We Are Co-operating

With the United States Government

IN AIDING THE INDUSTRIES OF THE PHILIPPINES AND HAVE EXCLUSIVE AUTHORITY IN PORTLAND TO EXHIBIT AND SELL FOR A FEW DAYS ONLY A WONDERFUL LOT OF FILIPINO HANDICRAFTS PRODUCED UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

The marvelous proficiency of the Filipino is wonderfully exemplified in the merchandise we have received for display and sale. There is no duty to pay and the merchandise is made doubly attractive by the extremely low prices. The Government's interest in this handicraft is purely philanthropic—another reason for the exceptionally low prices.

EXQUISITE HAND-EMBROIDERED WORK
In Which Single Thread Only Was Used—Is shown in the dainty nightgowns, chemise, baby dresses, baby petticoats, baby caps, waists, combinations, colored negligees, houndoir caps, collar and cuff sets.

FILIPINO INGENUITY IS EVIDENCED
In the display of Pina Dollies, a product of the pineapple fiber. Baskets—in great variety of sizes and styles, made by the pupils of the public schools—the history of each basket and name and age of maker attached. Baskets are made of rattan and bamboo combined. Brooms—Whips and canes of bamboo, lamp shades, fans and Moro gongs—the gongs are made by the Moros—all hand smelted and finished. Popular in this country for tea gongs.

Also in this display will be seen Balingau Buntal Hats for men—an extremely high grade hatting made from the fiber of the Petiole of the Buri Palm is used.
Bamboo Hats for Women—A novelty well worth seeing. Pillow Cushions, made from the Pinolpo and Sinimay Hemp. This Hemp is pounded with a wooden mallet and woven by hand.
