

SIN OF MAYOR NOT PLAYING POLITICS

City Attorney La Roche Says Recallers Fight Officials for Keeping Oaths.

METHODS ARE ATTACKED

Fake Stories Concerning Mr. Albee and Commissioners Circulated in Pure Malice, Is Charge. Conspiracy Is Seen.

"The real sin committed by Mayor Albee and City Commissioners Dick and Brewster, who recallers seek to recall from office at the special election Tuesday, is not the few minor mistakes they may have made. The trouble is they have not played politics; they have not played the game."

So said City Attorney La Roche in a statement issued yesterday covering his views of the political movement.

"Has not the time come," said Mr. La Roche, "when men who are serving the public, after having taken solemn oaths to observe the laws of the land and city, can win the approval of the community when they regard their oaths of office as of higher importance than the rules of the political game? When they find some man or set of men in the community wilfully violating the laws, are they to take the measurement of his potential political strength to determine whether it would be politic to prosecute him or them, or are they, on the other hand, to stand firm and say to themselves: 'On my oath of office I must prosecute, despite the consequences.'"

Making Terms Easy.

"Any statement from me in favor of the officers against whom this recall is aimed will be misconstrued—deliberately misconstrued—on the ground that my position as City Attorney is at stake, and therefore I speak from selfish personal interests. It would be a very simple thing for me to keep quiet and make terms which would make my position perfectly secure, but holding the views that I do, this would be quite impossible, if there were a dozen of me, I would not do it."

"What is there to this recall, and when did the hidden springs that have given it motion begin to operate?"

"From very reliable authority, the recall was set in motion before Mr. Albee had taken his oath of office—not because of anything that he had done, but because he was not the type and sort of man that certain politicians desire in office. He could be neither molded nor controlled and they knew it."

"The recallers, in circulating their petitions, employed women, and some of them have done so with a view to making so much money in the same space of time in their lives before."

All Kinds of Methods Used.

"All kinds of methods were employed, all kinds of stories fabricated and men of this community who count themselves fair-minded and honest have decided to vote against one or the other of the Commissioners in reliance on false statements made to them."

"It has been said that poor men were not welcome to the City Hall, and found it difficult to see him. There could be no more deliberate and false statement than this, for it is known to every man and woman in the City Hall that Mayor Albee's office is one of the most accessible in the city, and that almost any man with a tale and appearance of misfortune can, within five minutes, get from the Mayor's pocket every cent that he has."

"Stories without foundation and originating in pure malice have likewise been circulated about Commissioners Brewster and Dick, too numerous to mention."

Minor Errors Outweighed.

"The recallers speak of the mistakes that the Commissioners have made, and yet they never point them out; they only deal in generalities, and mistakes have been made. I know of none of moment. Everybody makes some errors; they would not be human if they didn't, but in looking over the record made by the present City Commissioners and the Mayor, the really splendid work that they have accomplished will completely obscure every little, minor error made. Small and carping criticisms have been abundant about the things which have been said of the meritorious accomplishments achieved. They speak about one, in all fairness they ought to speak of the others."

"Everybody who has followed the course of the Commissioners will know that they have done the things that many have been in this community in calculating statements designed to prejudice people against the Commissioners, none of them has the temerity to charge a single Commissioner with any act of dishonesty."

Public Money Is Safe.

"Everybody knows that they are honest. Everybody knows that the Commissioners believe that when public officer takes something that does not belong to him he is a thief and unworthy to hold office. Your public money is safe with these men. They won't steal, either directly or indirectly. There has been no graft around the City Hall, nor has there been any suspicion of any, and it is absolutely refreshing to have the public business of the city done out in the open, where everybody can see and hear all that takes place, so there can be no question."

"You are not approaching an ordinary election on the 27th. You are approaching a recall. Under an amendment to your constitution this was devised to protect the public against dishonesty, incompetence and wilful negligence. Ambitious and designing people are invoking this tremendous instrument of protection to crucify men who have done no wrong, and who stand as clean and as strong as the best men in your community."

TEST BY SNAKE BITE

Religious Sect Have Odd Way of Showing Their Faith.

New York Herald.

A faith in God that makes them capable of handling poisonous reptiles without fear of injury is one of the tenets of the "Snake Eaters," a religious organization which has been holding meetings in Dodge City, Kan. The poisoning and death of members of the band as a result of handling the snakes and prosecutions by the authorities, have not broken up the organization, which now has a membership scattered over southwestern Kansas and Oklahoma.

The presence of the members of this cult was revealed by the calling of the police to quell a disturbance that began as a result of "revelations" made by one of the speakers. The True Disciples of Christ is what the members call themselves.

The hair-pulling that was staged was a result of the interpretation given by one of these speakers, Mrs. Mary Covington, of Bloom, which reflected on the morality of Mrs. T. Covington. Mrs. Covington indignantly called that she was guilty of a sinful spirit as charged. The lie was passed and immediately the meeting was in an uproar. The hostess seized the speaker by the hair. Four other members, including Mrs. Covington's husband and son-in-law, tried to unlock her fingers. Then somebody called the police.

"We believe that through faith we can handle snakes," said Mrs. Covington. "For in Luke He tells us that if we have faith we can raise up serpents and not be harmed."

"It doesn't say that people won't be bitten by serpents, but if they are bitten it only shows that their faith is weak. If they die they are only laying down their lives to the Lord, and any of us are ready to do that."

That this belief of divine protection has been put to the test for years in southwestern Kansas, and sometimes with fatal results, was admitted. Fortunately for the mortality record, rattlesnakes are scarce in Kansas. Whenever a rattlesnake is found it is passed from hand to hand among the members. Even if some of the disciples are bitten, it does not deter the others from testing the strength of their faith.

At a meeting in Stafford County a few years ago, when 25 disciples were holding a fast meeting, three of them were bitten. All three of the bitten ones recovered, but the county authorities arrested the worshippers and took them to St. John. An attempt was made to take the minor children of the worshippers from them, but this failed.

IMPORTANT.

The beautiful pianos referred to in this advertisement are nearly all the latest style, brand new and not even shop worn. A few that are used are in the very best and guaranteed condition.

CAUTION.

We shall sell every instrument in this great stock before this, Portland's greatest piano sale closes, but the end will no doubt come very soon, for the crowds of enthusiastic piano buyers are selecting many pianos daily.

The manufacturers make the prices and certain it is, when the man who makes the instrument agrees to sell a certain number of pianos, there is not a firm, no matter what the circumstances might be that can duplicate the low prices.

The manufacturers' agreement with the Eilers Music House is that every time the manufacturers' representatives sell two pianos, the Eilers Music House agrees to buy three more of their surplus pianos which have accumulated on account of the recent stagnation. The wheels of a great factory cannot be stopped on a moment's notice. Therefore, the Eilers Music House buyer made an agreement to take the surplus stock from seven of the world's largest and best-known makers of high-grade pianos, and the manufacturers' representatives, Ellsworth, Barnes & Davey, are now in charge of the selling campaign of the big piano house.

Thus the Nation's largest institution is now selling the most costly of all makes at what they cost us, and some for even less, and included is also the residue of the costly pianos from the Soule Bros' Failure Sale, hence this double event, making possible the furnishing of more intrinsic value than ever before, and than ever will be possible again. But this sale cannot last long. There are no duplicates. Immediate action is essential. Come at once.

All Questions of Doubt Regarding the Service That Any of These Pianos May Give Has Been Eliminated.

When the Soule Bros' Failure Sale was in full force, many people would not buy, for they realized there would be no one to look to if the piano was not just as it was represented.
