

INSTITUTIONS' FUND IN WASHINGTON CUT

Board of Control Announces Budget for Biennium Will Total $3,989,199.

MAINTENANCE COST MORE

Economical Building Programme Is Outlined—Improvements at Vancouver Schools for Defectives Are Planned.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—The Washington Board of Control announced today its budget for the 12 state institutions and other requirements for the coming biennium.

An increased amount is asked for maintenance of the state institutions. On the basis of an estimated population of 6740 inmates of all institutions during the next biennium $4,092,285 is requested, compared with $2,124,535 appropriated by the last Legislature.

An economical building programme has been outlined, however, and aside from maintenance only $1,289,814 is requested for the institutions, as compared with $1,759,825 appropriated by the last Legislature for these purposes.

Funds for Schools Asked. The state schools for the blind and for the deaf at Vancouver, Wash., are among those for which new buildings are planned by the Board of Control.

At the school for the blind $60,000 is requested for a fireproof school building to replace the present frame structure, and at the school for the deaf $40,000 is asked for a similar purpose.

At the state's latest institution, the State School for Girls at Grand Mound, Thurston County, with the buildings not yet occupied, their capacity is less than the number of girls awaiting admission. The Board accordingly asks $100,000 for a new ward building and an administration and chapel building.

One of the most interesting proposals of the Board of Control building programme is the plan to establish the institution for feeble-minded on a new site, a mile and one-half from the present location at Medical Lake. On the new site buildings have recently been constructed for male inmates. It is proposed to build sufficient additional buildings to house the entire institution and to turn over the present buildings at Medical Lake to the Eastern Hospital for Insane, which is outgrowing its present quarters.

Nearly $300,000 is therefore requested for new buildings and equipment for the institution for feeble-minded.

Asylum May Be Enlarged. The only other institutions for which new building programmes on a large scale are outlined are the Northern Hospital for Insane at Sedro-Woolley and the Monroe Reformatory. Plans are to enlarge the Northern Hospital and make it a receiving institution with a capacity for 750 or 800 inmates, transferring to this institution the surplus population at the Western Hospital for Insane, where there are now more than 1400 inmates, more than can be handled conveniently in a single institution. At the reformatory the plan is to continue the construction of permanent buildings by inmates labor and about $120,000 is asked for materials for this purpose.

At the State Training School at Chemahalla $20,000 is present for gymnasium building and equipment. Requests for maintenance appropriations at the various institutions, showing also the estimated population of each institution for the coming biennium, are as follows:

Table with 3 columns: Institution, Population, Estimated Maintenance. Rows include Western Hospital, Eastern Hospital, Northern Hospital, Feeble-minded, Soldiers' Home, Veterans' Home, School for deaf, School for blind, Penitentiary, Training school, Reformatory, School for girls, Total maintenance, Other institution requirements, Capitol building, Temple of Justice, Transportation convicts, Insane, reformatory, Parole department, Board of Control, Printing, Grand total.

BABY IS BURNED TO DEATH

Mother May Die From Burns Received From Putting Oil in Stove.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—Mrs. Gekolor, of Carlisle, while carrying her 3-year-old daughter in her arms Friday, poured kerosene on the embers in the kitchen stove. The fire caught the baby's nightgown. Mrs. Gekolor fought desperately to extinguish the fire, but fainted and communicated to her own garments. She came out of her stupor, jumped to her feet, ran from the house jumped into a creek with the baby still held in arms. There she was found shortly afterward. The baby was dead.

The house burned to the ground, and with $300 in paper money, was consumed. Mrs. Gekolor's arms and hands were severely burned, and she was burned also on other parts of her body. Her condition is critical.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 27.—(Special.)—Plans to hold the annual Clarke County Teachers' Institute in the Vancouver High School building December 21, 22 and 23 have been nearly completed by Mrs. Elizabeth Sterling, County Superintendent. POPULAR SALEM GIRL BECOMES BRIDE AT HOME WEDDING.

Mrs. Libburs Marion Boggs.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—One of the society events of the Winter in Salem was the marriage, November 12, of Miss Florence Houston to Libburs Marion Boggs at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Houston, on South Commercial street. It was one of Salem's most beautiful home weddings, the decorations and appointments being superb. White and yellow blossoms were used with masses of greenery. Just before the ceremony Dan F. Langenberg sang "Godfrey Nattings." "With You," Mrs. Chester being the accompanist. The bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Boggs, Miss Marie Bollinger, Miss Ensel Barker, of Eugene; Miss Anna Yantis, Miss Mollie Runcker, Miss Margaret Polenz, Miss Eugenia Bell and Miss Leta Benis, of Aurora.

Because there was no competition for nominations during the last primary election, and to save filing fees, the Socialists wrote in the names of all but one of their selected candidates for United States Senator down. The only exception was Mr. Coblenz, who was nominated by an ardent supporter who paid the filing fee.

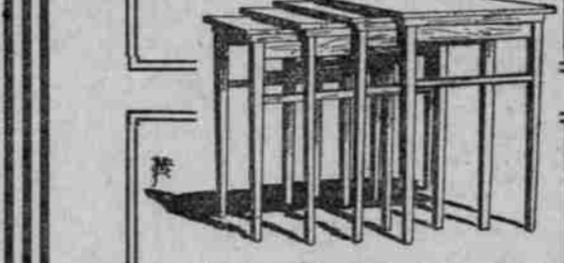

The canvass of the state board also shows there was a falling off in the Socialist party vote. Two years ago, when Mr. Coblenz ran as the party's candidate for Governor, he received 3127 more votes than he did at the general election.

Total Vote Increases. For Governor, taking the total vote cast for all candidates, there was an increase in the vote at the last general election over the vote cast at the general election two years ago. The total in 1912 was 105,495, and in 1914 was 107,913.

SOCIALIST VOTE OUT

TOTAL BALLOTS INCREASE

Governor Haines Receives 5291 More Than in 1912, but Is Defeated—Decrease in Progressives' Strength Is Shown.

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 28.—(Special.)—The Socialist party of Idaho has accomplished what the advocates for repeal of the primary law are urging, for it is evident from the canvass of the vote at the last general election that the Socialist candidates did not receive at least 10 per cent of the total vote cast for all candidates for the same office within the state, and the party, therefore, must go back to the old convention system of nominating its candidates. A. L. Coblenz, Socialist candidate for Governor, who led the ticket at the last election, received 7967 votes. The number cast was 107,913. Ten per cent would have been 10,791.

It is not at all probable that the Socialists will worry about going back to the convention. All their candidates are passed upon by referendum vote of the locals before the ticket is placed in nomination, it is said.

Names Are Written In. Because there was no competition for nominations during the last primary election, and to save filing fees, the Socialists wrote in the names of all but one of their selected candidates for United States Senator down. The only exception was Mr. Coblenz, who was nominated by an ardent supporter who paid the filing fee.

WELSH SEAMEN VICTORS

Large Increase in Wages Demanded and Met as Result of War.

MONMOUTH, England, No. 29.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Seamen in South Wales ports are demanding large increases in wages and are generally getting all they ask. The interment of German and Australian sailors and the calling up of the British naval reserves has caused a great shortage in experienced hands. The Seamen's Union naturally has taken advantage of the situation to exact what it hopes will be a permanent scale of wages, showing increases of from 20 to 60 per cent. The pay of ordinary seamen under the new scale will range from $33 to $50 a month. Before the war it was about $27.

"CHANTICLEER"

Over one thousand feet above the Columbia River, at Rooster Rock. The picture below gives just a faint idea of the grandeur of the view at this point. Just a few feet from the Inn you can look straight down, over a thousand feet, to the river bank, while stretching away in the distance is one of the world-famous "Columbia River panoramas."

CHANTICLEER'S FAMOUS CHICKEN DINNERS.

A very beautiful Chickering Baby Grand in satin finish, Circassian walnut case, and of the wonderfully graceful Louis XV design was purchased by the Chanticleer Hotel people at Ellers Music House and has now been installed in the lobby of the unique hostelry, which, by virtue of its location and service, is destined to become one of the world's renowned show places. While Chanticleer's dinners have become famous and have been designated the "perfection of catering," guests hereafter will be privileged to listen to the music of this perfection of pianos while enjoying the magnificent panoramic view of the Great Columbia River Gorge, visible for over 50 miles.

HOW TO REACH CHANTICLEER. The best way to reach Chanticleer Inn is by automobile, out East Burnside street to Twenty-fourth street, then over to Sandy boulevard and out through Troutdale along the famous Columbia River Drive—just about twenty miles of the finest road over which anyone would want to drive a car. The scenery, the cuisine, the exhilarating air, and the romantic setting of this inn combine to make the trip well worth the while of anybody. You should phone them on long-distance, Pacific phone, just asking for Chanticleer Inn, and your dinner will be ready for you when you arrive.
