HILLSBORO RALLY CROWDED TO DOORS

"Standing Room Only" Signs Up Early Where Booth and Withycombe Speak.

VITAL ISSUES DISCUSSED

Candidate for Governor Pleads for Economy in Administration Affairs. Mr. Booth Decrying Low Tariff, Depression Cause

HILLSBORO, Or., Oct. 24 .- (Special.) The "standing room only" sign was put up early at the opera-house here tenight at the big Republican rally where R. A. Booth, Republican nominee for the United States Senate, and Dr. James Withycombe, Republican nominee for Governor, spoke at what was declared to be one of the most successful political meetings ever held here.

Dr. C. J. Smith, Democratic nominee for Governor, spoke in opposition at the Courthouse, where there were noted many empty seats. Mr. Smith's attempt to precipitate a joint discussion with Mr. Withycombe proved fruitless.

Return to Farm Is Hope.

Return to Farm is Hope.

Dr. Withycombe recalled incidents of his career as a farmer near Hillsboro, of his work in tilling the soil and making a success of his place and of going later to the Oregon Agricultural Cellege to teach scientific farming methods to other farmers of the state. He said that after he had done the good as Governor that his experience and ideals prompted it was his hope to return to the soil and pass the remainder of-his days on the old farm. Taking up the issues of the campaign Dr. Withycombe emphasized the subject of law enforcement in his platform. "I do not need to tell you, my old neighbors, where I stand on this subject of strict law enforcement." said Dr. Withycombe; you know. You know that my life among you has been without a single incident that cannot be pointed to by me with pardonable pride. I cannot conceive of any man seeking the high office of Governor who does not stand for law enforcement. That is a duty. But, a desperate opposition is trying to make out that I am non-committal on the subject of law enforcement, whereas my every action and every interest show by carnest interest in the highest ideals of community as well as public life. mmunity as well as public life.

Home Protection Promised.

"As I have said, it is not necessary for me to emphasize these facts to you for me to emphasize these facts to you who know me, who know what my private life has been, what my public life has been, and who know that I have always stood for the upbuilding and protection of the home and always will continue to do so, as Governor or as private citizen."

Dr. Withycombe also reiterated his loval support of the direct primary loyal support of the direct primary law, the laws initiated by the people, the single item veto which he was the first man in Oregon publicly to recommend and other constructive measures which, he said, have come to stay. Persistent and unscrupulous efforts to misrepresent me on these matters have come to naught," he said. He also out-lined his stand on the subject of tax-ation, taking the view that the present rate of taxation is wholly out of pro-

Less extravagance in administration

"Less extravagance in administration of state affairs and a careful, business-like and honest handling of the people's affairs will lighten this burden," said he. "It must be, can be and shall be lightened," he declared.

He was kept busy meeting old-time friends and neighbors until a late hour. Although he has been on the move constantly for several weeks, rarely getting more than five or six hours sleep each night, the Doctor was in the finest condition and spirit and in the finest condition and spirit and was highly optimistic at the prospect of his election by an overwhelming yote. He plans to leave early tomor-row morning for Portland to resume his campaign in Multnomah County.

Mr. Booth Discusses Vital Issues. Following Dr. Withycombe, Mr. Booth for an hour or more covered the Na-tional issues of the day in detail, emphasizing the main point at issue, the question of bread and butter for the Nation.

What are the real and vital issues of the campaign?" asked Mr. Booth.
"Are they whether the timber purchases of a decade ago or more have increased in value or are they whether the food on American tables shall be raised on American tables shall be raised on American ranges and Ameri-can farms, and whether the clothes we wear on our backs shall be made in America, by American workmen, or shall they be made in Great Britain or some other foreign soil?" Lowering Tariff Hit.

Mr. Booth then touched on the business depression of the period, of the thousands seeking work and no work to be had, due to closed mills and factories, closed by the lifting the bars in the tariff wall and letting in all foreign goods with which the American workman cannot compete.

Mr. Booth closed his address with an appeal for votes, not so much for him self as for a representative of the prin-ciples for which the Republican party

HOPMEN PLAN COMBINE

Indications Point to 85 Per Cent of Growers in Organization.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 24.—(Special.)— Preliminary plans for the organization of the Pacific Hopgrowers' Association were made here today at a conference of Willamette Valley growers and E. L. Cünningham, Charles Crawford, E. E. Blalack and George Hewlett, hopgrowers of Ukiah and Hopland, Call, and members of the California Hopgrowers' Association.

Mr. Hewlett said that the local growers' Association.

Mr. Hewlett said that the local growers were favorable to the plans suggested by the Californians and that he believed at least $5 per cent of the growers of the Pacific Coast would become members of the association. He said it was proposed to organize along the line of the California Raisin Association, which gmbraces $500 growers, and through organization has advanced the price of their products from four to five cents annually.

It is planned for the proposed organization to disseminate reliable information regarding hops so that the members will obtain the best prices and speculation in the product will be reduced to a minimum. Another meeting will be held here Tuesday afternoon, when it is expected that organization will be effected.

The Californians met at Independence tonight with growers of that section urging that they become members of the proposed organization.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—The Supreme Court today, in a majority opinion, held that T. J. Cleeton is not a Circuit Judge, but the County Judge of Multnomah County, that virtually all business transacted in his cour as Circuit Judge is valid, and that Rufus C. Holman has a clear title to the office of County Commissioner. The opinion was in the case of the state on information of Walter H. Evans District Attoorney, against Mr. Hol-

No ruling was made by the court upon the status of Department No. 6 of the Circuit Court, of which Judge Cleeton has been the presiding judge.
It is evident, however, that until after the election there will be no judge of the department, and it may be that C. U. Gantenbein, Republican nominee, and John Van Zante, Democratic nominee for the judgeship, are seeking an office which does not exist. It is believed that the one who gets a majority of the votes will proceed through mandamus to compel the Secretary of State to issue a certificate of election.
The question will then be placed squarely before the Supreme Court.

Later, at a rousing public meeting, he outlined the principles upon which he asks the people of Oregon to place him at the heim of the ship of state.

"I have been looking forward to this date, and it has been in my mind throughout the campaign." said Dr. Withycombe, "because it brings me back to my old neighbors and their children and to one of the happlest periods of my life."

It will thus be seen that the Legislature had ample power to create the Board of County Commissioners of Multnomah County. That department of the state government also possessed authority to name the person who should constitute the third member of the board.
