ings in Portland, but the high buildings of Portland depend upon the prosperity of the Oregon farmer and the Oregon wage-carner." He submitted that the Government should give every encouragement pos-sible to the homestcader on the land; that it should assist him in reclaiming the arid acres; should give him a long time to make his payments and enable him to get money at reasonable rates. EPUBLICANS HOLI FORTS AS ORATORS Grand Old Party Spellbinders Win Crowde From Alder Turks Said to Have Been the present Democratic Administration, went into effect, the impertation of meat from Argentina, of lumber from Canada, of cotton and worsted goods from England and of hay, oats, corn, butter and eggs from various other for-eign countries, has increased manifold. Bribed Lavishly to Involve Win Crowds From Alder-

American Workers Suffer.

"The money paid for these commodi-ties," he added, "goes to the foreign countries, and to foreign workingmen. This money," he declared, "is the nat-ural heritage of the American laborer."

"The Democratic tariff policy," he said, "deprives the workingman of the right to earn this money and deprives

AMIDON'S TALK TELLING

Street Speakers.

Secretary of County Committee Ac cepts Paget's Challenge About Suffrage .- Prosperity Platform Applauded Lustily.

right to earn this money and deprives the American business man and Amer-ican industry of the benefits accruing from its circulation. "So far as the peace policy of Presi-dent Wilson is concerned." continued Mr. Booth, "he is ready to support it as much as any other man. "But it is not an issue," he protested, "Theorem is in forward of heaves" When the fervor of debate waned at the Alder-street convention of Demo-crats. Progressives, Republicans, So-cialists and anti-Prohibitionists last might, as the night grow late, the Re-publicans were seen to have spiked the enemy's guns and to be holding forth twictorious in an enthusiastic raily. Hampered by a late arrival on the scene of action and an unfavorable speaking location, the Republican forces had an location, the Republican forces had an uphill fight, but succeeded in winning the crowd away from the other speakres a few at a time until they had cap-tured the largest group on the street, Fortunes of war shifted rapidly early in the evening. A speaker for the den-tistry bill held the crowd first, which was depleted when Bill Hanley entered the lists. B. Lee Paget's stentorian Democratic tones placed all opposition in the background on that block until grew tired.

Amidon Fires Answer Back.

Amidon Fires Answer Back. Elmer L. Amidon, secretary of the Republican county central committee, fired the first gun for the Republicans when he sprang to his feet in answer to a challenge by Paget to tell why the Republicans had done nothing for the women of the state. He pointed out that the women of the state received the franchise under Republican admin-istration, that there are more than 800 mittees, more than 150 on the Republi-can state committees, and that the Democratic party has always opposed Democratic party has always opposed woman suffrage, the most notable oc-casion of which was President Wilson's refusal to give a satisfactory hearing to the 10,000 women who marched to the White House.

to the 10,000 women who marched to the White House. George J. Cameron, chairman of the Republican county central committee, was the second speaker, followed by Charles A. Johns. The crowd was then beginning to be won over and the Re-publican automobile was surrounded by a throng many feet deep in every di-rection. W. H. Robinson, Walter L. Tooze, Everett Jones, and J. L. Ham-mersly were the speakers who followed, the crowd getting larger all the while. Hantey Talk Takes. When William Hanley spoke he gained a large audience and his listen-ers were enthusiastic when he de-dared that the real issue of this cam-paign is the solving of the high cost Coy spoke to an enthusiastic audience at Lents.

THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN, PORTLAND, NOVEMBER 1, 1914.

Murphy and sister, Alodia, all of Seat-BRITAIN CHARGES german intrigue

Preparations Long Made for Invasion of Egypt and Attack on Suez Canal--Mohammedan Uprising Part of Plan.

dealing with the situation in Turkey were breaches of neutrality by Turkey.

Nation in War.

TRIBESMEN ARE INCITED

He promised, it elected, to maintain a determined stand against the free tolls policy of the Wilson Administra-tion and severely criticised the Demo-crats for repealing the free tolls clause after promising, in their Baltimore platform, to maintain it. He made an unaculyocal declaration

He made an unequivocal declaration of his attitude toward the Wilson Ad-ministration when he asserted that the only act by which that Administration can be measured is its tariff legislacomplained of several breaches of neutrality. As Turkey shut off communication with the British Emabssy on Friday, the British government, considering this a prelude to further acts of ag-gression, declares its intention to take action to protect British interests and British territory and also Esynt from tion. In conclusion, he reiterated that the British territory and also Egypt from attacks that have been made or threatened. Assurances Given by Allies.

"At the beginning of the war, the British government gave definite as-surances that if Turkey remained neutral her independence and integrity would be respected during the war and in times of peace. In this France and Russia concurred. The British government since then has endeavored with the greatest patience and forbearance to preserve friendly relations, in spite of increasing breaches of neutrality on the part of the Turkish government at Constantinople in the case of German "The destiny of the country," he said, "Is in the hands of the Country, he said, ing man and the laboring man's chil-dren, but the future progress of those children is limited by the wage of their forthere " country, thus committing an unprece-dented violation of the most ordinary rules of international law, comity and

When William Hanley spoke he gained a large audience and his listen-ers were enthusiastic when he de-clared that the real issue of this cam-paign is the solving of the high cost of living, and that what Portland needs is more producers rather than more capitalists. more capitalists. Hanley Jake and State of the entire Republic was greeted Mr. Booth also addressed a meeting at the Public Library early last night. Contrary to assertions in the Evening Journal last night that the Deutsche Zeitung, which is supporting the can-Zeitung, which is supporting the can-the Gram officers and crews of the the German warships Goeben and Breslau took refuge in Constantinople the attitude of the Turkish Government to send away the Turkish Government to send away the German officers and crews of the

Murphy and sister, Alodia, all of Seat-tie. The funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Cathe-dral of Immaculate Conception, Fif-teenth and Davis streets. The inter-ment will be made in Mount Calvary Cemetery. The honorary pallbearers will be Henry E. McGinn, George A. Brodie, C. P. Maginnis, John M. Gearin, W. R. McKay and J. P. Kavanaugh. The ac-tive pallbearers will be James Con-ley, John F. Reilly, William P. Sinnott, Walter H. Evans, Charles J. Schnabel and Richard Kirk. Acting for the Multhomah Bar Asso-ciation, Circuit Judge Gatens has ap-pointed the following committee to draft resolutions and to take appro-priate action in memory of Mr. Murphy: Charles J. Schnabel, John M. Gearin, (4(4)) DRUGS 44.53 1+151.00

%|0|

0

D

R

D

С

A

R

0

DRUGS

Late Dan R. Murphy, Whose Funeral Will Be Helf Today.

Cecil H. Bauer, Walter H. Evans and George A. Brodie. IS $15,000 FIRE LOSS

FOUGHT WITH DIFFI FLAMES CULTY AT FOOT OF THOMPSON.

Several Firemen Almost Suffocated by Smoke, Which Starts in Pacific Door Company's Plant.

Lumber and machinery to the value of about $15,000 were destroyed, several "On Thursday, October 29, the British Government learned with the smoke and extensive jumber yards were of about $15,000 were destroyed, several war had, without any declaration of war, without warning and without provocation of any sort, made wanton attacks upon open and undefended towns in the Black Sea, of a friendly inght. The origin of the fire is a mys-City Is Victim of Halloween rece-nary Part of the lumber destroyed was purchased from the now bankrupt Th. Johannessen Lumber Company by the Pacific Door Company, of which M. G. Thorsen is president. Mr. Thorsen and Mr. Johannessen were indicted by the Federal grand jury for conspiracy to conceal the assets of a bankrupt and Sreat some Thursday morning.

Newberg Has "Dry" Parade.

DAILY METEOBOLOGICAL REPORT.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Holiday Selections

Made these days, have all the advantages of Variety, Completeness and Price. Never in the 49 years of our business life have our lines presented greater attractions to the careful, discriminating buyer. The privilege of making Holiday Reservations at this time is extended our patrons.

Glance Over This List of Possibilities

Ansco Cameras and Kodaks High-Grade Cutlery Thermos Bottles Barometers Aneroids Compasses Thermometers Perfumes - Imported and Domestic Toilet Sets Manicure Sets in Sterling, Parisian Ivory, Pearl and Ebony Fine Umbrellas Trunks, Bags and Suitcases Fine Leathers Opera Glasses Field Glasses

Binoculars

Telescopes Pictures, Framed and Unframed

"Wood-Lark" Building

Fountain Pens-Waterman and Conklin (genuine)

Cross English Gloves for Men

Brushes in Ebony, Ivory and Rare Woods

Sweet Grass and Japanese Baskets

Hotpoint Electric Specialties

Manning-Bowman Percolators, Chafing Dishes

Genuine Parisian Ivory

Exclusive Stationery

Art Brass and Bronze

Cut Glass

Real Shell Eyeglass Mountings Fine Leather Cases for Eye-

glasses and Spectacles

Auto Lunch Sets

Alabaster in Many Forms

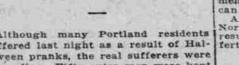

Fancy Clocks

Alder at West Park

GERMAN LOSSES 420,000

The total to date is about

Reports from stations for convalescents show that thousands of wounded already have returned to the front and others are being used as instructors

Pranks Until Midnight.

Clark, 50 men from the day relief un-

POLL FAVORS M'ARTHUR Straw Vote Shows Him Far in Lead

Over All Opponents.

GHOSTS SEEN EVERYWHERE

of a poll made during the past few days in Precinct 131, in the Mount

 The producers rather than "I believe in prosperity starting datases of the consistence in prosperity starting datases of the consistence in the Natherland starting states of the consistence in the Natherland states of the consistence is a crowd of more than in the Device and disters of the consistence is a prevalue and best of the consistence is a prevalue and best of the consistence is a crowd of more than is special consistence is a prevalue and best of the consistence is a prevalue and prevente the scene. Lieutenant Mosher, com-tinople, have usurped the authority of the government and have been able to coerce the Sultan's ministers into tak-ing up the policy of aggression. Lavish Bribery Charged.

race wherein 20 men sat on the floor, two feet. Then his friends, fearing that the exertion was too much for him, stood him up and sternly com-manded him to be quiet. A pretty feature of the entertain-ment was a swimming contest in a tank covered with floating lights. The programme was followed by a lunch.

Casualty List for Last Week, as An-

Friends of C. N. McArthur were jubilant last night when they learned

Scott district. The result of this pair was: McArthur, 71; Lafferty, 37; Flegel, 17. In the May primaries Laf-ferty received 36 votes to 18 for Mc-Arthur, so the latter's supporters are highly elated over the change in senti-ment in favor of the regular Republi-

Thursday morning.

Many Gatherings Addressed.

Judge A. C. Dayton, candidate for District Judge on the Republican ticket, and Thomas Ryan spoke to many in Upper Albina. Glen Holman and Everett L. Jones were speakers before a large crowd in North Port-land. N. R. Jacobson and J. M. Wood spoke for Republican principles before crowds at Union and Russell and Rus. crowds at Union and Russell and Rusand Williams avenues. The big automobile being used by the downtown speakers was donated to the Republican cause by Jake Spady, a worker on the East Side.

John Lane spoke to a meeting at St. Johns last night, cartooning Chamber-lain and speaking for the candidacies of Booth, McArthur, Withycombe and others on the Republican ticket.

of Booth, McArtiner, was one continuous succession of ora-thors on the Republican ticket. The speakers from all parts of the city reported last night that the Re-publican spirit was to be found every-where. Many cheers greeted the speakers and from their comments and applause the majority in all the crowds were heartly in favor of the return to Oregon of the full dinner pall. Oregon of the full dinner pall.

ince for Congress, made several speeches on the East Side last night before large audiences. Benjamin before large audiences. Benjamin Brick, Democratic nominee for County Commissioner, spoke at a banquet of the Oregon Society of Engineers.

WORKERS ACCLAIM BOOTH (Continued From First Page.)

may make homes for themselves upon wherever he went.

He reached Medford late Thursday. Speaking that night in the Natatorium, which contains the largest auditorium the land. He promised, if elected, to attempt to obtain for Oregon the return of the in Southern Oregon, he was given an funds accruing from the sale of public lands in this state that, through the inactivity of someone representing Oregon in Congress, has been allowed to be used in developing other states.

He expressed his belief in national for-Rogue River and other places, arriv-ing at Grants Pass before noon. He held an informal levee at the Jose-phine Hotel and after lunch again ests, but he insisted that the Government has no more right to take the wealth produced by the Oregon forests and use it for developing other states than it has the right to take the iron ore of Pennsylvanta or the copper of Michishook hands with scores of people who crowded in to meet him. One of his largest audiences was that gan and use it for the development of Oregon.

gathered in the City Park at Grants Pass at 3 o'clock Friday. He addressed the gathering, as in his other speeches, on the issues of the campaign, and was "I am against a policy that holds back the development of the state," he said, "but I believe the state should be held back from exploitation. The received enthusiastically. He left Grants Pass early Friday evening, ar-riving in Portland yesterday morning. "The enthusiasm of the Republicans of Jackson and Josephine Counties was a pleasant surprise," said Mr. Booth last night. "I knew that they were earnest in their support of me, but I did not expect to find them so active. "I have not been treated with greater consideration in any county, and f keenly appreciate the vigorous personal support and the loyalty to the ticket. ecclved enthusiastically. revenue accruing from the development the state's resources should be used building roads, reclaiming arid land d in the development of its rivers and harbors.

He presented the fact that all the boasted expenditures made by the Government for river and harbor work in Oregon are but a mere pittance com-pared with the money brought into the state by the lumber industry. He said that more money came into Oregon in 1911 and 1912 through the sale of lumthan has come into the state from National treasury in a generation,

Wage-carner Big Factor.

In a detailed discussion of the politi-cal situation as it affects the working man he asserted that all the wealth ing man he asserted that all the wealth in the world comes from two sources— either from the soil in one form or an-other, or from the hands of the work-ingman. These two sources of wealth must be encouraged, he insisted, if the state is to prosper. "Our growth," he continued, "does not depend upon a lot of high build-pears in Former Home. "I had a splendid homecoming." declared R. A. Booth yesterday upon his return from a three days' tour through Jackson and Josephine counties. patiently, protesting against many acts which have been constantly committed The people of those Southern Oregon districts turned out to greet Mr. Booth, not particularly as the Republican can-didate for the United States Senate, contrary to neutrality and warning the government of the Sultan against the the danger in which they were placing the future of the Ottoman Empire. but as a favorite son returned after a long absence occupying a position of honor and importance in the world.

"Great Britain, as well as France and Russia, has watched these proceedings

"Vigorously assisted by the Ambassa-Mr. Booth is, a former resident of Grants Pass and passed many years of his life in Jackson, Josephine and dors of Germany and Austria, German military elements in Constantinople have been persistently doing their ut-Douglas counties. Regardless of party, most to force Turkey into war, both they turned out and paid him honor. by activit Regardless of party, the people of Southern Oregon will give him their so lavish. by activities in the service of the Turks the and by bribes, of which they have been trol.

support. His recent trip, therefore, was one continuous succession of ova-tions and manifestations of .esteem, armed force for attack on Egypt. The big delegation of childran interest in childran out and armed to assist in this rest the which were many women. He held an impromptu reception and and some of these have crossed the Sinai frontier. Transport has been colat night spoke to a packed house in he Ashland Theater. Women and oung girls took a prominent part in he proceedings. The following morning he toured Gulf of Akabah.

Mohammedans Are Incited.

"The notorious Shelk Aziz Shawish published and disseminated through Syria and probably India an inflamma-tory document urging the Mohamme-dana to fight against Great Britain. on $2000 bonds. in intrigues in Cairo against British occupation, and who is now attached to the German Embassy in Constantinople.

in Southern Oregon, he was given an enthusiastic greeting. Accompanied by prominent Jackson County citizens, Mr. Booth continued his triumphal tour into Josephine County Friday morning. He stopped on the way at Central Point, Gold Hill, Bogue Elver and other places arrive has been busily occupied in Syria try-ing to incite the people to take part in this conflict. "Aggressive action was certain to be the result of the activity of the numer-ous German officers employed in the Turkish army and acting under the orders of the German government, who thus succeeded in forcing the hands of the advisers of the Sultan. "German intrigue cannot influence the loyalty to Great Britain of the 70,- 000,000 Mohammedans in India and the feeling of the Mohammedans of Egypt. They must look with detestation on the They must look with detestation on the misguided action, under foreign in-fluences at Constantinople, which will inevitably lead to the disintegration of the Turkish Empire, which shows such forgetfulness of the many occasions on which Great Britain has shown her friendship to Turkey."

FUNERAL RITES TODAY Members of Bench Among Pallbearers for D. R. Murphy.

support and the loyalty to the ticket. "They made it a real homecoming for me in Southern Oregon and it felt good to get back among my old friends. "My trip has convinced me more firmly than ever that the Republican ticket will be successful next Tuesday."

Postal Savings Bank Grows.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Oct. 31.-(Spe-ial.)-The Chehalis Postal Savings cisi.)-The Chehalis Postal Savings Bank deposits have doubled in the last few months. July 15 there were 35 de-positors with $5266 in deposits; October

He

left

30 there were 74 depositors, the amount deposited aggregating $11,040.

were well toward the far end of the building when the blaze sprang up in the other end, cutting off their escape. At the same time a strong draft back knocked some of the firemen off their feet. Three of the men were overcome for a few minutes and their comrades had to drag them out.

for a few minutes and their comrades had to drag them out. It was necessary to run long hose lines from the fireboat and from the engines on Macadam Road to fight the flames. A second alarm was turned in by Batallion Chief Holden, and three more engines were rushed to the scene.

flames. A second alarm was turned in by Batallion Chief Holden, and three more engines were rushed to the scene. numerous. It was not until after midnight that the blaze was completely under con-

Halloween Ghosts Many,

Halloween parties flourished in all parts of the city and everywhere boys and girls, clad in white sheets, darted about the streets with jack o' lanterns. Some of the fun became serious. M. G. Thorsen, president of the Pa-cific Door Company, stated last night that the lumber and machinery stored in the building was completely covered by insurance. This company at present is not operating, and its lumber and machinery had been stored for the sea-son. Raoul Cordova, 18 years old, spent the night in the City Jall as a result of his attempt to be funny. Dressed in woman's clothes, he boarded a street-

The T. H. Johannessen Lumber Comcar to come down town. He didn't get very far. Coming across the Haw-thorne bridge he decided it was time pany went bankrupt April 22, 1913, and the Pacific Coast Door Company and the Fisher-Thorsen Company were large creditors. W. A. Dempsey was appointed trustee, and on investigation said he found that the Th. Johannessen to start operations, and pulled the trolley off the wire. Disorderly controlley duct was the charge lodged against him said he found that the Th. Johannessen Company, shortly before becoming bankrupt, had turned over to the Pa-cific Door Company lumber and ma-chinery to the value of about $14,000. The information he gathered was turned over to the Federal Grand Jury last Summer, and resulted in the in-Mrs. M. L. Knaggs returned to her home at 386 Hoyt street to find the house lighted and mysterious noises coming from within. She went to a coming from within, one went to a neighbor and telephoned the police sta-tion. Six officers were rushed to the scene, but before they arrived, six boys, having rumaged through the house, departed in a hurry. dictment of M. G. Thorsen and Th. Johannessen. Both are now at liberty

Woman Points Revolver.

Patrolmen Burke and Bales went to Fourth and College streets to stop dep. NEWBERG, Or., Oct. 31.—(Special.) -Men, women and children to the number of several hundred paraded the redations. As they turned a corner

-Men, women and number of several hundred paraded the streets tonight, carrying banners, on which read "Vote for Prohibition," "Vote Oregon Dry." The downtown streets were crowded far into the night. "You can't take my fence away, I tell you! I Tm going to stay here all night." The officers persuaded her to go into her house, promising to keep the boys away. Wagons were stolen from East Twenwagons were stolen from East Twen-tieth and Belmont streets and from East Twenty-seventh and Stark streets early last night. A portion of one was found in the Laurelhurst district a little later, but the other sections were still scattered about the city at a late PORTLAND, Oct. 31.—Maximum temper-ature, 58.4 degrees; minimum, 54.4 degrees, River reading at 8 A. M., 3.5 feet; change in last 24 hours, 0.4 foot rise. Total rainfall (5 P. M. to 5 P. M.), 05 inch; total rainfall since September 1, 1914, 6.54 inches; normal rainfall since September 1, 353 inches; ex-cess of rainfall since September 1, 1914, 1.01 inches. Total sunshine October 31, hone; possible sunshine, 10 hours, 8 minutes. Barometer (reduced to sea-level) at 3 P. H., 23.79 inches. At 565 East Nineteenth street the family was just preparing to enjoy ice to their dismay, they discovered the freezer had been stolen from the back porch. It was found empty in front of WEATHER CONDITIONS. A moderate disturbance is off the North Canada, Rains have fallen in Eastern Ore-ton and Washington, British Columbia and New Maxico. The weather is cooler in West-ern Canada, Washington, Central Montana, Western North Dakota, Wyoming, South-calitornia Coasi, except in the extreme other sections of the country. The conditions are favorable for rain north-sections are favorable for rain northesatern Washington and Southwest-easterly, moderate breeze to fresh gale along the coast. FORECASTS: the house.

"We saw two boys around here not "If they got away with all that cream, "If they got away with all that cream, sion for the rest of the night, anyway."

Live Chicken Left at Door. Boys rang the bell at 687 Wasco street, left a live chicken on the porch and fied.

"If you can't find the owner tonight we may eat it tomorow," Officer Crane was told over the telephone. At 10 o'clock last night Officers

Portland and vicinity-Sunday, rain; outheast wind. Oregon-Sunday, rain; southeast winds, noderate breeze to fresh gale along the At 10 o'clock last night Officers Stanton and Crane, who "doubled up" on the telephone switchboard for the occasion, said about 150 calls of this nature had come in. In every section of the city residents were ready to help the police, and their help kept the of-ficers jumping sideways all night. Under the orders of Chief of Police modelate oreast of rain, cooler north-east portion; southeast winds, moderate breeze to freeh gale along the coast. Idaho-Sunday, cloudy, probably rain; cooler southwest partien. THEODORE F. DRAKE. Acting District Forecaster.

Charles Nestley Found Insanc

Charles Nestley, an elderly resident Apple-eating contests, laughing con- of Lents, was examined and found intests, and all manner of Hallowe'en same yesterday by the county authori-stunts contributed to make the party ties. He was said to have frightened to the Y. M. C. A. last night a most en-oyable affair.

But best of all, was an unnameable acts.

A Fine Specimen Of Age and Strength

John Paulin, Sr., Says: "Peruna Gured My Catarrh."

Mr. John Paulin, Sr., a pioneer of the state of Wisconsin, writes from Grafton, Wis.:

"I have used Peruna with good results for coughs and colds, which troubled me every fall and winter. It has also cured my catarrh, which always became worse when affected with but a slight cold. I am recom-mending Peruna because it is worth its weight in gold."-Mr. John

Those who object to liquid medicines can now procure Peru Tablets.

Daniel R. Murphy, former United States District Attorney, who died Thursday at his late residence, 475 Holladay avenue, from pneumonia after a short illness, was born at Champoeg, Or. April 16, 1860. He is survived by three children, Deputy District Attorney Arthur A. Murphy, Adrian J. and Ruth V. Murphy, of St. Paul, Or.; Matt and Joseph Murphy, of St. Paul, Or.; Matt and Joseph Murphy, of Seattle, and five sisters, Mrs. Lucy Turner, Mrs. Philip Kelly, Miss Octavia