Ohlert, C. R. Manning and Charles A. Oriscoll.

A charming affair of the week, given in honor of Mrs. E. M. Walker's 80th birthday, was a pretty luncheon presided over by her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Ralph Shreve, who has just returned from Kansas City, Monday afternoon at her home, 365 East Selmon street. Around the well-appointed series of dances will be given at Cotillion Hall for the benefit of the Elks' band to defray the expenses of its trip to Los Angeles next July, attending the Elks' reunion. The band will consist of 50 pieces. Invitations may be obtained from the members of the band, all Elks and from the secretary of Portland Lodge. The committee of arrangements is J. J. McDonnell, F. Guy Haines, W. S. Harris, John A. Johnson, Frank D. Hennessy, John C. Boyer, John Abbot, Max Asmus, R. W. Bengtman, R. J. Ellis; floor manager, J. J. McDonnell, and chairman of the reception committee, Raymond J. Ellis.

Lincoln alumni will give a dance on Friday evenings, October 14, at Christensen's Hall, at 8:30 o'clock. This will be an informal affair and is being eagerly anticipated with considerable pleasure in school circles.

The sponsors for the affair are Miss Christina MacConnell, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Davis and George Koehn.

The committee consists of Clarence H. Gilbert, Clarence J. Young, William J. Lewis, Ernest Spamer, William R. Smith, Pauline Helms, Mabel Free, Edith Shapirer, Margaret O'Shea, Lucy Shearer.

The many patrons of the Winter dances will be pleased with the announcement of the annual military ball, to be given at the Armory Thursday evening, November 19, by Company B, Third Infantry, Oregon National Guard.

For several years Company B has given successful dances and its annual ball is always looked forward to with eagerness by its many friends and patrons.

All efforts are being put forth to make the coming dance most successful and entertaining of any social event yet undertaken by the company.

Employees of the Wells-Fargo Company will have their fifth annual ball November 5 at Cotillion Hall. Many special features are being prepared and will be kept secret until the evening of the ball. Invitations will be issued soon. The committee is: H. S. Hughes, M. Jassman, Emil Nary, C. McCartney, Ross Cornell, C. Clayton, C. W. Lillie, S. Henry and H. E. Harrison. The patronesses will be Mrs. E. A. Muncy, Mrs. F. D. Fisher, Mrs. George Armstrong, Mrs. Charles Taylor and Mrs. E. W. Graham.

The Wisconsin Society of Oregon will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Cotillion Lodge Hall, Fourteenth and Burnside streets, October 15. Phil Eaton, president of the Federation of State Societies, will address the meeting in the interest of the Land Products show. There will be a musical programme and refreshments. All members are especially urged to be present, as matters of importance are to be discussed. All former Wisconsinites and their families are cordially invited.

Wednesday evening the seniors and women's class of the Turn Verein will give their opening dancing party in the new auditorium. This event marks the opening of the social activities of the younger members of the club and is being looked forward to by the members of all the classes. A monthly dance will be featured. The patronesses for the evening will be Mrs. F. H. Dammasch, Mrs. O. C. Bortzmeyer, Mrs. Lucien Becker, Mrs. E. Winter and Mrs. J. E. Kelly.

On Tuesday night Marguerite Camp, Royal Neighbors of America, will entertain with an informal dance in its hall in the Woodmont at 8 o'clock, 123 Eleventh street. The members of the committee on arrangements are: Miss Veda Flynn, Miss Marie Ten Eyck, Miss Pollie Padden and Miss Kitty Rogers; patronesses, Mrs. Della Eley, Mrs. T. H. Burchard, Mrs. A. M. Butler and Mrs. Eva Flynn and Mrs. Rose L. McGrath, presiding at the punchbowl.

A card party will be given Wednesday evening by the Nebraska Society of this city for a worthy cause—to help a widow and her children to reach her home in Omaha. The affair will be given at the Hotel Multnomah at 8 o'clock, and reservations can be made by telephoning to Mrs. Phil Easterday. The patronesses for the affair are Mrs. Frank Clifford, Mrs. A. M. Butler, Mrs. Phil Easterday, Dr. and Mrs. Earle Henton, Miss Ethel Mahoney.

Cotillion Hall will be the scene of the popular Rosalia Girls' October dancing party tomorrow evening. This party has been looked forward to with great pleasure by the club members. The Rosalia Girls are Misses Lucile Burt, Ardis, Abbott, Rose Goddard, Cora Walker, Laura Peterson, Bula Van Horn, Olive Trefren, Irene Durham and Lydia Norelius.

The Merry Makers' Club announces that it will give a Halloween party Tuesday evening, October 27, at Cotillion Hall. Older and doughnuts will be served. The committee is: William Magison, Walter Magison, Edward Mader and Birdie Magison. The patronesses are Mrs. F. M. Brutin, Mrs. N. Bishop, Mrs. A. Raymond and Mrs. E. J. Harrington.

Members of Bonnie Ross Castle, 678, of the Royal Highlanders, will give the first of a series of dancing parties at W. O. W. Hall, 128 Eleventh street, Monday evening. The committee in charge includes Bertha Duval, Mary Darnain, Georgie Allen, Bertha Reed, Len Haynes, Carl Pfeiffer and Billie Gibson.

The members of George Wright Woman's Relief Corps No. 2 will meet for their regular semi-monthly sewing Wednesday at Woman's Relief Corps hall, Courthouse. Many articles for POPULAR GIRL OF THE DALLES IS PORTLAND MAN'S BRIDE.

Mrs. Rudolph Hochuli, Jr., a Bride of the Week. Miss Zoe Gunning, daughter of Judge and Mrs. F. S. Gunning, of the Dalles, was married October 7 to Rudolph Hochuli, Jr., of this city. It was a simple home wedding, taking place at the home of the bride's parents in The Dalles, only relatives and intimate friends being present. The bride is a popular girl and, previous to her marriage, was extensively feted. Several large affairs were given in her honor, among them a dancing party, for which Mrs. Carl Hansen and Miss Annie Hansen were hostesses for about 50 young people, and a large card party given at Masonic Hall by Misses Anne and Elizabeth Lang.

SILVERFIELD'S QUIT!

Portland's Largest and Best Furriers
Absolutely Retiring From Business

FURS
From the Trapper
In the Frozen North
Direct to You
At Manufacturer's
COST

CONSIDER THIS A PERSONAL MESSAGE TO YOU

We are absolutely and positively retiring from business and our entire stock is now being closed out at price savings that are marvelous.

We are manufacturers, selling direct to the consumer, which means by buying here now you will not only save the middleman's profit, but you will secure the best furs obtainable at absolute manufacturer's cost.

The sale stands without precedent or parallel in the annals of the fur industry and business, and all prudent ladies will purchase their Fall and Winter furs now.

THE SILVERFIELD CO.

MANUFACTURING FURRIERS
Catalogue or Price List on Request 286 Morrison St., Bet. 4th and 5th

the bazaar to be given November 11 are to be completed—aprons, quilts, rugs, fancywork, etc. A large attendance is desired.

Mount Hood Circle, No. 151, Women of Woodcraft, will give a Halloween mask ball on Thursday evening, October 22, in the East Side Woodman Hall. The committee of arrangements includes Lou Ellen Cornell, Jennette Ramsey, Belle Peffer, Elizabeth Rutledge and Minnie McGregor. Prizes will be given for best class costumes.

The G. N. C. B. girls will entertain Thursday evening, October 22, at Cotillion Hall. Members and committee are: Eva Cook Vinton, Rose Goddard, Jeanette Routledge, Faye Wise, Gertrude Lucke, Esther Rudeen, E. L. Vinton, Elmer A. Hanson and Arthur Rudeen.

The Corinthian Social Club will give an informal dance and card party at the Masonic Temple on Saturday, October 17.

The concert for the benefit of the Firestone Crittenton Refuge Home, announced for October 16, has been postponed until November 17, at the Masonic Temple. All tickets for the October 16 date will hold good without change for the concert November 17.

The next dancing party of the Satellites, Eastern Star, will be given Thursday evening, October 22, in Masonic Temple, West Park and Yamhill streets. Other dances have been arranged for December 3 and January 14.

St. Michael's parish will give a concert and card party in the church hall. Those taking part in the programme will be Miss Inez Laumar Kelly, Miss Mary Albertini, Miss Mary de Rogatic, Miss Josephine Wagner and Miss Agnes Duffy.

Dr. V. E. De Lory will give a French lecture on "Rabelais" on Tuesday, and another lecture on "Benvenuto Cellini" on Friday. Both lectures will be given from 11 to 12 o'clock in r. om 203, Th-

(Concluded on Page 6.)

"DON'T YOU LOVE TO HAVE ALL THE GIRLS SAY 'I Wish I Had a Suit Like Yours?'"

"Have I told you where I bought this suit that every one is admiring so? No? Well, at CHERRY'S, where IT'S FUN TO USE YOUR CREDIT!"

"No reason why any one should feel timid about buying clothes on credit. Goodness knows, they're glad enough to be trusted for everything else they need. Why not for suits and dresses and everything else to wear?"

"But you want to see CHERRY'S NEW SUITS, don't you, Beth? I'm terribly anxious to see what Cherry's have for Fall. Let's go up Monday. Don't you know where their place is? It is in the Pittock Block, 359-391 Washington street."—Adv.

OVERSTOCKED

Must have money at once, so we will sacrifice our beautiful lines of woolen goods, this week only—

ANY SUIT FROM 200 DIFFERENT PATTERNS.

In black, blue, gray or brown, made to your order.

For $30

This includes the best satin lining. Formerly priced from $45 up. Don't miss this. It is the opportunity you have waited for.

Sall & Pressman Ladies' Tailors.
171 Eleventh, half block south of Morrison st.

Monday Special Sale

COATS, SUITS, CAPE COATS
Embody a world of cleverness. Beautiful Tailored Black, Navy, Copenhagen, Russian Brown, Tete-de-Negre, Prune. Choose any color you are assured of smartness.

Coats--
3500 Coats to choose from—no two alike
--$4.50 to $75

Suits--
800 Suits to choose from—no two alike
--$13.75 to $80

Dresses--
200 Dresses to choose from
--$3.75 to $40

WORRELL'S COR. SIXTH AND ALDER

OPPOSITE OREGONIAN