WEST POINT BEATS ANNAPOLIS, 20 TO 0

Middies Are Outclassed and Outplayed in Annual Football Match.

33,000 PERSONS SEE GAME

Forward Passing by Both Teams Is Poor, but Assists in Two Touchdowns by Cadets—Result Ties Long Series.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 28.—The United States Military Academy football team defeated the Naval Academy eleven by a score of 20 to 0 in their annual game on Franklin Field today. Once the powerful and well-balanced Army machine started its march for the initial touchdown, the ultimate outcome of the game was never in doubt. The Annapolis combination was outplayed and outclassed in every department. There was much laxness of play and the forward passing by both sides as a rule was poor. The famous University of Pennsylvania athletic amphitheater was thronged with almost 33,000 spectators. The supporters of the Army and the Navy followed every cue given by the cheering squads of the sailors and soldiers, and as a result the long oval-shaped stand surrounding the field was constantly a-ripple with the hues of either West Point or Annapolis.

Punting Wins First Score.
Each team in turn tried out the opponent's defense, but without disclosing any noticeably weak spots. As a result punting was resorted to and the Army's first score came as a result of these exchanges.

Coffin kicked from the cadets' 40-yard line and the ball, after hitting several players, rolled to the Navy's five-yard line, where Blodgett fell on it. His attempt to punt out from behind his own goal line on the first lineup was blocked, and he fell on the ball for a safety. The second period opened with the ball in possession of the Middies who could make little progress through or around the Army line. The cadets gained on every exchange of kicks, and when Blodgett fumbled one of Coffin's kicks, Merritt fell on the ball on the Navy's 15-yard line.

Richard Makes Touchdown.
When Richard made his first touchdown pass to Merritt, who ran across the sailors' line without opposition. The try for goal failed.

The second touchdown was made in the same period by a series of similar plays. Blodgett, of the Middies, fumbled a punt, the Army recovering it on the 50-yard line. Richard shot a perfect pass to Merritt, who carried the ball to the one-yard line. Hodgson easily made the distance, but McEwan again failed at goal.

The Middies fought desperately in the third period, but they never threatened the Army goal.

When the final quarter opened a punting duel worked the ball within striking distance of the Middies' goal and the soldiers uncovered an old-fashioned attack which proved irresistible.

After the ball had been carried across the line, the Army failed to convert the touchdown into a goal and the scoring ended.

Series Is Tied.
As a result of today's victory the series, which began in 1890, stands a tie, each academy having won nine games, and one, that in 1905, having been a draw.

The result also rounded out a triumphant season for the Army team, which takes its place as one of the few greatest eleven to complete the 1914 football campaign without being defeated or tied.

The usual spectacular demonstration followed the game, with the enthusiastic gray-clad Army cadets the central figures. They planted the black, gold and gray, their academy colors, in the center of the field, then formed a circle that was as wide as the breadth of the field. There was a bugle call from the half-dozen Army buglers, and then ensued a wild rush to the colors, the whole circle closing in around the color bearer. The cadets formed a procession and paraded around the field, while the sad and silent Middies looked on. The lineups follow:

Sounding the Sport Reveille

THE Calexico team in the Imperial Valley League, of California, a Winter organization, has secured the services of "Seattle" Bill James, who was seen here with the touring all-stars.

Brawley, another town in the league, not to be outdone has signed up Grover Alexander, of the Phillies. These two moundmen will be pitted against each other whenever the teams play and some lively pitching duels are expected.

Every club in the league is making an effort to secure talent that will be able to compete with the top stars.

The Yale bowl is not the one in which the three wise men set out to sea. Every year there is arranged some way by which Charles F. Taft can be relieved of his baseball worries, but just about the time the happy negotiations are about to be closed, the deal is declared off. Not by the widest stretch of imagination can C. F. Taft be identified as a baseball man. Ner has his commercial interest in the great National pastime helped it any. Mr. Taft was directly responsible for Charles Webb Murphy's nine years of slap-stick comedy in organized baseball and he also made it possible for Horace Fogel to enact a few stunts that were decidedly prejudicial to the interests of the sport.

However, Fogel was less to blame than Murphy, many of whose sins were visited on the former head of the Phil. lies. The sale of Mr. Taft's share in the Chicago club would be a good thing for the National League. Of course, they are all in it for the coin, but Taft's interest in baseball cannot be a factor in the progress of things in baseball. How often does he take part in baseball council, unless money is involved? How many times does he attend in a season? How much has C. F. Taft done toward advancing the interests of the game? He bought out the Cubs? The baseball public certainly has a right to know.

What is the use of one team stealing the signals of another when it cannot remember its own?

HOCKEY COMPETITIONS ON COAST EXPECTED TO BE KEEN.

First Game in Series to Be Played in Portland Tuesday of Next Week and Men Are Training.

The 1914-15 professional hockey series on the Coast will start Tuesday of next week. The teams of Vancouver, Victoria and Portland, comprising the Coast Hockey League, are training and should be in condition for a strenuous season. The opening game will be in Portland between Vancouver and the home team.

The coming season is expected to provide more thrills and better contests than any other of the four years the Coast League has staged hockey, due to the fact that the world's hockey series will be played on the Coast.

Victoria, the champions of the Coast, tried for the Stanley cup last year, but the Toronto were too fast for the Western aggregation. The championship winners in recent years were as follows:

- 1882—Montreal Hockey Club.
- 1894—No match.
- 1895—Montreal Victorias.
- 1896—Victorias of Montreal.
- 1897—Victorias of Montreal.
- 1898—No match.
- 1899—Victorias of Montreal.
- 1900—Shamrocks of Montreal.
- 1901—Winnipeg Victorias.

Financial Depression Melts by Judge's Magic.

Judge Compromises With Self on Seat Rental for Foppe-Inman Billiard Match and Is Glorious.

DESPITE the bad financial year in Pacific Coast League baseball, the firm of McCredie & McCredie is doing well, thank you!

W. W. McCredie, president of the Portland ball club, was as happy as a drummer with a fat order book last night. Willie Hoppe and Melbourne Inman, two itinerant billiardists with world's championships galore, are to appear at the McCredie billiard parlors Tuesday and Wednesday and yesterday Judge McCredie closed a contract with himself for the use of the box chairs at the ball park for the billiard crowd.

The Judge was closed with himself for nearly an hour, debating the matter. Finally he compromised with himself on an equitable rental of $15.

Hence the glitz. This enterprising firm is a hard one to beat. Any time one of the Mack's ball clubs shows a deficit all the Judge has to do is to transfer a ballplayer to another of his teams and credit so much on the purchase price.

It's a nifty scheme, the billiard exhibitions, Hoppe and Inman will exemplify the English style of billiards Tuesday afternoon and evening and will do some tummy stunts at American ballline on Wednesday.

Hoppe is without doubt the greatest horse in the world. He can keep his round ivories in one spot and nurse them longer than any other mortal that ever lived. Willie has not exhibited in Portland for several years and ought to be a great drawing card.

Willie is about 27 years old, but for publicity purposes he has been 21 years old since Currier's Lake was over.

Savings Department Opens Soon.
Beginning next Tuesday the United States National Bank will conduct a savings department in addition to its regular commercial banking business. This arrangement has been made to accommodate a demand on the part of patrons of the bank for savings accommodations. A competent and experienced officer will be placed in charge. A liberal rate of interest will be paid.
