Malcolm, Mrs. H. J. Houghton, Mrs. J. C. Moreland, Mrs. B. H. Nicoll, Mrs. L. P. Sampson, Mrs. F. C. Wasserman and Mrs. J. B. Werlein.

"California night" will be observed at the Commercial Club on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The dance, the atmosphere of the entire evening to be strictly California. Decorations, songs and the menu will be along these lines, and it promises to be a gay affair. H. W. MacLean will be chairman of the evening.

At a pretty luncheon presided over by Miss Stella Kress on Thursday the engagement of Miss Gertrude McLean, daughter of a prominent lumberman of Hoquiam, Wash., and Glenn B. Chapman, of Chicago, was announced. Miss McLean is the house guest of Mrs. Charles Larkins, and will be guest of honor at a luncheon for which Mrs. E. P. Keller will be hostess Wednesday.

The Cathedral Ladies' Aid Society will give their annual tea for the benefit of the St. Agnes Baby Home, Park Place, Wednesday, November 18, at the residence of Mrs. J. P. Cooke, 351 Lovejoy street, who has kindly donated the use of her home for the occasion. The women are working hard to make the tea a success. As it is a worthy cause the affair should be well patronized. Mrs. J. P. Cronin is chairman of the committee, assisted by the following: Miss M. McKay, Mrs. J. Murphy, Mrs. Joseph McCusker, Mrs. Grassele, Mrs. P. J. Flynn, Mrs. D. W. Burke and Mrs. H. B. Irwin. A booth for the sale of home-made candy will be in charge of Miss Inez Barrett, Mrs. E. H. Anthony, Mrs. C. Campbell and Mrs. McDougall. The following women will assist in the dining-room: Miss Gill, Miss K. Klossman, Miss I. Daly, Miss Helen McCusker, Miss M. Burke, Miss Mayme Helen Flynn and Miss Mary Jessup.

Mrs. J. K. Baldwin, of Denver, Colo., who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. C. Costello, for several weeks, returned to her home yesterday via California. During her visit here Mrs. Baldwin was entertained extensively, among the recent affairs being a Halloween party, for which Mr. and Mrs. Costello were hosts, and a charming luncheon presided over by Mrs. Costello on Monday. Mrs. Baldwin also shared honors with Mrs. Lampling, of Seattle, at the luncheon given by Mrs. W. H. Boyer on Wednesday.

Miss Helen Baldwin, who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Costello, all summer, will remain until after the holidays.

Tuesday night will be "Society night" at the Manufacturers' and Merchants' Show, at the Armory, and special features have been added to the already long list of attractions. Prominent society matrons will act as judges, including Mrs. W. D. Scott, chairman; Mrs. L. N. Lipman, Mrs. William D. Wieselwright, Mrs. Thomas Honeyman, Mrs. Julius L. Meier, Mrs. L. C. Gilman, Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, Mrs. Edward T. Hughes, Mrs. W. P. Turner, Mrs. A. A. Morrison, Mrs. A. M. Lupton, Miss Lucille Dunne and Miss Alice Gilman.

There will be operatic concerts by a chorus of 50 voices, consisting of the Portland Oratorio Society, Joseph A. Finley, director, assisted by the Handel Vocal Society, conducted by Joseph A. Finley. Mrs. Adelbert Van Brakle, accompanist. The assisting soloists are Mrs. Gabriel-Pullin, Miss Meril H. Woody, sopranos; Norman A. Hood, tenor; Joseph A. Finley, tenor; and Andrew B. Caughey, baritone.

The charity card party given at the Hotel Benson Wednesday was one of the most successful affairs of the week. Sixty tables of cards were played in the crystal dining-room. The party was open to the public.

In addition to cards the La Boheme quartet contributed to the programme from 3 until 5 o'clock. The success of the affair is in large measure due to Mrs. R. E. Bondurant, who worked untiringly for the party. The proceeds were given to the Associated Charities to buy shoes for poor children.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Steinbach will be at home during the winter at 721 Main street.

The members of the U-re-ka Club enjoyed a pleasant afternoon Wednesday at the home of Mrs. D. K. Liff. Five hundred was the diversion of the afternoon, and Mrs. Emil Schacht entertained most delightfully with a few selections on the piano, after which an elaborate collation was served. Mrs. F. E. Diabrow received first prize and Mrs. E. C. Kroll received the consolation prize.

Those present were: Mrs. F. E. Diabrow, Mrs. F. Wendler, Mrs. B. F. Padrick, Mrs. A. C. Thorpe, Mrs. Emil Schacht, Mrs. W. J. C. Kroll, Mrs. D. L. Povey, Miss Ada Taylor, Mrs. Louise Williams, Mrs. Corbin and the hostess.

Rehearsals for the Multnomah Club's play, "Colonial Beaux and Belles in London," are now under way. The event is anticipated as one of the bright spots on the social calendar for December 14 and 15. The performance will be held in the Helig Theater. Already a number of society folk are planning to take boxes and loges for parties for the event.

It has been a long time since the club has given an affair of this kind, but whenever anything in the line of a show has been arranged by the organization it has always been a success. The committee in charge predicts that the "Beaux and Belles" will be as great an attraction as any that has ever been offered and that the performances will draw capacity houses.

Among those who will participate are: Miss Grace O'Neill, Miss Margaret Rader, Mrs. Delphine Marx, M. Pauline Miller Chapman, Mrs. Charles Henney, Miss Goldie Peterson, Miss Mabel Smith, Hartridge Whipp, O. W. Davidson, Norman G. Hoese, C. E. Patterson, A. G. Harbaugh, Miss Marjorie Roberts, Miss Melba Westergaard, Mrs. Ford Blessing, Mrs. Anne Gleibson, Mrs. P. L. Thompson, Mrs. R. R. King, Miss Elsie Lawlor, W. H. Kelly, D. H. Beck, E. L. Stone, C. R. Simpson, Mrs. Kenneth Morrison, Harold A. Wilkins, E. T. Collins, P. S. Brown, J. A. Cook, Blaine B. Cole, R. G. Assman, Gerald Bassett, R. B. Crisley, J. S. Gordon, R. Feidert, Imber, Hartley Hutchinson, E. R. Holt, Marion Coffey, Louis J. Cullen, Rex H. Conant, A. G. Tindolph, E. L. Williams, R. W. Barry, H. H. Grant, Albert Anderson, Thomas D. Stoughton, Charles B. Lynn, Jack Price, A. Waiken Noble, Pink Day, J. King Bryon, Sam Stanton, F. S. Olson, D. Griff, A. E. Mackenzie, P. R. Gunnison and J. A. Constantine.

A charming affair of the week was the elaborate dancing party for which Miss Agnes Torgler was hostess Friday evening at her home. The rooms were decorated prettily with huge clusters of shaggy chrysanthemums, palms and ferns.

It was one of the most delightful affairs of the season, and the gowns of the fair sex were the source of much admiration. Among those who enjoyed Miss Torgler's party were: Mrs. J. C. Gilman, Mrs. F. H. Harkness, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dorney, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. W. Davis, Miss Flo Herman, Miss Genevieve Orton, Miss Irene Hunt, Miss Aagot Lassen, Miss Myrtle Senel, Miss Edna Sattler, Miss Irene Mosher, Miss Margaret Dixon, Miss Alice Green, Miss Garnet West, Miss Ethel Chase, Miss Gladys Morgan, Miss Tirzah McMillen, Miss Nellie Deppie, Miss Rita Lind, Miss Mabel Holmes, Miss Francis Tallmage, Miss Helen Zimmerman, Miss Helen Woodcock, Miss Annabelle Crawford,

Invitations have been issued by the management of the Helig Theater to a limited number of representative society, club, professional and business women and men to hear Miss Fannie Harley, writer, traveler and lecturer, at the Helig Theater Friday, November 13, at 3 P. M. Miss Harley will talk on "Fashion—Past, Present and Future," and "The History, Philosophy and Psychology of Dress." Admission is by invitation only.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Menefee entertained delightfully Monday night with a military whist of eight tables. Those enjoying their hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. George D. Green, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Waring, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Peters, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Blasing, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Draper, Mr.

Rundret, Mrs. Theodore Nicolai, Roy Nicolai and Linwood Cornell. The fortunate contestants were Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Blasing, E. B. Holmes and Roy Nicolai. Miss Grace Fields assisted about the rooms, which were attractively decked for the occasion.

A number of the younger set were entertained by the Delta Pi Sorority at a costume dance given at the beautiful home of Miss Nadene Baker, in honor of Miss Eva Boscovitch and Miss Florabelle Parrott. Masses of shaggy dahlias and autumnal foliage formed the decorations. The porches were enclosed and dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening. A novel picnic luncheon was served at a late hour. The invited guests were: Pauline Helms, Eva Boscovitch, Marjorie Freer, Florabelle Parrott, Lina Brown, Christine Parrott, Elsie Wigginton, Hazel Smith, Blanche Freer, Mayme Free, Saline Kropf, Ruby Rector, Lida Littel, Pauline Chittenden, Nadene Baker, Jack Berry Manley, Trece Jack Bruhn, David Griff, Melvin O'Shea, Ray Delahunt, Lee Waldron, Carl Logan, Warren Trece, Lloyd Vermillion, Ralph Rector, Gordon Mounce, Ben Kiske, Julian Burke, Will Boyer, Otto Boyer, Helen Bracht, Edith Bracht, Florence Henley, Layman Bonney, Herbert Lamon, Patrick Riley, Dr. William

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bradley announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth, to John M. Joyce, the marriage to take place the latter part of November.

Mrs. C. L. Meade and Mrs. W. F. Woodward were patronesses recently for a tea at the Irvington Club Home when the work of the Needle Work Guild of America was presented.

As a result of that meeting the following women became directors of the Guild: Mrs. F. S. Fields, Mrs. George Versteeg, Mrs. Marian Versteeg, Mrs. Roy Yates, Mrs. L. E. Kern, Mrs. Theodore Nicolai, Mrs. W. J. Hofmann and Mrs. J. C. Bracher, as each of these women secures ten members besides herself, a fine section was created through the energy of Mrs. Meade and Mrs. Woodward.

The Guild collects from each member two new articles of underwear or household linens and distributes these to the poor of Portland. The articles collected for this year will be (Continued on Page 4)
