Charles A. Johns—Every Republican in the state will remain hungry and Republican policies and principles will remain hungry if our Democratic friends under cover of personal criticism and abuse, can deceive and mislead the people as to the issues in this campaign.

DEFEATED CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR WHO INDORSE REPUBLICAN NOMINEES.

C. A. Johns, W. A. Carter, J. T. Geer, Grant B. Dimick, George C. Brownell.

BY A. M. CRAWFORD. If we believe in Democratic principles, then we should vote the Democratic ticket; if we believe in Republican principles, then we should vote the Republican ticket.

Gus C. Moser.

BY W. A. CARTER. I feel confident that the men and women of Oregon who have registered as members of the Republican party have done so because of their convictions regarding the great lines of its policy.

BY CHARLES A. JOHNS. Through the aid of the Republican party, and to overcome the existing political conditions, the people adopted what is known as the Oregon primary law and nominations were made in the recent primaries strictly in accord with and under the terms and provisions of that law.

Shall Oregon Retreat?

Dentistry Bill A Humiliation
