More than 60 friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. Adam Olson at their residence, 785 East Eleventh street, Monday evening, on the 16th anniversary of their marriage. The evening was passed in music and games, after which delightful refreshments were served. A beautiful token appropriate to the occasion was presented by Rev. J. Thoren in behalf of the many friends.

One of the jolly events of the week was the dancing party for which Mrs. M. Young was hostess for her pupils and their friends on Thursday evening at Linnea Hall. These parties are becoming quite popular with the younger married set as well as the belles and beaux. Mrs. Young plans to give similar affairs on the first and third Thursdays of each month.

The Bay View reading class met Thursday with Mrs. Andrew Abbott. Mrs. Frederick Barber was elected president for the coming year. The membership dues were raised from $1 to $5—the publicity department was entrusted to the president. The meeting place will be "Lechaim" each time. Five women applied for admission to the club.

Mrs. E. L. Cronkite was hostess to 20 of her friends for a 500 party last Thursday afternoon. Favours were won by Mesdames Baumgartner, Werthimer and Allen. The games were followed by refreshments. Mrs. Cronkite was assisted by Mesdames Morgan, Patterson and Viggers.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Johnson, of Rose City Park, gave a dinner at their home Sunday, October 11, announcing the marriage of Bertrand E. Fraser and Margaret L. Merz by Rev. W. I. Ebb, of Vancouver, on September 29.

The young couple will be at home to their friends at 2806 East Forty-ninth streets South after October 19.

Miss Margaret Mann presided at a delightful luncheon Monday at her home in Milwaukie avenue in honor of Mrs. M. E. Monson (Irene Elliot), of Seattle, Wash. Mrs. Monson has been entertained at a number of charming affairs during the Summer in this city, where she resided previous to her marriage.

The regular meeting of Portland Elvive No. 7, L. O. T. M., will be postponed from October 22 to October 29 at the Masonic Temple building. A rally of the Ladies of the Maccabees is to be held at Albany October 21 and 22. Any Maccabees wishing to join can phone Mrs. Chambers, Main 895 or A 4505 for information.

Summer Post and Corps held a birthday social at the home of Mrs. K. Sheldon, daughter of Comrade Gardner, 822 Halsey street, Wednesday evening. The rooms were draped with American flags and halloween colors. A table for the guests of honor was artistically decorated. A short programme was given.

A delightful affair of Wednesday evening was the surprise given to Mr. and Mrs. John Baker by their friends of Oregon City, in honor of their china wedding. Many beautiful pieces of china were given in remembrance. Music and games were played the early part of the evening.

Mrs. George W. Craw presided at a Dutch luncheon on Tuesday in honor of her house guest Miss Rose Ketsler, of Anacortes, Wash. The rooms were attractively decked with dahlias in tones of reds and brown, covers being laid for 15.

Mrs. Frank H. Lewis entertained the little girls of Miss Williams' Fourth B class and a few other little ones at her home in Irvington Wednesday afternoon. The time was happily passed in making bean bags for Christmas.

One of the delightful affairs of the week was the luncheon given on Wednesday by Mrs. L. M. Kennedy. Covers were laid for Mrs. G. B. Reeves, Mrs. E. J. Jorgensen, Mrs. Fred Gell, Mrs. S. A. Gell and the hostess.

The Satellites O. E. S. will entertain next Thursday evening at the Masonic Temple. Other dancing parties have been arranged for December 8 and January 14.

A wedding of interest to Portlanders was that of Ralph Roy Routledge and Miss Melina Marie Le Blanc, daughter of Joseph Eugene Le Blanc, of Vancouver, B. C., which was celebrated at the parsonage of Rev. W. A. Major, of the Presbyterian Church of Seattle, Thursday. The young couple were unattended and the only guests were members of the Seattle Rotary Club. After the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the Rainier-Grand Hotel. Mrs. Routledge is a charming girl, and has visited Portland frequently. The bridegroom, a popular clubman of this city, is president of the Rutledge Seed Company. After a trip to Vancouver, B. C., and Puget Sound cities, Mr. and Mrs. Routledge will be at home after November 1 at the Cumberland Apartments.

that their opening party is to be an old time Halloween party, was received with pleasure by their many friends. This affair will take place October 29 at Cottillon Hall. As in the past, it is their intention to have the parties the jolliest and smartest of the season. Among the many innovations will be decorations suggestive of old-time Halloween frivolity. Cottillon Hall will be converted into an Old England farm scene and the usual Indian Summer "goodies" will be served to the merry dancers.

This affair is elaborate in every detail and will be strictly invitational. Invitations may be secured from the committee in person only. The committee of the Maxixians is: Paul Dickenson, Elmer A. Hanson, Walter M. Dickenson, William H. Gwaltney, Carl Taylor, Charles Bauer, Mabel Mascot, Grace Ledingham, Margaret Harvey, Florence Nelson, Irene Mosher, Eleanor Hawkins and Hazel Gallagher.

Thursday evening members of the Maxixians, a popular dancing club, assembled at the Hotel Oregon for dinner. The tables were decked with flowers and a musical programme was enjoyed. The committee, consisting of Misses Mabel Mascot, Margaret Harvey, Irene Mosher, Eleanor Hawkins, Marian Alwaster and Edith Miller and Paul R. Dickenson, George E. Love, Elmer Hansen, Walter M. Dickenson, Charles Bauer, Carl Taylor, William H. Gwaltney and Dick Mullen, adopted orange and black as this season's club colors, and a motto, "You'll Like Us," was chosen as the club's byword. On October 29 is the day and Cottillon Hall is to be the scene of the Maxixians' opening party, which will be an old-time Halloween party. Cottillon Hall is to be converted into an old England farm scene and innovations and decorations will be suggestive of Halloween revelry. Fruit and nut and fashion taffy candy will be the refreshments.

A spooky dance Halloween week, Wednesday, October 29, will be a feature at the Cottillon Hall, which will be the annual Halloween party, given by the Myrtle Rose Club. Elaborate preparations are being made in decorating the hall, which will consist of "spooky" features and other novelties that will add to the Halloween festivities. Six living spoofs will greet the members. This annual affair is looked forward to with much interest by members of the club, as heretofore their parties have been largely attended. The patronesses will be: Mrs. N. A. Matholt, Mrs. F. Williams, Mrs. George Cook, Mrs. F. E. Clark. The committee: Eugene W. Belland, Leonard Bayles, William D. Rhoades, Cameron H. Belland, J. T. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Belland.

Final preparations have been made and invitations issued for the opening dancing party of the Order of Eastern Star Club, which is to be given October 26 in the Masonic Temple. The club has in the past been one of the most successful and popular dancing clubs in the city. Special attention is going to be given to the floor work, which is to be taken care of by the following committee: Terry Beck, Alma Harvey, Edith Barn, Mr. Eldridge, Mathilda, Mathieson, Esther Mesagley, W. W. Work, Dr. Henton, Grace Crow and Mark Hetrick, chairmen. Officers of the club are: Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. F. D. Egan, George Armstrong, Mrs. Charles Taylor and Mrs. E. W. Graham.

Unusual interest and enthusiasm are being shown by the employees of the Wells-Fargo company in their fifth annual ball given November 6 at Cottillon Hall. The committee says that Cottillon Hall will look more like an express office and baggage-room than a ballroom. Many special features are being prepared. Invitations soon will be issued. The committee in charge includes: H. S. Hughes, M. Jasman, Emil Harr, C. McCartney, Ross Cornwell, C. Clayton, C. W. Lillie, S. Henry, H. E. Harrison, R. W. Bombard and George Armstrong. The patronesses: E. A. Muncey, Mrs. F. D. Egan, Mrs. George Armstrong, Mrs. Charles Taylor and Mrs. E. W. Graham.

Tomorrow evening Cottillon Hall will be the scene of the first of a series of dancing parties to be given by the Elks to their members and friends to help defray the expenses of the bar, which will be sent to the Elks reunion at Los Angeles. The band will consist of 50 pieces. Invitations may be obtained from the members of the band and all Elks. The committee on arrangements is: J. J. McDonald, F. Guy Haynes, W. S. Harris, John A. Johnson, Frank D. Hennessy, John C. Boyer, John Abbott, Max Asmus, R. W. Bengiman, R. J. Ellis, Gloor manager, J. J. McDonald, chairman of the reception committee, Raymond J. Ellis.

The February 1915 class matinee dance at Jefferson High School will be held Thursday, October 22, instead of Wednesday, as previously announced. This is the first afternoon dance of the season and extensive preparations are being made by the students to make it the best ever held in any Portland school. Students from other schools are especially invited to attend. The committee in charge is James Lakin, Mary Dunbar, Roger Holcomb, Ines Donahue and Anna Jackson. The patrons and patronesses are Mr. Karnop, Mr. Ritchie, Miss Nieland, Miss Kentner and Miss Kimmell.

A dancing party will be given Monday evening, October 26 at Masonic Temple by the O. E. S. Club. The patronesses are: Mesdames H. T. Donivan, D. L. Houston, G. E. Henton, Samuel Wollston, J. P. Menefee and J. Frank Guerin. The officers are: Miss Grace Crow, president; Miss Nora Krogaard, vice-president; Radford R. Shawcross, secretary and treasurer. The patronesses are Mrs. H. T. Donivan, Mrs. D. L. Houston, Mrs. G. E.

Henton, Mrs. Samuel Wollston, Mrs. J. P. Menefee and Mrs. Frank J. Guerin.

Invitations will soon be issued for the big Halloween party of the Merry Makers Club, which will be held in Cottillon Hall, October 27. Beautiful decorations are being planned and a programme of the latest in songs and song hits will be rendered. The committee includes: William Magison, Walter Magison, Edward Mader and Birdie Magison. The patronesses of the evening will be Mrs. F. M. Bruttis, Mrs. N. Bishop, Mrs. A. Raymond and Mrs. J. Harrington.

An affair eagerly anticipated is the card party and social to be given under the auspices of the Christian Brothers' Business College Alumni Association, Friday evening, at the Alumni Hall. The affair is for the benefit of the Athletic Association, and promises to be delightful in every particular. At 10 o'clock there will be dancing in addition to all the other features.

The Women's Auxiliary No. 2 of the Ancient Order of Hibernians are making arrangements for a 500 party and dance in the new A. O. H. Clubhouse, on Russell street, to be given Tuesday evening, October 27. The committee consists of Misses Jennie Mooney, Anna Donovan, Ella Sullivan, Katherine Madigan, Ann Sherlock and Mary Lawler.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Rose City Park Club will be hostesses at another of their semi-monthly afternoon card parties Monday, October 19. Both auction bridge and 500 will be played in the parlors on the first floor, while refreshments will be served in the banquet hall upstairs. The public is invited to attend these affairs.

Dr. V. B. de Lory will give a lecture in French Tuesday, the subject will be "Jeanne d'Arc." On Friday, October 23, another lecture will be delivered, the subject being "Montaigne." Both lectures will be given in room 303, Tilford building. Everyone is invited.

The Waucoma Club will give the second dance of the season Thursday evening, October 29, in Christensen's Hall. Patronesses are Mrs. R. W. Gramah, Mrs. L. Seward, Mrs. F. W. Carroll, Mrs. Charles F. Thompson.

The Aloha Dancing Club, composed of members of the younger married set will give its first dancing party at the Irvington Club on Wednesday evening. The club will give 19 dances during the season.

All former residents of Illinois are invited to meet in room H in the Central Public Library tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. The programme will be of an informal nature, consisting of reminiscence talks and music.

Modern Maccabees, Oregon Hive, 361, will give its second serial card party Thursday, October 29, at Allaky Hall. Halloween decorations will prevail, and refreshments will be served.

George Wright Relief Corps will give a 500 party in its hall, room 525 Court-house, next Thursday evening. Prizes will be given.

Friday, November 13, the Devotees of Revelry of the Kill Kare Club will revel in a dance at Christensen's hall.

Ladies of the First Congregational Church will hold their annual bazaar in the church parlors on November 17.

The G. N. C. B. Girls will entertain Thursday, October 22, at Cottillon Hall, with a dancing party.

William McKinley Women's Relief Corps No. 45 will hold their annual inspection Tuesday.

WEDDINGS.

Courtney-Fletcher. LAFAYETTE, Or., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Charming in every way was the wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Fletcher, of Lafayette, when their daughter, Eva Lois, became the bride of William George Courtney at high noon, September 23.

Little Horace Eldridge and Margaret Davidson were ring bearer and flower girl. They were followed by Miss Ollie Courtney, the bridegroom's twin sister, who was maid of honor. Miss Zayda Haney and Miss Anna Rogers were bridesmaids.

Keith Powell acted as best man. The bridal party stood under a "true love's knot" held in the bill of a white dove, while the impressive ring ceremony was read by Rev. A. A. Winter, of the Salem First United Evangelical Church, in the presence of about 45 friends and relatives.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Marion Cummins, of Portland, sang "Oh Promise Me," accompanied by Miss Gladys Biddle on the piano. The bride was lovely in a gown of heavy ivory-toned faille silk, V-shaped neck with high collar, lace and full-length veil fastened to a Juliet cap of lace was adorned with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Ollie Courtney, the maid of honor, was charming in a beautiful blue silk poplin, carrying an arm bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. Miss Zayda Haney, as bridesmaid in maize crepe de chine, carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

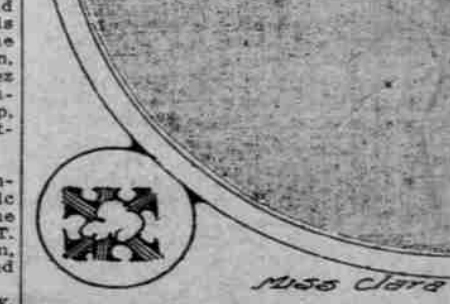

Miss Anna Rogers, as bridesmaid, wore a dainty shell pink crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. The house was beautifully decorated with Autumn leaves, ferns and flowers. The dining-room was resplendent in pink and white asters and pink gauze ribbon bows. A collation was served under an awning in the garden.

The bride's going-away gown was a green broadcloth suit, with maize crepe
