

KAMM BROTHERS MARRY SISTERS

Portland Young Men Take Brides in Daughters of California Official.

PORTLAND MEN ARE USHERS

Famous Glenwood Mission Inn at Riverside Practically Turned Over to Wedding Party—Prominent Folk Take Part.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—One of the most brilliant social events in the year's social calendar was the Kamm-Roberts double wedding, which took place tonight in the Glenwood Mission Inn at Riverside. The brides were the Misses Louise Eliza and Maude Marie Roberts, daughters of State Treasurer and Mrs. E. D. Roberts. The bridegrooms were the brothers, Miss Louise became the bride of Walker Willis Kamm, Miss Maude was married to her brother, Phillip Schuyler Kamm. Both the young men live in Portland.

The Mission Inn practically was turned over to the wedding party. The service took place in the quietly beautiful cloister which already has been the scene of other remarkably beautiful weddings. The decorations included 2000 caryanthenums and greens. Organ, Orchestra and Chimes Join.

Two aisles to the altar were formed by tall pedestals of candelabra. Louise Roberts, the bride of Walker Kamm, with her attendants, moved down the aisle and Maude Marie Roberts, the bride of Phillip Schuyler Kamm, followed. The brides were attended by Miss Louise Eliza and Maude Marie Roberts, chimes joined in the wedding march. The bridal party of Miss Louise Roberts were beautiful gowns of Nile green and Miss Maude Roberts attendants were gowns of the same design in rose color. Mr. Roberts gave his two daughters away. The double ring ceremony was performed by Right Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, bishop of the Episcopal Church, assisted by Dr. Milton Dotson, a family friend of the Roberts. The brides' attendants, in number, were Miss Eleanor Scott, a society belle of St. Louis, who made her debut last winter; Miss Julia Austin, Cleveland girl, who has come to California to finish her university course; Miss Ruth Craig, daughter of John Craig, president of the Crair Shipbuilding Company, of Long Beach, and a social favorite in the seaside city; Miss Dorothy Davis, a society girl of Redlands, and a cousin of the brides; Miss Dolly Elsworth, of Pasadena; Miss Hortense Koepfli and Miss Blanche Davenport, of Los Angeles; Miss Marjorie Moon, of Piedmont, and Miss Katherine Crellin, of Oakland.

Portland Men Among Ushers.

The ushers were Clarence Olmstead and Howell Jones, of Portland; Dr. Robert Lee Hull, of San Francisco; Herbert Hubbard and Richard E. Roberts, (the latter an uncle of the brides), of Redlands; Harry H. Fair, of New York and Riverside; Ernest Crawford May, of Pasadena, and Stanley Henshaw, of Oakland.

Attending the brides as pages were four children. The brides' daughters, daughter of Judge and Mrs. E. P. Bledsoe; Keith Sutherland, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Sutherland, of Fresno; little Jack Francisco, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bond Francisco, of Los Angeles, and George Henry Ide, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ide, of Redlands, a cousin of the brides.

A large number in society folk from Los Angeles attended the wedding.

On the brides' tables at the wedding supper were 600 dozen lilies of the valley. The guests received as favors long wands with roses. Showers of rice and dozens of white pink balloons with the words "Kamm-Roberts" were thrown from table to table.

Ball Follows Supper.

A ball in the cloister room followed. Miss Louise Roberts was crowned in a short full skirt with brocade, embroidered in silver threads a design of pite cones. Over the crown was a tulle and rhinestone in chrysanthemum design, long sleeves of shirred embroidered maline, court train from shoulder and a tulle veil held by a net of pearls. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Miss Marie Roberts wore a gown with accordion-pleated skirt of ivory charmeuse, unbordered in rhinestones, a long basque bodice of duchesse lace, court train embroidered in a design of orchids and lilies of the valley, and tulle veil held by pearl orange blossoms.

There was a week of gaiety before the wedding. A merry house party made the beautiful Roberts home in San Bernardino ring with happy laughter, the bride attendants having gathered there to pass the last few days before the wedding.

Walker Kamms will take a honeymoon trip to New York and the New England States.

The Phillips Kamms will go to the Hawaiian Islands. They will be at home in Portland at the Hotel Mallory December 15, the date of their first reception.

GERMANS HELD BY ALLIES

(Continued from First Page.)

Some of the soldiers were exhausted with cold and their wet clothes stuck to their bodies and greatly impeded their movements.

"The allies won ground, foot by foot, along the coast near Neuport, which the Germans were prevented from entering. They were fearful of the British naval guns.

"The allies' middle line, which occupied Dixmude, was obliged to yield, but Dixmude was not wholly occupied by the Germans, as the allies retained the outer districts.

"The Belgian regiments made seven bayonet attacks in one night, between Neuport and Dixmude. The total of Belgian losses in killed and wounded is estimated at 16,000."

PARIS REPORTS GOOD DAY

Attacks of Germans Repulsed, and Allies Hold Bridge at Neuport.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—The following official communication was issued today by the French War Office:

"From the sea to the north of Lille the day has been good. Two attacks by the enemy, one to the northeast of Zonnebeke, the other to the south of Tress, have been repulsed, the latter with heavy losses to the Germans.

"Between the canal of La Bassee and Arras and in the region of LiHons the enemy has made two attempts without result."

The earlier official report said:

"In Belgium a German attack against the head of the bridge at Neuport resulted in failure and various efforts at offensive movements on the part of the enemy in the region to the east and to

WOMAN DIES AT DEPOT

Mrs. Lucy Lange, 55, Succumbs on Seattle-Bound Train.

Mrs. Lucy Lange died on the Northwest Pacific train at the Union Depot last night at 11:30 o'clock, just before the time scheduled for departure for Seattle. She was about 55 years old and her ticket indicated she had traveled extensively.

The body was taken to the morgue and the coroner is in communication with railroad officials to learn the woman's antecedents.

Count of 160 Precincts Complete.

Under the direction of County Clerk Coffey, the official count of ballots cast in Multnomah County at the recent election is progressing with considerable speed, clerks having completed the count of 160 precincts last night. The count will proceed today in order to complete it at the earliest possible moment. It is expected the totals will be arrived at late this week.

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS TAKE PRISONERS

French Driven From Commanding Position at Berry-au-Bac.

BERLIN, Nov. 14.—(By wireless to London.)—Military headquarters today gave out an official announcement as follows:

"The fighting in Western Flanders continues. Our attacks during the past few days have been impeded by the rain and stormy weather, and are therefore proceeding slowly. South of the frontier we have taken 100 prisoners."

"The British attacks to the west of Lille have been repulsed."

"At Berry-au-Bac we compelled the French to evacuate a commanding position."

"Our attack in the forest of Argonne has made good progress. Here the French again suffered heavy losses, leaving more than 150 prisoners in our hands."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

BROADWAY PIERCES WILSON INCOGNITO

Salvation Army Loses Its Audience When President Sets Out for Stroll.

STREET ORATOR DITTO

Refuge Taken in Hotel After Crowd Has Reached Proportions That Disturb Policemen and Secret Service Men.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—President Wilson found tonight he could not hope to escape recognition in New York even when he appeared on the street as an unobtrusive private citizen. He tried it and failed. After spending the day playing golf at the Piping Rock Club on Long Island Mr. Wilson returned to this city and announced that he intended to spend the evening quietly at the home of his friend, Colonel E. M. House, in Fifty-third street. He changed his mind, however, and at 7:30 o'clock he and Colonel House started for a stroll on Broadway. They were attended only by a couple of secret service men, who remained some distance in the rear. Soon the President and his escort halted for a moment to listen to the music provided at a Salvation Army open-air meeting, and right there Mr. Wilson's incognito came to an end.

Salvationists Lose Audience.

"It's Wilson! It's President Wilson!" shouted the discoverer.

Instantly the Salvationists were deserted as the legionary began to follow the President and his host. The secret service men closed in quickly. Two blocks farther on the volunteer street orator discussing the Mexican situation gained the Nation's Chief Executive as an auditor. The President smiled and started on the speaker eulogized Villa and exoriated Carranza. The orator soon was deserted, the throng trailing the President.

The next stop in the Wilson itinerary was a suffragist meeting, the feminine speaker was interrupted by her address as the hundreds who followed the President came up the crowd, which shouted "Hurrah for Wilson," had by this time gained alarming proportions. Two or three New York policemen volunteered to assist the secret service operatives in forcing a path for the city's distinguished visitor and they began looking for a safe haven.

Refuge Sought in Hotel.

The suggestion was made as they reached Thirty-fourth street that they seek the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, where Dr. Cary Grayson, the President's physician, is staying. The hotel was reached safely and the officers made a lane for Mr. Wilson. As he gained the door the President turned and waved his hand, crying, "Good bye, I'm going to get away from you now."

As the crowd surged around the Thirty-fourth street entrance, Mr. Wilson, Colonel House and their guards were taken to the second floor in an elevator and spirited out on the Fifth avenue side. As they gained the street the President caught sight of a painting of Mrs. Wilson in the window of an art store.

The President stood silently and sadly before the window for a few minutes, the crowd evidently forgotten. Then the secret service men hailed a Fifth avenue bus and in this vehicle the President of the United States, his exploration of the city ended for the night, rode to the home of Colonel House.

In the afternoon President Wilson took a long automobile ride through Long Island and was within a few miles of Colonel Roosevelt, who at his home in Oyster Bay, but the two did not meet. Colonel Roosevelt expressed interest when told that Mr. Wilson was near him and said he hoped the President would return to Washington tomorrow.

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

BROADWAY PIERCES WILSON INCOGNITO

Salvation Army Loses Its Audience When President Sets Out for Stroll.

STREET ORATOR DITTO

Refuge Taken in Hotel After Crowd Has Reached Proportions That Disturb Policemen and Secret Service Men.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—President Wilson found tonight he could not hope to escape recognition in New York even when he appeared on the street as an unobtrusive private citizen. He tried it and failed. After spending the day playing golf at the Piping Rock Club on Long Island Mr. Wilson returned to this city and announced that he intended to spend the evening quietly at the home of his friend, Colonel E. M. House, in Fifty-third street. He changed his mind, however, and at 7:30 o'clock he and Colonel House started for a stroll on Broadway. They were attended only by a couple of secret service men, who remained some distance in the rear. Soon the President and his escort halted for a moment to listen to the music provided at a Salvation Army open-air meeting, and right there Mr. Wilson's incognito came to an end.

Salvationists Lose Audience.

"It's Wilson! It's President Wilson!" shouted the discoverer.

Instantly the Salvationists were deserted as the legionary began to follow the President and his host. The secret service men closed in quickly. Two blocks farther on the volunteer street orator discussing the Mexican situation gained the Nation's Chief Executive as an auditor. The President smiled and started on the speaker eulogized Villa and exoriated Carranza. The orator soon was deserted, the throng trailing the President.

The next stop in the Wilson itinerary was a suffragist meeting, the feminine speaker was interrupted by her address as the hundreds who followed the President came up the crowd, which shouted "Hurrah for Wilson," had by this time gained alarming proportions. Two or three New York policemen volunteered to assist the secret service operatives in forcing a path for the city's distinguished visitor and they began looking for a safe haven.

Refuge Sought in Hotel.

The suggestion was made as they reached Thirty-fourth street that they seek the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, where Dr. Cary Grayson, the President's physician, is staying. The hotel was reached safely and the officers made a lane for Mr. Wilson. As he gained the door the President turned and waved his hand, crying, "Good bye, I'm going to get away from you now."

As the crowd surged around the Thirty-fourth street entrance, Mr. Wilson, Colonel House and their guards were taken to the second floor in an elevator and spirited out on the Fifth avenue side. As they gained the street the President caught sight of a painting of Mrs. Wilson in the window of an art store.

The President stood silently and sadly before the window for a few minutes, the crowd evidently forgotten. Then the secret service men hailed a Fifth avenue bus and in this vehicle the President of the United States, his exploration of the city ended for the night, rode to the home of Colonel House.

In the afternoon President Wilson took a long automobile ride through Long Island and was within a few miles of Colonel Roosevelt, who at his home in Oyster Bay, but the two did not meet. Colonel Roosevelt expressed interest when told that Mr. Wilson was near him and said he hoped the President would return to Washington tomorrow.

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following dispatch concerning the fighting in Flanders:

"The Germans on Friday blew up all the culverts of the Leopold and Schipdonck canals with the object of flooding the surrounding country. They also destroyed the bridge at Moerkkerke. The same night there was heavy artillery fighting near Lombaerthye and Neuport."

"New troops have been arriving at Ostend from Bruges. Troops are continually passing Ostend on their way to and from Roulers. Bad weather has made the battlefield a right swamp and the entrenchments are filled with water and mud. Weather conditions are impeding transportation and causing a shortage of food supplies."

"No civilians are allowed at Zeebrugge, presumably because work is being rushed on more submarines at that report."

GERMANS FLOODING CANALS

More Submarines Said to Be in Preparation at Zeebrugge.